And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.” Rev. 17:5,6. Notice the words “abominations of the earth.” What world-wide “abominations” is Rome the mother of? Both the “earth” and you will soon find out.

Do you know why she's floating in the air? Why are these people watching her float? He said, “Spiritualism and the papacy are as close together as two fingers are on your hand.”

wonders, wars, murders, marijuana, and sodomy leading to the “great day of God almighty?” Will the tongues of frogs be used to gather the masses together to the battle of Armageddon? What do riots have to do with it? What does this elderly man have to do with it? What does the devil's Sunday law have to do with it? And what does it all have to do with us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: In the verse, the Apostle John sees three unclean spirits like frogs. Frogs catch their prey with their tongues. Will the tongues of demons deceive the kings and people of the earth by their lies and miracles? Are lying Here's an elderly man who is over 65 years old.

Hope: Who is he? And what does he have to do with the horrors that are going on, and with Jesus coming soon?

Pastor Jan: You'll know in a minute.

The man you see on page one gripped the world's attention after winning the gold medal in the men's decathlon event at the Summer Olympics in Montreal, and setting a world record.

As a result, Jenner was a national hero and was the recipient of the James E. Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in the United States. He was also the Associated Press Male Athlete of the Year - finally to be inducted into the Olympic Hall of Fame, the Bay Area Sports Hall of Fame, the Connecticut Sports Hall of Fame, and the United States National Track and Field Hall of Fame.

The New York Times stated, "Jenner is twirling the nation like a baton. He and wife are so high up on the pedestal of American heroism, it would take a crane to get them down."

Agent, George Wallach, reported that Jenner was being considered for the role of Superman. Six months after turning 65 years old, the great 6 foot 2 inch superman said, "I'm a woman." ☺

Prepare For The Violence That Is Going To Sweep America

PakAlert Press

MAY 27, 2015

by Michael Snyder

"The thin veneer of civilization that we all take for granted on a daily basis is beginning to disappear, and a new era of chaos and anarchy is coming to our cities. I don't know if you have noticed, but violence is increasing on the streets of America.

"Over Memorial Day weekend, 29 people were shot in Baltimore and 55 people were shot in Chicago. According to the FBI, the number of police officers killed in the line of duty rose by an astounding 89 percent. We live at a time when Americans are becoming extremely angry and extremely frustrated, and this is only going to intensify. [Why? You've already learned that the Jesuits of Rome and their trainees are behind this chaos in accordance with Rev. 18:24. "The Roman Church is far-reaching in her plans and modes of operation. She is employing every device to extend her influence and increase her power in preparation for a fierce and determined conflict to regain control of the world, to re-establish persecution, and to undo all that Protestantism has done. Catholicism is gaining ground upon every side... The Protestant churches are in great darkness, or they would discern the signs of the times." GC 565,566.

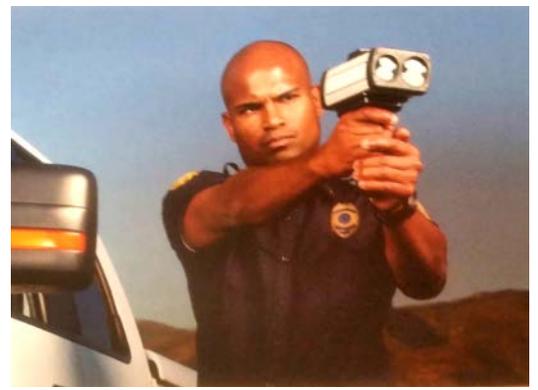

You've already learned that Rome's plan was to take over America by "seeding" the U.S. with families from Catholic countries to the south. And you've already learned that Dr. Savage announced on the radio that they are bringing 100,000 Islamic people into the U.S. every month [to "rub" Islam against Protestant Christianity to produce {they hope} an amalgamation that will be part one thing, and part the other - like when the devil amalgamated animals together until he got giant dinosaurs, and mated men with animals until God swept the whole thing away with the flood]. Concerning this, 3SG 64 says, "But if there was one sin above another which called for the destruction of the race by the flood, it was the base crime of amalgamation of man and beast which defaced the image of God, and caused confusion everywhere."

