Don't be shocked if you see strange and unusual things happening down here in the end of the world. Our kind Father said - "As for my people... women rule over them." Isa. 3:12.

Do you see anything unusual? Unusual things are going to be happening from now on. Soon, you'll see why. "And the powers of the heavens shall be shaken... and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory." Matt. 24:29,30.

learned that dear Jesus is constantly getting His honest people away from those who would corrupt them - like in Noah's day. That's why God called Abraham away from his worldly family to go to the "promised land." And that's why He brought His people out of Egypt; and why Jesus started the Christian church; and why He used Martin Luther to bring His people out of the Roman church; and why He used William Miller to bring His godly ones out of the fallen Protestant churches; and why He had preachers warn the people to turn to God before the devil roasted them in the great Chicago and Peshtigo fires - and before the people were washed away in Galveston; and why He allows the devil to bring wars - when the people ignore our Saviour to cling to their sins. Is that why God is sending His people now to warn the world that the image of the beast will be set up at the Sunday law - to enforce the mark of the beast - before the seven last plagues fall? And what does Galveston have to do with it?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened... And the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And he shall send his angels to gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other."

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: The verse says that the days will "be shortened." Will God's holy angels have anything to do with it? And will the devil and his armies have anything to do with it?

Hope: We've already

World Net Daily, Victor de Bruijn said, "I love both Bianca and Mirjam, so I'm marrying them both." How does that sound? "We need not be surprised at anything that may take place now. We need not marvel at any developments of horror." Last Day Events, p. 147. Things happening now are signs that - before people realize it - they'll see the face of God "with power and great glory." Soon, you'll know why.

The headline in the Oct. 30 issue of Pakalert Press says, “The Muslim Invasion of Europe is Picking Up Where Hitler Left Off.” An Oct. 13 Pakalert Press headline says, “NASA Takes Chemtrail Spraying Program to Outer Space.” It talks about them putting out a large area of [poisonous] chemicals which will descend upon the earth. {But it says for no one to be alarmed because it’s only an experiment.}

Time now is so short that our kind Father has allowed the devil to move upon a highly educated person to write an article which I read the other day. She said that women should assert their rights. They should assert their liberties. They should assert the glory of their full womanhood so that each woman should be free to cut holes in their blouses in just the right places so that wherever they go [to church, on the streets, in the shopping centers, and in every place] everyone will be able to see - sticking out of the two holes - her two [redacted].

Not a day goes by now that some horror doesn’t happen, showing that many millions have been beating back dear Jesus for so long that they are crossing the line and are committing the

Head weatherman, Isaac Cline & his wife Cora Mae

Galveston - 1900

U.S. Weather Service - 1900

After running the preacher out of town - and rejecting dear Jesus, our Saviour finally, and sorrowfully allowed the rejecters of His love to have the master they had chosen. People today don’t know that soon, that will happen again - to the entire world.

It was a time of boundless optimism - “the Golden age.” They had electricity, the telephone, and the telegraph for communications. Motor cars were being sold. There were majestic, castle-like homes. Galveston was one of the richest cities in the country. Why should the city fathers feel a need of God?

The U.S. Weather Service had a reputation for incompetence and corruption.

Lew Fincher, Galveston Historian, said, “There were a lot of other activities going on in the Weather office.” One weatherman was caught taking photographs of [redacted]. To survive, the Weather Bureau would have to clean up its act. Isaac Cline was an upright man who was considered one of the Bureau’s great sources of hope. So they put him in charge of the weather service in Galveston. With three lovely daughters, a happy home, and everything heart could wish, Isaac and Cora Mae are almost overwhelmed with their good fortune!

But Isaac has no way of knowing the horror that lies ahead.

“unpardonable sin.” Soon, every intelligent person on earth will either have crossed that line, or will have received the “seal of God.” By God’s grace, I’ll keep you posted as to what’s happening leading to earth’s “great climax” - “Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.” Titus 2:13,14.

