Can you guess what things - like “miracle crystals” on your forehead will lead to? Atheists, agnostics, liberals, Vatican avatars, transvested sex fiends, dogs, whoremongers, etc. will all be “converted” to the great, miracle movement - to receive the mark of the beast at the Sunday law - for even “Satan himself is converted, after the modern order of things.” GC 588.

THAT WERE SLAIN UPON THE EARTH.”

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

You've already learned that Hiram Dukes, (the former U.S. spy who later became an SDA minister), said that, “Spiritualism and Catholicism are as close together as two fingers are on your hand.”

Faith: What does Spiritualism, poor Bernie Sanders at the Vatican, the mark of the beast, and God's three angels' messages, have to do with the end of the world, and with us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

Miracle crystals, holistic foods, angel numbers, tarot cards, psychic awakenings. By thus blending both good and evil, “Satan determines to unite them in one body and thus strengthen his cause by sweeping all into the ranks of spiritualism.” GC 588.

AND
BRIDEGROOM AND OF
THE BRIDE SHALL BE

MERCHANTS WERE THE
GREAT MEN OF THE EARTH; FOR BY THY
SORCERIES WERE ALL NATIONS DECEIVED.
AND IN HER WAS
FOUND THE BLOOD OF
SAINTS, AND OF ALL

It says, “Seeing Signs. A spiritually inspired sign adorns a street in the unique town of Cassadaga, Florida. Known for its large population of psychics, mediums and others who commit their lives to ‘connecting,’ the town is frequently referred to as the ‘Psychic Capital of the World.’ The Cassadaga Spiritualist Camp, perhaps the town's best-known attraction, was founded by George P. Colby, a trance medium known as the ‘Seer of Spiritualism.’”

“Under one head – the papal power – the people will unite to oppose God in the person of His witnesses.

“What is it that gives its kingdom to this power? Protestantism, a power which, while professing to have the temper and spirit of a lamb and to be allied to Heaven, speaks with the voice of a dragon. It is moved by a power from beneath. [Satan’s power through spiritualism.]

“These have one mind.’ There will be a universal bond of union, one great harmony, a confederacy of Satan’s forces. In the warfare to be waged in the last days there will be united, in opposition to God’s people, all the corrupt powers that have apostatized from allegiance to the law of Jehovah. [Notice the word, “all.”] In this warfare the Sabbath of the fourth commandment will be the great point at issue; for in the Sabbath commandment the great Lawgiver identifies Himself as the Creator of the heavens and the earth.

“The warning of the third angel is represented in the prophecy as being proclaimed with a loud voice, by an angel [which represents God’s faithful people] flying in the midst of heaven; and it will command the attention of the world.” Maranatha, pp. 187,188.

Pastor Jan: Praise God! May our kind Father help us give them God’s last message, is my prayer!

I was born in Richmond, VA. in the cold darkness of a winter night. I was totally helpless, and knew almost nothing. But my dear Mama and Daddy gave me a loving home, and before I knew it, I was toddling around. We lived upstairs in my grandparents’ two-story house. My uncle, aunt, and two cousins lived next door. In the early morning, before my parents went to work, I would climb out of my crib, slide down the banister, and go downstairs into the warm kitchen where my grandparents were eating breakfast. I didn’t have a care in the world. With my father, mother, grandparents, aunt, uncle, and cousins all living close together, I never felt lonely, but

Here in the end of the world, if you’re ever tempted to be rich and famous, remember this - “The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodness thereof is as the flower of the field: The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.” Isa. 40:6-8. Amen.

U.S. CANDIDATE SANDERS SPEAKS AT VATICAN CONFERENCE ON SOCIAL TEACHING, MEETS POPE

■ BY INSIDE THE VATICAN STAFF

The Catholic magazine, Inside the Vatican, reveals that Mr. Sanders was able to go to the very place in the Vatican where the Pope lives, and talk with him. That’s unheard of! For many years, U.S. presidents have ended up in the Vatican, in front of the great antichrist - and have received his instructions. At this Vatican meeting, the “beaten” Presidential Candidate identified himself as a Catholic operative - upholding the fascism of Pope Leo XIII’s encyclical entitled, Rarum Novarum - which led to papal controlled authorities indirectly stealing from Protestants who had means because of their hard work, and giving it to the Catholic poor - {they call it “income equality.”} while tricking the poor to give it to the “Church” to hopefully get their loved ones out of the frightful tortures of purgatory - which the papal dignitaries know - does not exist.

felt loved all the time. One time {when I was about 4} I sat on the bed wondering if my parents had ever made a mistake. After thinking about it for a while, I came to the conclusion that they were totally perfect. I didn’t know God, but I knew that I was loved, and that’s all that mattered.