All this war, chaos, horrors, etc. are for the purpose of producing such fear in the people that they will be willing to compromise with pious leaders - like Senator Allen - who proposed a national Sunday law. The Vatican knows well that it will take strong measures to shape the minds of the people for that. So they are doing their part with the devil 24/7 - to bring it about. The world-wide papal system is larger than the Protestants of the U.S. The only effective thing that God's people can do about it is to get God's mighty 3 angels' messages out to the people while we can. And that happens to be just what the testimony of dear Jesus told us to do. Here it is - "In a special sense Seventh-day Adventists have been set in the world as watchmen and light bearers. To them has been entrusted the last warning for a perishing world. On them is shining wonderful light from the word of God. They have been given a work of the most solemn import—the proclamation of the first, second, and third angels' messages. There is no other work of so great importance. They are to allow nothing else to absorb their attention. The most solemn truths ever entrusted to mortals have been given us to proclaim to the world. The proclamation of these truths is to be our work. The world is to be warned, and God's people are to be true to the trust committed to them." 9T 19. Anything with less than eternal results will soon be gone with the wind. This is why I'm going to give 100 extra NSL preachers free to those who get 1000 to help win souls before the devil can kill them. The article continues -]

"Already we have seen some of this anger and frustration boil over. The vast majority of Americans expect more of the same in the coming months. According to a Wall Street Journal/NBC News survey, 96 percent of all Americans believe that there will be more civil unrest in America this summer. What we have seen up until now is just the warm up act. The main event is still to come.

"Violence is escalating. The United States is primed for a rebellion. But it isn't just that we are entering a new cycle of unrest. Violent gangs have mushroomed in size. Authorities Wednesday rounded up 37 MS-13 gang members in Charlotte, N.C. At this point, many of our

"Spiritualism asserts that 'each mind will judge itself;' that 'true knowledge places men above all law;' that 'all sins committed are innocent;' for 'whatever is, is right,' and 'God doth not condemn.' Thus it declares to all men, 'It matters not what you do; live as you please, heaven is your home.' At the same time anarchy is seeking to sweep away all law, not only divine, but human... [The other day, Sean Hannity said that because of the campaign against the police, they are somewhat backing down - to keep from getting attacked - and that many cities and towns - without police in view - are shooting each other like the "wild west." He reported that when a policeman drove up, he was surrounded by a crowd of angry people.] The spirit of unrest, of riot and bloodshed; the world-wide dissemination of the same teachings that led to the French Revolution—all are tending to involve the whole world in a struggle similar to that which convulsed France." ED 227,228. Do you think that Jesus is coming soon?

Dear Pastor Jan: The Lord is so good! This is what was discussed this last weekend at the conference.

<http://theghostdiaries.com/on-june-5th-pope-francis-will-announce-the-catholic-church-is-preparing-for-alien-contact/>

It says, "Is there a technologically and intellectually advanced species elsewhere in the galaxy? Pope Francis believes so, and will announce his intention to prepare the human species for contact.

"Constitutional lawyer Daniel Sheehan said that the Catholic Church is actively preparing for the discovery of, and contact with, a highly advanced alien species. [Pastor Jan: They will be "highly advanced" alright!!! "And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty." Rev. 16:13,14.] He spoke today at "Contact in the Desert 2015," a landmark UFO conference in Joshua Tree, in Southern California, where he described what will be a historic papal encyclical decree calling for nothing less than the disassembly of the power structures that are preventing us from joining an enlightened galactic partnership."

Pastor Jan: The prophet of God said, "Fearful sights of a supernatural character will soon be revealed in the heavens, in token of the power of miracle-working demons. The spirits of devils will go forth to the kings of the earth and to the whole world, to fasten them in deception, and urge them on to unite with Satan in his last struggle against the government of Heaven. By these agencies, rulers and subjects will be alike deceived." GC 623.

largest cities are absolutely packed to the gills with gangs made up primarily of illegal immigrants. [This is just the way Rome would have it - as society becomes like it was in France, where, "The Jesuits alone flourished in the decaying nation, and ruled with dreadful tyranny over churches and schools, the prisons and the galleys." GC 279. The gittery minds of the people are fast becoming ripe for the enforcement of the mark of the beast at the Sunday law.]

