Making Doctors Kill The Tyranny of State-enforced Euthanasia

In my November letter, you learned how they tricked doctors into destroying the brains of children. Now, you're going to learn more of the workings of the "Beast" under the table. The Bible says, "And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed." Rev. 13:15. The 10/10/16 issue of THE NEW AMERICAN says - "Prior to 2015, active euthanasia (intentionally killing a person to ease pain and suffering) was illegal in Canada, while passive euthanasia (removing or withholding life-sustaining support or nourishment) was both legal and common. In March 2014, MP Steven Fletcher introduced an influential piece of legislation. It allows doctors to help patients end their lives. The individual must be of 'sound mind,' and possessing 'an illness, disability, or disease that causes physical or psychological suffering that is intolerable to that person and that cannot be alleviated by any medical treatment acceptable to that person.' It includes the possibility of doctor-assisted suicide for nonlife threatening psychological disorders that are deemed unbearable by the individual. [Like having a guilty conscience from the Holy Spirit warning the person of coming judgment, and pleading with the person to come to Jesus.] Equally eye-popping is the suggestion that doctor-assisted suicide is feasible for patients who reject medical treatments that they deem not 'acceptable.'" Notice the words in the quote to the left - "And shall wear out the saints of the Most High." It begins by allowing, and then forcing doctors to kill people when the people want it. It will end by allowing the wicked to try to kill God's people when they don't want it.

DOMINION, AND THE GREATNESS OF THE KINGDOM UNDER THE WHOLE HEAVEN, SHALL BE GIVEN TO THE PEOPLE OF THE SAINTS OF THE MOST HIGH."

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: The article in The New American says that the substance of the proposed new law allowing "euthanasia" was before the Alberta Court of Appeal in the case of a lady named E.F. It says that she was diagnosed by the [papal controlled] doctor as having "Severe Conversion Disorder." It says that "The courts are granting greater and greater latitude for doctors to euthanize [murder] their patients, even for non-terminal complaints." How is all this legal murder a sign that Jesus is coming soon? Are there parallels in the past?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

Satisfaction! The nice doctors are looking at the death pills. They are similar to what Adolf Hitler gave his dear wife and loyal friends. The article in The New American doesn't say that these men are slaves of Rome unbeknown to themselves. But the Jesuit oath, the word of God, and the Spirit of Prophecy - in Great Controversy - expose this "universal" power as working hard - under the table - using their many "slaves" and "isms" to kill true Protestants. Our kind Father reveals that they deal in "slaves and souls of men." Rev. 18:13. "For by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth." Rev. 18:23,24. You know what "all" means.

“Christ saw in Jerusalem a symbol of the world hardened in unbelief and rebellion, and hastening on to meet the retributive judgments of God. The woes of a fallen race, pressing upon His soul, forced from His lips that exceeding bitter cry. He saw the record of sin traced in human misery, tears, and blood; His heart was moved with infinite pity for the suffering ones of earth; He yearned to relieve them all. But even His hand might not turn back the tide of human woe; few would seek their only Source of help. He was willing to pour out His soul unto death, to bring salvation within their reach; but few would come to Him that they might have life...

“Unmistakable signs would precede the awful climax. The dreaded hour would come suddenly and swiftly. And the Saviour warned His followers: ‘When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:) then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains.’ Mt 24:15,16; Lk 21:20,21. When the idolatrous standards of the Romans should be set up in the holy ground, which extended some furlongs outside the city walls, then the followers of Christ were to find safety in flight. [God’s dear people will also “find safety in flight” when the papal controlled government enforces the mark of the beast and takes over the church buildings of God’s people.] When the warning sign should be seen, those who would escape must make no delay.

“The long-suffering of God toward Jerusalem only confirmed the Jews in their stubborn impenitence. [It’s the same with most church members today.] In their hatred and cruelty toward the disciples of Jesus they rejected the last offer of mercy. Then God withdrew His protection from them and removed His restraining power from Satan and his angels, and the nation was left to the control of the leader she had chosen. [This will happen again.] Satan aroused the fiercest and most debased passions of the soul. Men did not reason; they were beyond reason—controlled by impulse and blind rage. [It’s like that now. Many were so upset after the election that they “rioted in the daytime.” I heard on the radio that certain great universities provided crying rooms for the dignified scholars, and comforted them with play-dough and coloring books.] They became satanic in their cruelty. In the family and in the nation, among the highest and the lowest classes alike, there was suspicion, envy, hatred, strife, rebellion, murder. There was no safety anywhere. Friends and kindred betrayed one another. Parents slew their children, and children their parents. The rulers of the people had no power to rule themselves. Uncontrolled passions made them tyrants. The Jews had accepted false testimony to condemn the innocent Son of God. Now false accusations made their own lives uncertain. The fear of God no longer disturbed them. Satan was at the head of the nation, and the highest civil and religious authorities were under his sway...

“All the predictions given by Christ concerning the destruction of Jerusalem were fulfilled to the letter. Signs and wonders appeared... In the midst of the night an unnatural light shone over the temple and the altar. Upon the clouds at sunset were pictured chariots and men of war gathering for battle. The priests ministering by night in the sanctuary were terrified by mysterious sounds; the earth trembled, and a multitude of voices were heard crying: ‘Let us depart hence.’ The great eastern gate, which was so heavy that it could hardly be shut by a score of men [a score is 20], and which was secured by immense bars of iron fastened deep in the pavement of solid stone, opened at midnight, without visible agency.—Milman, The History of the Jews, book 13.