My crib was in a walk-in closet, and so at night, I didn’t get the fresh air I needed. That led to my getting sick quite a bit. If you want to get sick and die early, don’t get fresh air when you sleep at night; eat between meals; don’t exercise much; eat dried blood and fat in the carcasses of dead animals; and drink sugary soft drinks instead of water. Not knowing any better, I did all of these things. But even my sicknesses were used by our kind Father to teach me love - as Mama and Daddy would minister to me as I lay there with a burning fever. I spent hours and days looking at every crack on the ceiling, and at the knickknacks on the wall. From the love of my parents, I would later learn that “God is love.” On the cross of Calvary justice and mercy kissed each other. {Ps. 85:10}.

I was born in the church as a 5th generation Seventh-day Adventist. My mother’s father {Grandpa} was an SDA minister. But when I was 18, the time would come that I would learn {through suffering} that to live, I must be born again.

One day when I was about 8 years old, I was walking along a dirt road - all by myself - on my grandparents’ farm. All of a sudden, I sensed the presence of Someone. I didn’t know who - but Someone was there. I was out in the country, walking alone past woods and fields. I could sense that Whoever it was, was massive, and seemed to surround me and fill up the entire universe. It was a little scary, but I also felt love and peace. That helped me to later understand the words, “That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.” John 1:9.

When I was very young, I was taught to pray before bed - “Now I lay me down to sleep” etc. Then I would jump into my crib and put the pillow on top of my head with my nose sticking out. But my first real prayer {when I was about 6} consisted of just four words. I didn’t pray in Jesus’ name. I didn’t confess any sins. I didn’t say “Amen.” I just looked up into the sky and said, “Make me an evangelist.” That was all. 23 years later, God answered that childish prayer when I received a call from the Florida Conference to be an associate evangelist.

Jesus said, “What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.” Mark 11:24.

As a child, I had peace of mind though I didn’t know God. Why? Little children have peace in their hearts because - 1) they haven’t chosen to run away from God. 2) They haven’t willfully neglected Him. As they get to the age when they’re accountable, if they neglect and ignore dear Jesus - “the Prince of Peace” - they will lose that sweet peace - and in its place will come a sense of guilt, emptiness, darkness, and all the mental agonies that go with it.

Hope: Did that happen to you?

Pastor Jan: Of all horrors! It happened to me! When I got to be about 12, that lovely peace faded away, and in its place - like with most other humans - the darkness and emptiness I just mentioned, settled down upon me. Why? Here it is - "Heavenly angels cannot remain where the Saviour's presence is not desired, and His absence is not marked. [Like at most "pot-lucks," and church parties.] This is why discouragement so often exists among the professed followers of Christ.

"Many attend religious services, and are refreshed and comforted by the word of God; but through neglect of meditation, watchfulness, and prayer, they lose the blessing, and find themselves more destitute than before they received it. Often they feel that God has dealt hardly with them. They do not see that the fault is their own. By separating themselves from Jesus, they have shut away the light of His presence." DA 83.

I didn't realize why it happened to me, but now I know why. I would spend the next 5 or 6 years searching for the peace of mind I had lost, and not knowing where to find it! The Bible puts it this way, "Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him. But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt. There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked." Isa. 57:19-21. I was one of those wicked good people. I was a baptized church member. I was not a "bad" person, I was just "lost." The darkness and emptiness got worse and worse until, by the time I was 17 it was very severe. I was in that lost condition simply because of neglecting dear Jesus. It's as simple as that.

That's also the reason why many are in mental institutions. Even atheist psychologists know that long guilt and darkness can break the human mind. And that dark hole without dear Jesus is the same reason that billions turn to alcohol, drugs, sex, competition of many kinds - {trying to beat someone to build up "self"}, pleasure seeking, etc.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I just finished reading "National Sunday Law" and it brought me back close with God. Praise the Lord! I will say that the book saved my life. How wonderful God is! I praise Him. Yours in Christ, Andrew

One day I stood in the living room remembering the peace of mind I used to have. I said to myself, "I wonder if I'll ever have that peace again? I guess not. I guess that's just the way it is when people grow up." So I went away, thinking that I would be miserable for the rest of my life.