"America is changing. And when violence starts sweeping this nation, don't count on the government to come in and rescue you."

Pastor Jan: You've probably noticed that the nations are preparing for war, and many wars are raging at this moment. The June edition of Popular Science reveals that they are preparing a new "Secret Spyplane" that can fly over 4,000 mph. It goes so fast that the surface of the plane gets up to 2,000 degrees - hot enough to melt steel.

Faith: Are things now really like they were in the days of Noah?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - "In the days of Noah a double curse was resting upon the earth in consequence of Adam's transgression and of the murder committed by Cain. Yet this had not greatly changed the face of nature. The earth was still rich and beautiful in the gifts of God's providence. The hills were crowned with majestic trees supporting the fruit-laden branches of the vine. The vast, gardenlike plains were clothed with verdure, and sweet with the fragrance of a thousand flowers. The trees far surpassed in size, beauty, and perfect proportion any now to be found; their wood was of fine grain and hard substance, closely resembling stone, and hardly less enduring. Gold, silver, and precious stones existed in abundance.

Fossilized metal rivets found at the site were confirmed by Los Alamos Labs, UC as containing man-made aluminum and titanium. You've already learned that aluminum does not occur naturally in nature, but must be mined from bauxite ore. You see that the shape is of a rivet that had been hammered after being inserted through a hole in the wood.

thoughts of his heart was only evil continually...' The wickedness of men was open and daring, justice was trampled in the dust, and the cries of the oppressed reached unto heaven.

"Polygamy had been early introduced, contrary to the divine arrangement at the beginning. As the result, crime and wretchedness rapidly increased. Neither the marriage relation nor the rights of property were respected. Whoever coveted the wives or the possessions of his neighbor, took them by force, and men exulted in their deeds of violence. They delighted in destroying the life of animals; [like they do now] and the use of flesh for food rendered them still more cruel and bloodthirsty until they came to regard human life with astonishing indifference.

"The world was in its infancy; yet iniquity had become so deep and widespread that God could no longer bear with it; and He said, 'I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth.' He declared that His Spirit should not always strive with the guilty race. If they did not cease to pollute with their sins the world and its rich treasures, He would blot them from His creation.

"Amid the prevailing corruption, Methuselah, Noah, and many others labored to keep alive the knowledge of the true God and to stay the tide of moral evil. A hundred and twenty years before the Flood, the Lord by a holy angel declared to Noah His purpose, and directed him to build an ark. While building the ark he was to preach that God would bring a flood of water upon the earth to destroy the wicked.

The Turkish government made the "Noah's Ark National Park Visitor's Center."

In 1987 this was officially declared to be Noah's Ark by the Turkish Government, and the area was dedicated as a national park. [In a minute, you'll see why anyone giving evidence of the biblical flood makes the devil and his fiends hopping mad.] The site, in "the mountains of Ararat" is now equipped with a nearby visitor's center. Using the Egyptian cubit, it is 300 cubits long, [515 feet], which is the length that God commanded Noah to build the ark.

"The human race yet retained much of its early vigor. There were many giants, men of great stature and strength, renowned for wisdom, skillful in devising the most cunning and wonderful works; but their guilt in giving loose rein to iniquity was in proportion to their skill and mental ability.

"They endeavored to excel one another in beautifying their dwellings with the most skillful workmanship. [Like they do now] They sought only to gratify the desires of their own proud hearts, and reveled in scenes of pleasure and wickedness. Not desiring to retain God in their knowledge, they soon came to deny His existence. [Like they do now] They worshiped the works of their own hands, and taught their children to bow down to graven images.

"God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the

Do you see a snow-capped mountain? Here's a road sign in eastern Turkey. The words, "Nuhun Gemisi" mean, "Noah's ship." It's 2 miles north of the Iranian border, and eighteen miles south of the Greater Mount Ararat summit, [which you see in the background] at an elevation of 6,449 feet above sea level. The devil does not like anyone to believe that the ark or the flood ever existed because the reality of the biblical flood exposes the fallacy of one of the devil's most evil religions - the government mandated, tax supported religion by which the fiend destroys the faith of millions of young people in grammar schools, high schools, colleges, and La Sierra University - the false religion of "evolution."