So many people have already crossed over that line that - “Men possessed of demons are taking the lives of men, women, and little children... The Spirit of God is withdrawing from the earth, and calamity follows calamity by sea and by land. Rapidly are men ranging themselves under the banner they have chosen. Restlessly are they waiting and watching the movements of their leaders... Few believe with heart and soul that we have a hell to shun and a heaven to win. [Pastor Jan: [Many church members talk like - “Oh, if I’m saved I’ll...” as if it doesn’t much matter one way or the other!]

“The crisis is stealing gradually upon us. The sun shines in the heavens, passing over its usual round... Men are contending for the highest place. Pleasure lovers are still crowding to theaters, horse races, gambling hells. The highest excitement prevails, yet probation’s hour is fast closing, and every case is about to be eternally decided.” Maranatha, p. 35.

Some time ago I heard a sermon by H.M.S. Richards. He told about how a preacher had come to town to hold meetings in Galveston, TX. He invited the people to give their hearts and lives to dear Jesus - who died on the cross of Calvary for us all, to save us from sin and eternal death, and give us joy and happiness forever. He told about the coming judgment of God, and the soon coming of Jesus - and the people of Galveston ran him out of town! Charity: Then what happened?

Pastor Jan: A monster hurricane turned the city into rubble.

Faith: What kind of city was Galveston anyway?

Pastor Jan: High society. In September of 1900 it was on its way to becoming the greatest and richest city of the south. Many had the best clothes; the most luxurious homes; the grandest churches; and the economy was booming.

One of the most attractive figures was Isaac Cline - the chief weatherman. Everyone looked to him to keep them safe. Much of the city, built on an island, was actually below sea level, with the highest point of ground in the city being less than 9 feet above the sea!

Hope: Why did some sleazy grocery store paper and internet article picture this woman dressed as a criminal, a prisoner, and a witch? What does God think about it?

Pastor Jan: Our kind Father said, “Sorcerers... and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.” Rev. 21:8. The world, being filled with sorcerers and liars is another sign that dear Jesus is coming soon.

Charity: Who is this woman?
Pastor Jan: It’s a secret.

Isaac Cline – chief weatherman in Galveston

The two love-birds - as seen in the documentary on Galveston, entitled, "Isaac's Storm."

August 30, 1900 - a small tropical storm moves off the coast of west Africa and travels west over the open sea. On September 3, the storm hits Cuba. American weather observers in Cuba wire Washington that they expect the storm to head northeast into Florida - the typical path for tropical storms in that area. Meanwhile, Isaac and his brother Joseph, keep a close watch on their instruments. Isaac has seen the report coming out of Cuba, and he believes that the coming storm will not hurt his city.

Wednesday, September 5, 1900. For the past two days the tropical storm has been drenching Cuba. Isaac is getting regular reports from Washington concerning the storm, but the reports never mention the word "hurricane."

Thursday, September 6. The temperature is very hot with high humidity. The Weather Bureau in Washington tells Isaac that the storm will head into Florida and up the Atlantic Coast. So he goes home that evening confident that once again, Galveston will be spared. Sometime late that night, the storm - pushed by unseen forces - about which weather men cannot know - shifts direction, and heads west. The wind speed builds as the storm feeds ravenously on the heat of the golf water. As the storm moves toward Galveston at about 10 mph, it becomes - in the blackness of the night - a monster.

September 7, 1900. It's a hot and muggy Friday. The humidity is almost unbearable. The waves lapping upon Galveston's shore are as warm as bath water. The population is 37,789. Happy days! The city is absolutely convinced that it is going to become the New York City of the south. Meanwhile, 120 foot swells race across the golf. Winds approaching 140 mph scream westward as the barometric pressure plummets around the monster's eye, and spiraling winds carry air at over 1 million tons per second. Along the eye wall, winds begin to go so fast that they create centrifugal forces and are literally lifting the surface of the sea. [If the people knew what is coming they would cry to dear Jesus - cry to dear Jesus!] That mass of water is now headed straight for Galveston. It's the "perfect storm." Isaac Cline, his precious pregnant wife, their three daughters, and the rest of the city, are sound asleep.

Meanwhile, Isaac and his brother Joseph, keep a close watch on their instruments.

Just off the sand of the beach is St. Mary's orphanage.