This darkness and guilt without Jesus causes many to go insane. It causes people to kill themselves. It killed dear Jesus on the cross. The guilt of the entire world rolled upon His soul like an avenging mountain! And it crushed out His life. "My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken me?" He "tasted the sufferings of [hell] death for every man." DA 694. It's amazing that those who neglect Jesus and His great sacrifice for them, will endure the "sufferings" of hell for their own sins.

"The wicked see what they have forfeited. The far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory was despised when offered them; but how desirable it now appears. 'All this,' cries the lost soul, 'I might have had; but I chose to put these things far from me. Oh, strange infatuation!... All see that their exclusion from heaven is just. By their lives they have declared: 'We will not have this Man [Jesus] to reign over us.'

"Satan seems paralyzed as he beholds the glory and majesty of Christ. He who was once a covering cherub remembers whence he has fallen. A shining seraph, 'son of the morning;' how changed, how degraded! From the council where once he was honored, he is forever excluded. He sees another now standing near to the Father, veiling His glory. He has seen the crown placed upon the head of Christ by an angel of lofty stature and majestic presence, and he knows that the exalted position of this angel might have been his." GC 669.

Praise God that no one need go month after month with the horrible guilt and separation from God! If you know anyone like that, you can say, "Jesus died for you! Surrender totally to Jesus. Rest in His love! Trust Him as a little child - and your sins are gone!

"Whoever consents to renounce sin, and open his heart to the love of Christ, becomes a partaker of this heavenly peace." Sons and Daughters of God, p. 306. Wonderful Jesus!

I finally "found" Jesus by reading about Him in the book Thoughts From the Mount of Blessing. God used that book {which I "accidentally" found in the college library} Seeing His tender love for me melted my heart. I was 18 when I was finally born the second time. Praise God!

Now everything was more bright and happy than when I was a child! I "grew" quickly as I filled my mind with JESUS in the Bible, and books like Steps to Christ, Desire of Ages, Great Controversy, etc. Tears of joy ran down my face as I studied His life and death and love for me.

I got a degree in physical therapy at Loma Linda University, and then theology at SMC {now Southern Adventist University} before getting a call to the Florida Conference to be an associate evangelist, and a pastor.

At Loma Linda University our first class was called "Gross Anatomy." That's where they had us cut on dead people, and memorize the parts of their bodies. One white-haired lady instructor was sawing a naked fat lady's breast off with a razorblade knife. {I was horrified.} She looked at me and said, "Come help me!" I was paralyzed. I couldn't move. She sawed it off and threw it through the air into the trash can about 8 feet away with a crashing thud. With 20 naked dead people on 20 tables in the room, it was like "The Little House of Horrors."

Dear Pastor Jan,
I grew up as an atheist, but sometimes I would wonder if God really exists. One day I was in a horrific accident - and I walked away untouched. I knew that only supernatural power could have protected me. So I started going to the Baptist church. I was surfing the internet, and accidentally ran across a book entitled "National Sunday Law." As I read, I was convinced that the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord, and that Seventh-day Adventists are God's true remnant people who keep all the commandments of God. Thank you for that wonderful book! I thank God for all who will not compromise with error. David NJ

Dear Pastor Jan,
I was converted to God's SDA Bible truth because of your book "National Sunday Law!" Thank you for your service to God. I would like to read more, so please send me your free newsletters. Alice.

Vennita's Corner: "He has, in His love, opened a fountain of pleasure and joy for the soul that trusts in Him." Mt 161

I met Sweet Vennita at Loma Linda, and we were married there. Then we went back to SMC to take theology. The Roman Catholic, new theology celebration movement hadn't started yet. While we were there, dear Joy was born. We love her. {Have family worship! It's vital for life. If the Daddy won't, the Mama can do it.}

Then came the call to the Florida Conference. After four years of pastoring I was ordained to the gospel ministry at the Florida Conference campmeeting. Our former General Conference President {Elder Robert Pierson} was there that day. He laid his hand on my shoulder when we knelt for the ordination prayer, and I felt an electrical current go through my body. That doesn't have to happen to everyone. I believe that it happened because God didn't want me to ever forget what He has called me for. The Conference President gave us the charge - "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine." II Tim. 4:2.

"The gifts and calling of God are without repentance." Romans 11:29. That means that whatever gift and calling He has given you, God will not repent of it, but will use you for His glory, and the salvation of others.