Those who would believe the message, and would prepare for that event by repentance and reformation, should find pardon and be saved.

"God gave Noah the exact dimensions of the ark and explicit directions in regard to its construction in every particular. Human wisdom could not have devised a structure of so great strength and durability. God was the designer, and Noah the master builder. It was constructed like the hull of a ship, that it might float upon the water, but in some respects it more nearly resembled a house. It was three stories high, with but one door, which was in the side. The light was admitted at the top, and the different apartments were so arranged that all were lighted. The material of the ark was the cypress, or gopher wood, which would be untouched by decay for hundreds of years. All that man could do was done to render the work perfect, yet the ark could not of itself have withstood the storm which was to come upon the earth. [It was "The Perfect Storm."] God alone could preserve His servants upon the tempestuous waters.

“By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.’ Heb 11:7. Noah gave the world an example of believing just what God says. All that he possessed, he invested in the ark. As he began to construct that immense boat on dry ground, multitudes came from every direction to see the strange sight and to hear the earnest, fervent words of the singular preacher. Every blow struck upon the ark was a witness to the people.

“Many at first appeared to receive the warning; yet they did not turn to God with true repentance. They were unwilling to renounce their sins. During the time that elapsed before the coming of the Flood, their faith was tested, and they failed to endure the trial. Overcome by the prevailing unbelief, [as it is now] they finally joined their former associates in rejecting the solemn message. Some were deeply convicted, and would have heeded the words of warning; but there were so many to jest and ridicule, that they partook of the same spirit, resisted the invitations of mercy, and were soon among the boldest and most defiant scoffers; for none are so reckless and go to such lengths in sin as do those who have once had light, but have resisted the convicting Spirit of God.

“It was not multitudes or majorities that were on the side of right. The world was arrayed against God’s justice and His laws, and Noah was regarded as a fanatic... [That was a high honor.] The world made merry at the folly of the deluded old man. Instead of humbling the heart before God, they continued their disobedience and wickedness, the same as though God had not spoken to them through His servant.

“But Noah stood like a rock amid the tempest. [Praise God! Clinging to Jesus, you can do it!] Surrounded by popular contempt and ridicule, he distinguished himself by his holy integrity and unwavering faithfulness. A power attended his words, for it was the voice of God to man through His servant. Connection with God made him strong in the strength of infinite power, while his solemn voice fell upon the ears of that generation in regard to events, which, so far as human wisdom could judge, were impossible.

“As time passed on, with no apparent change in nature, men whose hearts had at times trembled with fear, began to be reassured [as it is now]. They reasoned, as many reason now, that nature is above the God of nature, and that her laws are so firmly established that God Himself could not change them.

“Had the antediluvians believed the warning, and repented of their evil deeds, the Lord would have turned aside His wrath, as He afterward did from Nineveh. But by their obstinate resistance to the reproofs of conscience and the warnings of God’s prophet, that generation filled up the measure of their iniquity, and became ripe for destruction.

“The period of their probation was about to expire. Noah had faithfully followed the instructions which he had received from God. The ark was finished in every part as the Lord had directed, and was stored with food for man and beast. And now the servant of God made his last solemn appeal to the people. With an agony of desire that words cannot express, he entreated them to seek a refuge while it might be found. Again they rejected his words, and raised their voices in jest and scoffing. Suddenly a silence fell upon the mocking throng. Beasts of every description, the fiercest as well as the most gentle, were seen coming from mountain and forest and quietly making their way toward the ark. A noise as of a rushing wind was heard, and lo, birds were flocking from all directions, their numbers darkening the heavens, and in perfect order they passed to the ark. Animals obeyed the command of God, while men were disobedient [as it is now]. Guided by holy angels, they ‘went in two and two unto Noah into the ark,’ and the clean beasts by sevens. The world looked on in wonder, some in fear. Philosophers were called upon to account for the singular occurrence, but in vain. It was a mystery which they could not fathom. But men had become so hardened by their persistent rejection of light [as it is now] that even this scene produced but a momentary impression. As the doomed race beheld the sun shining in its glory, and the earth clad in almost Eden beauty, they banished their rising fears by boisterous merriment, and by their deeds of violence they seemed to invite upon themselves the visitation of the already awakened wrath of God.