In the orphanage are 93 children and 10 nuns.

Dear Sir,
I received a copy of "National Sunday Law" in my newspaper box with my Sunday paper. I couldn't put the book down! I have read Daniel and Revelation over and over trying to understand. Your book has answered all my questions! Praise God! Yes, What a Saviour! R.P.

hurricane, but Isaac has no way of knowing this. There is no ship-to-shore communication at this time.

Sabbath morning, September 8, 1900. All over town, Galvestonians go about their normal routine. Mae Palmer brings her husband Judson a cup of tea. August Rolfing and his wife play with their kids in their new home. Jewish rabbi Henry Cohen conducts services. Isaac's home is just three blocks from the beach; close enough to feel the reverberations from the pounding surf. That morning, he returns to the beach and observes the high, slow swells coming against an opposing wind. He clearly knows that this is unusual behavior!

9 AM Sabbath morning: the monster is about 50 miles off the coast. {If you remember, the great Chicago and Peshtigo fires were also on Sabbath. The devil likes to murder people on God's holy Sabbath day to mock dear Jesus.} Hurricane winds are already pushing huge waves up against the shore. The people of the city have no more idea of what's coming than do most people today. Isaac tells several merchants that while there will be a storm, he expects only minor flooding.

At midmorning water begins flowing into Galveston's low-lying streets. Still, the city goes about its routine. There's a sense of great celebration - just like they have in churches today - like when they partied and laughed around Noah's ark. It was a day for celebration, and if you were a kid, for great fun - like leaping off your porch into a stream of water that was racing past! Author Gary Cartwright said, "It was like a circus! Everybody was having a good time!"

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
I found the book "National Sunday Law" in the Laundromat. Since I read it my life has changed completely. I have been a very fervent Catholic. Since I read your book, I've stopped going to mass. I threw all my statues and pictures of the saints into the trash. Yesterday I told the Catholic mission that I renounce the Catholic church and the Catholic faith. Today I told God that I am going to be His worker. Please send me as many "National Sunday Law" books as you can. I will be giving God's truth to the people. Ruth R.

Mae Palmer pleads with her husband not to leave for work.

The nuns lead the children into the chapel, and have them sing "Queen of the Waves" again and again in an effort to keep them calm.

2:30 PM Sabbath afternoon, September 8, 1900. From his office on the fourth floor of the Leavy building, Isaac Cline can see the water rising in the streets of Galveston. He says to his brother, "Wire Washington! Tell them that Galveston is in dire straits! I'll raise the hurricane warning flag!" But it's too late! 37,000 residents of Galveston have nowhere to go.

Dear Sir, I have never seen anything that has explained so clearly God's word in such a plain understandable way! Please send me more of your books entitled "National Sunday Law." Thank you, and may God bless you all! Love in Christ, Anne Roof tiles, flying more than 100 mph, are cutting people to pieces. One flying tile meets a poor soul and chops his head off.

Near the shore, St. Mary's orphanage is under siege. As the hurricane tears down one part of the building, the nuns hurry the children into another. When that is ripped away, they rush with the children into yet another part - as if they are being chased by a giant dinosaur.

Across town, Rabbi Henry Cohan looks out his window, and sees his city starting to disappear. He asks his wife Molly to start playing the piano and sing with the children. He doesn't want them to see what's happening. Nearby, Isaac Cline has about 50 residents in his supposedly indestructible house.

6:15 PM. - The "eye wall" and the "storm surge" hit.

6:30 PM - Isaac Cline stands at his door watching as 120 mph gusts shriek past his home. All of a sudden, the sea rises 4 feet in 4 seconds! As the house is filling with water, all you can hear above the screams is the deafening roar.

August Rolwing has changed his mind! He will come home after all! But it's too late. He can't make it through the deep rushing water and howling chaos. He seeks refuge in a store and has to stand on top of a counter - like everyone else - holding a child in his arms - to keep their heads above water.