I had prayed to be an evangelist. The ministerial secretary said, "Jan, we're putting you with a fine evangelist." I was very happy! I loved the dear man they put me with, though he revealed to me that he was a crook. He said, "Jan, what I'm living for is to build myself up as a great evangelist. After I baptize these people I never want to see them again." Another time he said, "Jan, before we were together I had a meeting where I baptized 50 people." Then he leaned his head over to me and quietly said, "God had nothing to do with that meeting." It was just he and the devil. He and the devil baptized 50 people into the church. He knew that I loved him so he opened his heart to me and told how he had tried to kill himself. I believe that the Lord put me with this loveable crook so that I could gently seek to lead the great evangelist to dear Jesus before he finally died of a brain tumor.

Later they made me the pastor of two churches where I could be an evangelist at the same time. After conducting two evangelistic meetings in a row, I wanted to be more effective, so I prayed - "Lord, help me to present Thy SDA Bible message in such a simple way that even a child can understand it." One morning in December I was starting to wake up, and, while still half asleep, the words intruded themselves into my mind, "Write a book. Put the three angels' messages together so that a child can understand it."

Dear Pastor Jan,
Greetings in the name of the most high God. Satan wants us sitting and wasting time because he knows that he has a very little time and he must move fast. It's time to get off that couch and start talking about our Lord's return. It's a blessing from God to be part of His remnant church and I want to be a part of winning souls for Jesus. Keep doing what God has blessed you to do! I have passed out "National Sunday Law" books while traveling on the bus. I've put them on seats, doorsteps, doctors offices, coffee shops, sidewalks, and handed them to people. I call on all brothers and sisters to come together as a body of believers and get this "National Sunday Law" book out to the people! It's a privilege, and we have God's end time message. I will continue to get God's three angels' messages to the people by the power of God! Sincerely, R.A.

I was not fully awake, but I thought to myself, "Write a book? That sounds good. Write a book. That's it! That's what I'll do!" Where did that thought come from? Why not a magazine, a newspaper, or a pamphlet? These are all good, and God uses them. But I learned that people value a book much higher than they do the other media, and will read it with a higher estimate of its contents. The wind can blow the other media away if left lying around.

I started on it in December, and by the end of April the first 1000 were printed. A super-powerful soul-winning tool would have to contain certain elements. 1) It would have to be so small, and so intensely interesting, with language geared for T.V. minds, that it would grab their interest and not let it go until they had read "the whole thing!" That way, the Holy Spirit could speak to them more powerfully than if they read part of it now, and the rest of it another day. 2) It would have to be small, yet so complete that everything they needed to accept God's three angels' messages would be in it - to answer every major objection from every angle that every man or devil might think up. 3) It must be so simple that a child can understand it. 4) It must be all wrapped up in the love of Jesus. 5) It must have a front cover that grabs people's curiosity rather than turning them off with a religious picture or religious words. 6) It must be so inexpensive that people can get them by the thousands, and 7) bulk mail millions of them to reach "the most people with the most truth in the best ways the cheapest."

Charity: Did you write the book with a computer?

Pastor Jan: I wrote it with a pencil in a notebook. Then I typed it with an old-fashioned typewriter, and then typeset it myself.

Before starting to write it, I wrote letters to the Review & Herald, and Pacific Press, telling them that I was a pastor who was going to write a book to be used as a soul-winning tool. I received nice letters from both. The Review invited me to send the first chapter to them to see if they would like to publish it.

Faith: Then what happened?

Pastor Jan: I felt very happy. After a while God spoke to me with His "still small voice," and said, "Don't do it." Why not? I didn't know. But later, I learned that normally, an author has to sign a contract giving the book to the publisher. Then it's not his anymore. They put a beautiful color cover on it, put a high price on it, and put it in the bookstores. Then people buy "one" at the high price, and after a year or two the sales go down, and then the book goes out of print, and that's the end of it. How does that sound?

I'm not against publishers. Later, 5,000 of them were printed on the Review & Herald presses for a fee, and I didn't have to sign it over to anyone. But our kind Father planned for me to publish the NSL preachers myself. That way, instead of the book fading away, our mighty God has made it to work out just the opposite!

Hope: With no professional publisher or advertizing, how and why has the Lord pushed them out to 10 million, 20 million, 30 million, 41½ million in 70 languages? And why are there all these hundreds of conversion letters from Catholics, Protestants, atheists, Buddhists, Muslims, etc. for the past 30 years? Why?