“God commanded Noah, ‘Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before Me in this generation.’ Noah’s warnings had been rejected by the world, but his influence and example resulted in blessings to his family. As a reward for his faithfulness and integrity, God saved all the members of his family with him. What encouragement to parental fidelity!

“Mercy had ceased its pleadings for the guilty race [as it soon will do]. The beasts of the field and the birds of the air had entered the place of refuge. Noah and his household were within the ark, ‘and the Lord shut him in.’ A flash of dazzling light was seen, and a cloud of glory more vivid than the lightning descended from heaven and hovered before the entrance of the ark. The massive door, which it was impossible for those within to close, was slowly swung to its place by unseen hands. Noah was shut in, and the rejecters of God’s mercy were shut out. The seal of Heaven was on that door; God had shut it, and God alone could open it. So when Christ shall cease His intercession for guilty men, before His coming in the clouds of heaven, the door of mercy will be shut. Then divine grace will no longer restrain the wicked, and Satan will have full control of those who have rejected mercy. They will endeavor to destroy God’s people; but as Noah was shut into the ark, so the righteous will be shielded by divine power.

“For seven days after Noah and his family entered the ark, there appeared no sign of the coming storm. During this period their faith was tested. It was a time of triumph to the world without. The apparent delay confirmed them in the belief that Noah’s message was a delusion, and that the Flood would never come.

Notwithstanding the solemn scenes which they had witnessed—the beasts and birds entering the ark, and the angel of God closing the door—they still continued their sport and revelry, even making a jest of these signal manifestations of God’s power. They gathered in crowds about the ark, deriding its inmates with a daring violence which they had never ventured upon before.

“But upon the eighth day dark clouds overspread the heavens. There followed the muttering of thunder and the flash of lightning. Soon large drops of rain began to fall. The world had never

Dear Pastor Jan,

I found a book called “National Sunday Law” lying face up in the middle of the street. When I say in the middle of the street, I mean “in the middle” - where the cars are going on each side. Angels do things, and God does things, and I was drawn to it. The pages were flapping in the wind. I picked it up and said, “Man, God is really talking to me!” I can’t seem to get away from this book! “Here it is again!” That’s when I started passing them out! I grew up in the Catholic church and went to Catholic school. Now I know that what’s in this book is the truth! R.W.

Dear A.J. Marcussen,

From the time I was born until now, my family have gone from one to another denomination looking for the truth. Eventually, all of them quit looking except me. It must have been some guardian angel that helped me, and even saved me from death. Then I met a friend, and together, we studied the Bible. The time came when we wondered about the Sabbath of God. Was it Saturday, or Sunday, or did it matter? How do we find the answer? To my amazement, a few days ago, a woman comes into the store I work at and hands me a book called, “National Sunday Law!” I know the truth now. I do not want to sin against my Father in heaven! So now I sit here writing to you instead of going to work on Saturday, God’s 7th day Sabbath. I do it not to defy authority, but because I seek the truth of God! It is my joy that I received your book, exalting the word of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ! I will write to you again as my journey for God proceeds. With the love of Jesus! G.H.

Dear Pastor Jan,

My three young children, love Jesus with all their hearts and have shared over 800 NSL books on doorsteps and benches with their own hands! They all chose to give their piggy bank money of $150 to get more NSL preachers to work for souls. They are eager to do what Jesus desires of them & are anxiously awaiting His soon return. Please send us all the NSLs you can. Thank you, and God bless you. We enjoy your letters! Darin & Kimberly witnessed anything like this, and the hearts of men were struck with fear. All were secretly inquiring, 'Can it be that Noah was in the right, and that the world is doomed to destruction?' Darker and darker grew the heavens, and faster came the falling rain. The beasts were roaring about in the wildest terror, and their discordant cries seemed to moan out their own destiny and the fate of man. Then 'the fountains of the great deep' were 'broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.' Water appeared to come from the clouds in mighty cataracts. Rivers broke away from their boundaries, and overflowed the valleys. Jets of water burst from the earth with indescribable force, throwing massive rocks hundreds of feet into the air, and these, in falling, buried themselves deep in the ground.