In St. Mary's orphanage, 93 children are in mortal danger as the structure begins to collapse. Gushing water fills the first floor, and then it lifts the entire building, which floats briefly, before the roof falls in. Not in reality [Eccl 9:5] but to the children, it seems like they have jumped past the time of trouble, and they see dear Jesus coming in the sky. In this old world they will experience no more pain or sorrow forever. Three of the children did survive. Young William Murney reported that when he woke up, he was up in a tree. How or why the three were saved and not the others, only God knows now. But when the Lord walks and talks with us by those living streams in the paradise of God, everyone will know from the lips of our Saviour, all the reasons why.

it will soon disappear among God's people.

August Rolwing's wife Louisa, pleads with him to stay home, but he leaves anyway, saying that he has to do this painting job. Mae Palmer tearfully asks her husband Judson to stay at their house. He too ignores his wife's pleas, and heads off to work. By noon, gale force winds are tearing at the island.

Mammoth waves pound the coast. The monster has arrived!!!

Author Gary Cartwright said, "People started coming up from the beaches saying, 'The bathhouses are being crushed!' Suddenly, there's a sense that maybe this is not so funny after all."

By 12:30 p.m. the streetcars are unable to move. The ocean is swallowing Galveston whole! Louisa Rolwing has seen enough. She wants her husband home - now! She sends her eldest son to tell August to come home immediately. He still refuses.

Yemmita's Corner: "a thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee." Psalm 91:7

August Rolwing's wife Louisa, pleads with him to stay home,

About 50 people huddle in Isaac's "stormproof" home.

Still, many don't realize the gravity of things. One survivor, living farther into the city, said that he didn't really believe that there was any danger until a dead body floated past his door.

Isaac Cline leaves the Weather Bureau and somehow makes it to his home near the sea. There, he is greeted by his pregnant wife, his three daughters, and about 50 people huddled in his "stormproof" home.

It's late afternoon, September 8, and the city is caught in the grip of a ferocious hurricane. The wind was measured at 100 mph and getting stronger before the wind measuring instrument was ripped off the side of the building. Power lines and bridges are gone. The people are cut off and alone in the black, howling, watery hell.

Praise the Lord Jan Marcussen!

My name is Danielle Riley of Sicklerville, N.J. I read "National Sunday Law" and I have become a Seventh-day Adventist! I came out of the Baptist church. It was such a relief to learn the truth of God! I have a burden for souls. I was in the hospital getting ready to die from an overdose of cocaine. God stepped in and regulated my heart. He saved me because He has a job for me to do! He blessed me with a strong anointing to win souls for Him. Please send me as many NSL preachers for what I've sent as you can. Soon, I will get more. God bless you! Danielle.

The house is smashed to pieces, and Isaac finds himself trapped under water beneath a piece of the house. When his breath runs out in a few seconds, he'll die. The hurricane moves the debris, and Isaac comes up for air. Amid the deafening roar he sees his three daughters and his brother clinging to some boards.

The screaming chaos lasts for 12 hours. 3,600 homes and buildings are rubble. The devil made sure that all nine of the grand churches are destroyed. About 8,000 people – one in every five in the city – are dead. Their bodies are strewn all over - like when Noah came out of the ark.

For them, the words of dear Jesus are fulfilled - "Surely, I come quickly." Rev. 22:20. Though the dead "know not anything," {Eccl. 9:5} yet His words, "I come quickly," are not false. To every person who has ever died, it seems to them that at the instant of death, they jump forward in their deep "sleep" {Jn. 11:11-13} and instantly see Him. And for us also, His words are true. He will destroy death. He will "do away with it." There will be no "secret" rapture - "For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord." I Thess. 4:16,17.

The Leavy building with the weather office is still standing, but Isaac doesn't return to work for three weeks because his love-bird, Cora Mae, can't be found. Day after day he looks and looks. They finally find her near where their house had been. "Jesus wept." Jn. 11:35. But our loved ones will live again - "at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed." I Cor. 15:52.

Their homes gone - Isaac's friends had all been thrown into the churning water - but Judson and Mae Palmer find and hold each other in their arms. Praise God! August Roling swims and staggers out of the store into the blackness to search for his family. He finally finds Louisa and his daughters, and they hold each other and praise God together! Rabbi Cohen, Molly, and their daughters are all united and safe - and they praise the Lord. Isaac Cline, his three precious daughters, and his dear brother have all survived by the grace of God.