Dear Sir,
I'm the pastor of the local Church of God in Christ here in California. Not long ago a man handed me a book entitled "National Sunday Law." He told me to read it and asked me to let him know what I thought of it when I saw him again. I've never seen him since. But I read the book and I now realize what the Holy Spirit wants me to do. I must give this message of God's Sabbath to my church! Please pray for me as I convey this most important message to the Churches of God in Christ. Thank you! Pastor U. Cooper

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
I found a book called "National Sunday Law" in the laundromat. Since I read it, my life has changed completely! I have been a very fervent Catholic. Now I have renounced the Catholic Church. Please send me as many "National Sunday Law" books as you can. God has really given you His inspiration to save souls! I will be giving God's truth to my fellow Catholics. Cordially Ruth R.

Pastor Jan: “Who hath despised the day of small things?” Zech. 4:10. I can’t tell you all the details now, but our kind Father has moved on the hearts of pastors, teachers, Bible workers, colporteurs, and thousands of church members in nations around the world to get millions of the NSL preachers to put face down on doorsteps, benches, phone booths, on the pavement under car door handles on the driver’s side, on the floor under public toilet seats, under gas pumps, on sidewalks, on benches in great malls, in shopping center parking lots, in front of bookstores, Walmarts, restaurants, newspaper boxes, laundromats, on the ground under mailboxes, bulk mailings to rural routes, and city routes, etc. God gets all the praise.

From the beginning, I decided that not one penny from the books would go to me, but that every bit of it would go into God’s work to reach more souls. I thought that if I do it this way, then God can bless more, and more people can be saved. Those who live for money now will die with their money. Those who live for ease and pleasure will end up with the mark the beast. Those who live for Christ will live forever.

The “bottom line” answer to your question “why” is because of the vital importance God places upon the 3rd angel’s message of Rev. 14:9-11. Watch closely -

“I then saw the third angel [Rev 14:9-11]. Said my accompanying angel, ‘Fearful is his work. Awful is his mission. He is the angel that is to select the wheat from the tares and seal, or bind, the wheat for the heavenly garner. These things should engross the whole mind, the whole attention.’” EW 118.

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary’s cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262. “When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

I’m an inmate here in the Sumner County jail in Gallatin, TN, serving a few months for a theft charge. Yes, I did it. After running from God for 49 years, I decided to give myself to Him December 6. I haven’t looked back. Glory to God! I came across your little book, “National Sunday Law,” and I want MORE of this food!!! I would love to have more copies of this “BIG” little book for many others. “National Sunday Law” has changed everything in my life! I hope and pray for more, and for the best for your family. Thanks so much! In Christ, Raymond Wooten

The 3rd angel’s message lovingly exposes Rome as well as fallen Protestantism for adopting Sunday - the “child of the papacy.” It warns the world against going along with the Sunday law to receive the “mark” of the beast - which will bring upon themselves the “seven last plagues.” To those who go along with that law, it warns - “The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb.” Rev. 14:10. Those words are the last part of the third angel’s message which many church members will not give for fear of persecution. Since God created us in these last days to give that very warning message of love, He will continue to push it out with His almighty power until probation closes. Since our kind Father is no respecter of persons, anyone and everyone who lovingly gets His last message to the world will be greatly blessed.

Giving God’s 3 angels’ messages doesn’t replace godly living to reflect His sweet image to bless others. The prophet said that if God’s people in the 1800’s would have lovingly given God’s last message to the world, Jesus would have come way before 1900 to take His people home. They didn’t do it for fear of persecution. So instead of going to heaven, they all died and were lowered into a hole in the ground. Now it’s our turn. What will we do?

Now you have the answer to your question as to why God has been blessing the NSL preachers and blessing those who distribute them. And He, not us, gets all the praise. It’s His message, not ours. All these testimony letters give us a hint that God’s last message can’t fail because it wakes people up from a stupor and leads them to heaven instead of hell. Praise God!

What will happen? Here it is - “We shall have to stand before magistrates to answer for our allegiance to the law of God, to make known the reasons of our faith. And the youth should understand these things. They should know the things that will come to pass before the closing up of the world’s history. These things concern our eternal welfare, and teachers and students should give more attention to them.” 6T 128, 129.

“There are many who do not understand the prophecies relating to these days and they must be enlightened. It is the duty of both watchmen and laymen to give the trumpet a certain sound.” Ev. 194, 195.