"The people first beheld the destruction of the works of their own hands. Their splendid buildings, and the beautiful gardens and groves where they had placed their idols, were destroyed by lightning from heaven, and the ruins were scattered far and wide. The altars on which human sacrifices had been offered were torn down, and the worshipers were made to tremble at the power of the living God.

"As the violence of the storm increased, trees, buildings, rocks, and earth were hurled in every direction. The terror of man and beast was beyond description. Above the roar of the tempest was heard the wailing of a people that had despised the authority of God. [You'll hear that wailing again when the plagues are falling on those who go along with the Sunday law to receive the mark of the beast.] Satan himself, who was compelled to remain in the midst of the warring elements, feared for his own existence. [God held the fiend down in there]. He had delighted to control so powerful a race, and desired them to live to practice their abominations. He now uttered imprecations against God, charging Him with injustice and cruelty. Many of the people, like Satan, blasphemed God, and had they been able, they would have torn Him from the throne of power. Others were frantic with fear, stretching their hands toward the ark and pleading for admittance. But their entreaties were in vain. Conscience was at last aroused to know that there is a God who ruleth in the heavens. They called upon Him earnestly, but His ear was not open to their cry. In that terrible hour they saw that the transgression of God's law had caused their ruin.

"Some in their desperation endeavored to break into the ark, but the firm-made structure withstood their efforts. Some clung to the ark until they were borne away by the surging waters, or their hold was broken by collision with rocks and trees. The massive ark trembled in every fiber as it was beaten by the merciless winds and flung from billow to billow. The cries of the beasts within expressed their fear and pain. But amid the warring elements it continued to ride safely. Angels that excel in strength were commissioned to preserve it. [One angel, following the command of God, is all powerful [omnipotent] to do it. And so are you!!! How? Here it is - "As the will of man co-operates with the will of God, it becomes omnipotent. [Praise God!] Whatever is to be done at His command, may be accomplished in His strength. All His biddings are enablers." Christ's Object Lessons, 333. Praise God!!!]

"The beasts, exposed to the tempest, rushed toward man, as though expecting help from him. Some of the people bound their children and themselves upon powerful animals, knowing that these were tenacious of life, and would climb to the highest points to escape the rising waters. Some fastened themselves to lofty trees on the summit of hills or mountains; but the trees were uprooted, and with their burden of living beings were hurled into the seething billows. One spot after another that promised safety was abandoned. As the waters rose higher and higher, the people fled for refuge to the loftiest mountains. Often man and beast would struggle together for a foothold, until both were swept away.

"From the highest peaks men looked abroad upon a shoreless ocean. The solemn warnings of God's servant no longer seemed a subject for ridicule and scorning. How those doomed sinners longed for the opportunities which they had slighted! How they pleaded for one hour's probation, one more privilege of mercy, one call from the lips of Noah! But the sweet voice of mercy was no more to be heard by them. [It will happen again.] Love, no less than justice, demanded that God's judgments should put a check on sin. The avenging waters swept over the last retreat, and the despisers of God perished in the black depths.

"By the word of God... the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: but the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.' 2 Peter 3:5-7. Another storm is coming. The earth will again be swept by the desolating wrath of God, and sin and sinners will be destroyed.

"The sins that called for vengeance upon the antediluvian world exist today. The fear of God is banished from the hearts of men, and His law is treated with indifference and contempt. The intense worldliness of that generation is equaled by that of the generation now living.

"A similar condition of things exists now. Appetite is indulged without restraint. Professed followers of Christ are today eating and drinking with the drunken, while their names stand in honored church records. Intemperance benumbs the moral and spiritual powers and prepares the way for indulgence of the lower passions. Multitudes feel under no moral obligation to curb their sensual desires, and they become the slaves of lust. Men are living for the pleasures of sense; for this world and this life alone. The issues of the press teem with records of murder—crimes so cold-blooded and causeless that it seems as though every instinct of humanity were blotted out. And these atrocities have become of so common occurrence that they hardly elicit a comment or awaken surprise. The spirit of anarchy is permeating all nations, and the outbreaks that from time to time excite the horror of the world are but indications of the pent-up fires of passion and lawlessness that, having once escaped control, will fill the earth with woe and desolation.