One lady survivor sees some poor souls climbing out of the rubble. She said that the hurricane had blown all their clothes off. Another survivor said that during the whole ordeal, they sat together in their house and didn't move. The house floated up and then it floated back down and they all survived.

For both those who died and those who lived it can be said, "All things work together for good to them that love God." Romans 8:28. Why? Because "The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Rom. 6:23. Praise God!

As people crawl out of the shambles they look upon a landscape unlike anything they have ever seen.

Since He allowed the devil to bring it, how did dear Jesus work it out for good? The answer has many facets. One of them is that groups of people were seen on the streets singing, and praising God. "For when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness." Isa. 26:9. That's why "judgments" {which God allows the devil to bring} are coming about every day, somewhere in the world, before probation closes -- big time. Jesus wants to save them from sin and self if at all possible. Thus, our Lord uses even the devil's curses to help bring people to His loving heart, and away from Satan, the tyrant of death. May our kind Father give us His tender love for souls to reach them with His saving 3 angels' messages before they're dead - is my prayer! I praise Him that many of you are reaching the people with the NSL preachers. It's geared especially for the T.V. minds of today. And I'm so glad that you can read these many testimony letters from people whose lives God has changed. He gets all the praise.

Isaac Cline never re-married. The next year he was transferred to New Orleans, where he worked for the Weather Bureau for another 30 years. Each day the merchants would watch him walk to work, carrying his lunch bag. If he had his umbrella, they would keep their wares inside for fear of rain. If he didn't have it, they would put their wares out on the sidewalk. Isaac Cline died in 1955 at the good old age of 93. He ended up living longer than most everyone in all of Galveston. In heaven, Sweet Vennita and I hope to meet him and his precious love-bird Cora Mae - very soon.

Charity: What about the babies and children who died and who will die?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - "As the little infants come forth immortal from their dusty beds, they immediately wing their way to their mothers' arms. They meet again nevermore to part. But many of the little ones have no mother there. We listen in vain for the rapturous song of triumph from the mother. The angels receive the motherless infants and conduct them to the tree of life. [Praise God!]

"Jesus places the golden ring of light, the crown upon their little heads. God grant that the dear mother of 'Eva' may be there, that her little wings may be folded upon the glad bosom of her mother." Youth's Instructor, April, 1858.

"Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ." HP 262. "When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned." SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Amazing Truth,

My name is Robert Harrington. I am 47 years old. I came across the book called "National Sunday Law" by Jan Marcussen. I found this book fascinating and powerful. I believe this material is very important. I would like to study more, and am asking you to send me more material so I can learn more and more of God's word. I don't want to waste a moment of time. May the Lord bless you abundantly. In Christ, Robert

Dear Pastor Jan,

Your newsletter was so astounding that I sent copies to my relatives. They have wondered about Sunday-keeping for years, not being sure. Through a series of Providential moves, I sent them the "National Sunday Law" book. To my great joy they phoned and told me that at last they see the truth and are now keeping God's Sabbath day holy. They asked if I had any extra copies of NSL for them to send to their friends. I gave them some for that purpose. May God continue to bless and protect you as you continue to kindly share God's truth with many. C.B. British Columbia, Canada

In this old world, the power of the “mother” is the greatest human power that has ever been known! She is so high that Presidents and Congressmen are lower creatures compared to her. She is so high that her power is “next to GOD” Himself!!!!

Dear Pastor Jan,

Greetings from Zomba, Malawi, Central Africa. As you can see from the enclosed picture, the rain started falling for two days and two nights until the water flooded and destroyed everything. You can see that crops have been carried away, houses have fallen down, and hundreds have died. Now people are homeless and are sleeping in the church and other places. The flood destroyed 29 villages. But because of these horrible things, there are more than 60 people who want the “National Sunday Law” books. [Praise the Lord!] I have been able to teach the people right out of the NSL book! These are Islamic people and Sunday worshipers. May God bless you! Love in Christ, Massa Lawson Dutch