“Said the angel: ‘List ye!’ Soon I heard a voice that sounded like many musical instruments, all in perfect strains, sweet and harmonious. It surpassed any music I had ever heard. It seemed to be so full of mercy, compassion, and elevating, holy joy. It thrilled through my whole being. Said the angel: ‘Look ye!’ My attention was then turned to the company I had seen, who were mightily shaken. I was shown those whom I had before seen weeping and praying with agony of spirit. The company of guardian angels around them had been doubled, and they were clothed with an armor from their head to their feet. They moved in exact order like a company of soldiers. Their countenances expressed the severe conflict which they had endured. Yet their features now shone with the light and glory of heaven. They had obtained the victory, and it called forth from them the deepest gratitude, and holy, sacred joy.

Dear Sir,

I am writing to tell you that I so much loved the book “National Sunday Law” that I kept reading it until the very end. And now I’m ordering more to give out. I thank God that you sent it to me! I am immediately changing my day of worship from Sunday to God’s Sabbath on Saturday. God bless you for the truth! Thank you again for the book. Love in Christ, Arlene

Dear Sir,

Having read the book “National Sunday Law,” a feeling came over me to have them sent to Congressmen, Senators, and every preacher here in town, that they might hear and know God’s will. As God blesses me, I will get more of these books to spread the word to all who will hear and read. May God bless all, and give strength to stand. Jim

“The honest who had been held or prevented from hearing the truth, now eagerly laid hold of it. All fear of their relatives was gone. The truth alone was exalted to them. It was dearer and more precious than life. They had been hungering and thirsting for truth. I asked what had made this great change. An angel answered: ‘It is the latter rain, the refreshing from the presence of the Lord, the loud cry of the third angel.’

“Great power was with these chosen ones. Said the angel -

'Look ye!' My attention was turned to the wicked. They were all astir. The zeal and power with the people of God had aroused and enraged them. Confusion, confusion was on every side. I saw measures taken against this company who had the power and light of God. Darkness thickened around them, yet there they stood, approved of God, and trusting in Him. [Praise God!] Next I heard them crying unto God earnestly [the death decree had been passed. {Rev. 13:15.}] Through the day and night their cry ceased not...

"Soon I heard the voice of God which shook the heavens and the earth. There was a mighty earthquake. Buildings were shaken down, and fell on every side. I then heard a triumphant shout of victory, loud, musical, and clear. I looked upon this company, who, a short time before, were in such distress and bondage. Their captivity was turned. A glorious light shone upon them. How beautiful they then looked! All weariness and marks of care were gone; health and beauty were seen in every countenance. Their enemies, the heathen around them, fell like dead men. They could not endure the light that shone upon the delivered, holy ones. This light and glory remained upon them until Jesus was seen in the clouds of heaven, and the faithful, tried company were changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, from glory to glory. The graves were opened and the saints came forth, clothed with immortality, crying: 'Victory over death and the grave!' and together with the living saints they were caught up to meet their Lord in the air, while rich, musical shouts of glory and victory proceeded from every immortal tongue." 1 SG 185-187.

"Amid the reeling of the earth, the voice of the Son of God calls forth the sleeping saints. He looks upon the graves of the righteous, then raising his hands to heaven he cries, 'Awake, awake, awake, ye that sleep in the dust, and arise!' Throughout the length and breadth of the earth, the dead shall hear that voice; and they that hear shall live. [Praise God!] And the whole earth shall ring with the tread of the exceeding great army of every nation, kindred, tongue, and people. From the prison-house of death they come, clothed with immortal glory, crying, 'O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?' [There's Mama!] And the living righteous and the risen saints unite their voices in a long, glad shout of victory... Angels 'gather together the elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.' Little children are borne by holy angels to their mothers' arms. Friends long separated by death are united, nevermore to part, and with songs of gladness ascend together to the city of God...

"With unutterable love, Jesus welcomes his faithful ones to the 'joy of their Lord.' [Praise God!] As they gather about the great white throne, gladness unspeakable will fill their hearts when they behold those whom they have won for Christ, and see that one has gained others, and these still others. They are no longer feeble, afflicted, scattered, and oppressed. Henceforth they are to be ever with the Lord. They stand before the throne clad in richer robes than the most honored of the earth have ever worn. The days of pain and weeping are forever ended. [Praise

God!] The King of glory has wiped the tears from all faces. Amid the waving of palm-branches they pour forth a song of praise, clear, sweet, and harmonious; every voice takes up the strain, until the anthem swells through the vaults of Heaven, 'Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.' And all the inhabitants of Heaven respond in the ascription, 'Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, be unto our God forever and ever.'" GC 634-651.

Praise God friend. Praise God!