"As the time of Christ's second appearing draws near, the Lord sends His servants with a warning to the world to prepare for that great event. Multitudes have been living in transgression of God's law, and now He in mercy calls them to obey its sacred precepts. All who will put away their sins by repentance toward God and faith in Christ are offered pardon. But many feel that it requires too great a sacrifice to put away sin. They reject His warnings and deny the authority of His law.

"Of the vast population of the earth before the Flood, only

"Hope thou in God, for on Calvary's cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ." HP 262. "When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned." SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Sirs,

My son Kenny found the book "National Sunday Law" on our doorstep. I want you to know that this book has changed his life in many ways. I thank God that the book made it to our door-step. My son showed me the book and asked if I thought that it was good to read. I looked at it and said that I thought it would be interesting. He couldn't put the book down! While he was reading it, he was telling his sisters and me what he was reading about. That got them so curious that they're reading it now, and I've read it. Please send us more of these books so we can give them to others. My whole family thanks you. Grace Gonzales

Dear Sir,

I found a book on my doorstep entitled "National Sunday Law." I read it with amazement. Then I read it again. Then I closed the book and confessed to God - "I believe this about the 'mark of the beast' and the Sabbath to be the truth." It is all making sense to me. I told God that I didn't want the "mark of the beast" but I want His seal. As I was reading I felt at that moment like God was speaking to me. Praise the Lord! Amen!

eight souls believed and obeyed God’s word through Noah. For a hundred and twenty years the preacher of righteousness warned the world of the coming destruction, but his message was rejected and despised. So it will be now.

“As the time of their probation was closing, the antediluvians gave themselves up to exciting amusements and festivities. [As they do now.] Those who possessed influence and power were bent on keeping the minds of the people engrossed with mirth and pleasure, lest any should be impressed by the last solemn warning. Do we not see the same repeated in our day? While God’s servants are giving the message that the end of all things is at hand, the world is absorbed in amusements and pleasure seeking. There is a constant round of excitement [on T.V., the movies, the fellowship hall].

“When great and wise men had proved to their satisfaction that it was impossible for the world to be destroyed by water, when the fears of the people were quieted, when all regarded Noah’s prophecy as a delusion, and looked upon him as a fanatic—then it was that God’s time had come. ‘the windows of heaven were opened,’ and the scoffers were overwhelmed in the waters of the Flood. ‘As it was in the days of Noah...’ When religious teachers are pointing forward to long ages of peace and prosperity, and the world are absorbed in their rounds of business and pleasure, feasting and merrymaking, rejecting God’s warnings and mocking His messengers - then it is that sudden destruction cometh upon them, and they shall not escape.” PP 90-103.

Dear Pastor A. Jan Marcussen,
Alcohol, drugs, sex, lying, cheating, stealing, fighting. I did it all, and the devil had me thinking I was happy. I praise our Lord Jesus Christ for paying the debt of suffering that I should have to pay as an unworthy sinner. I came across “National Sunday Law,” and read it cover to cover. Except for the Bible, I have never seen the truth put forth so directly and boldly. When I read “National Sunday Law” I was overwhelmed with joy that someone out there is getting God’s truth to the people of the world. I want to get as many NSL books as I can to reach the people. The service you are doing for the Lord is a wonderful thing. Your brother in Christ, Brad Charity: What about if the devil tries to make me feel condemned, but I’m clinging to Jesus?

Pastor Jan: You may read it twice. Here it is - “Never is one repulsed who comes to Him with a contrite heart. Not one sincere prayer is lost. [Praise God!] Amid the anthems of the celestial choir, God hears the cries of the weakest human being. We pour out our heart’s desire in our closets, we breathe a prayer as we walk by the way, and our words reach the throne of the Monarch of the universe. They may be inaudible to any human ear, but they cannot die away into silence, nor can they be lost through the activities of business that are going on. Nothing can drown the soul’s desire. It rises above the din of the street, above the confusion of the multitude, to the heavenly courts. It is God to whom we are speaking, and our prayer is heard.” Christ’s Object Lessons, pp. 170-174. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Your friend in Christ, Pastor Jan