“For seven years a man continued to go up and down the streets of Jerusalem, declaring the woes that were to come upon the city. By day and by night he chanted the wild dirge: ‘A voice from the east! a voice from the west! a voice from the four winds! a voice against Jerusalem and against the temple! a voice against the bridegrooms and the brides! a voice against the whole people!’ Ibid. This strange being was imprisoned and scourged, but no complaint escaped his lips. To insult and abuse he answered only: ‘Woe, woe to Jerusalem!’ ‘woe, woe to the inhabitants thereof!’ His warning cry ceased not until he was slain in the siege he had foretold.

On the right is the President of Sri Lanka - receiving the book National Sunday Law from the SDA brother there {Lakdasa Fernando} who translated it into their language.

Concerning this poor man, the October 10, 2016 issue of The New American, says, “‘From Moonbeam to Deathstar.’ California Governor [Roman Catholic, Jesuit operative] Jerry Brown, who has been maligned as ‘Governor Moonbeam’ because of his fanciful ideas, is leading the way to physician-assisted suicide in America.” Governor Jerry Brown was trained at the Saint Ignatius Jesuit High School, and the Sacred Heart Jesuit novice house. In my November letter, you learned how he has already done good work for Rome in the U.S. by getting the law passed that all children in the state must be vaccinated with the concoction, or the state will punish them by not allowing them to attend public or church school. This papal “move” is driving tons of parents to give them home schools - - which saves them from moral corruption. Now again the poor soul is working in the most professional way - in fulfillment of the Jesuit oath to help kill Protestants with “euthanasia.” In Greek, the word, “euthanasia” means, “good death.” Dear Jesus said, “All they that hate me love death.” Prov. 8:36.

On the radio the other day, they revealed how he has been working in various ways to destroy the Protestant and Republican state government. It’s no wonder that the prophet said, “Our country shall repudiate every principle of its Constitution as a Protestant and Republican government.” 5T 451. Can you guess what law these things are paving the way for?

Dear Sir,

I’m a Pentecostal minister, and happened to come across your book “National Sunday Law.” I’m convinced that the writer is on target concerning the scriptures relating to prophecy. I would like to get any other material that you have. I am already using material out of your book to help others. I believe that God Almighty has called me to help prepare our people for these very prophetic conditions that are about to come to pass! God’s grace be with you all! Your brother in Christ,
Pastor S. Gray

“Not one Christian perished in the destruction of Jerusalem. Christ had given His disciples warning, and all who believed His words watched for the promised sign. ‘When ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies,’ said Jesus, ‘then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. Then let them which are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out.’ Lk 21:20,21. After the Romans under Cestius had surrounded the city, they unexpectedly abandoned the siege when everything seemed favorable for an immediate attack. The besieged, despairing of successful resistance, were on the point of surrender, when the Roman general withdrew his forces without the least apparent reason. But God’s merciful providence was directing events for the good of His own people. [He will do the same for us after the Sunday law. He will direct us to get out of the cities before we “have to flee before infuriated mobs.” LDE 261. “Erelong there will be such strife and confusion in the cities, that those who wish to leave them will not be able.” Mar. 180.] The promised sign had been given to the waiting Christians, and now an opportunity was offered for all who would, to obey the Saviour’s warning... Terrible were the calamities that fell upon Jerusalem when the siege was resumed by Titus. The city was invested at the time of the Passover, when millions of Jews were assembled within its walls. Their stores of provision, which if carefully preserved would have supplied the inhabitants for years, had previously been destroyed through the jealousy and revenge of the contending factions, and now all the horrors of starvation were experienced. A measure of wheat was sold for a talent. So fierce were the pangs of hunger that men would gnaw the leather of their belts and sandals and the covering of their shields. Great numbers of the people would steal out at night to gather wild plants growing outside the city walls, though many were seized and put to death with cruel torture, and often those who returned in safety were robbed of what they had gleaned at so great peril. The most inhuman tortures were inflicted by those in power. [It will happen again after probation closes, and is happening in various places now.]

“Thousands perished from famine and pestilence. Natural affection seemed to have been destroyed. Husbands robbed their wives, and wives their husbands. Children would be seen snatching the food from the mouths of their aged parents...

“The Roman leaders endeavored to strike terror to the Jews and thus cause them to surrender. Those prisoners who resisted when taken, were scourged, tortured, and crucified before the wall of the city. Hundreds were daily put to death in this manner, and the dreadful work continued until, along the Valley of Jehoshaphat and at Calvary, crosses were erected in so great numbers that there was scarcely room to move among them. So terribly was visited that awful imprecation uttered before the judgment seat of Pilate: ‘His blood be on us, and on our children.’ Matt. 27:25.

“Titus would willingly have put an end to the fearful scene, and thus have spared Jerusalem the full measure of her doom. He was filled with horror as he saw the bodies of the dead lying in heaps in the valleys. Like one entranced, he looked from the crest of Olivet upon the magnificent temple and gave command that not one stone of it be touched. Josephus himself, in a most eloquent appeal, entreated them to surrender, to save themselves, their city, and their place of worship. But his words were answered with bitter curses. Darts were hurled at him, their last human mediator, as he stood pleading with them. The Jews had rejected the entreaties of the Son of God, and now entreaty only made them more determined to resist to the last. In vain were the efforts of Titus to save the temple; One greater than he had declared that not one stone was to be left upon another.

“The blind obstinacy of the Jewish leaders, and the detestable crimes perpetrated within the besieged city, excited the horror and indignation of the Romans, and Titus at last decided to take the temple by storm. He determined, however, that if possible it should be saved from destruction. But his commands were disregarded. After he had retired to his tent at night, the Jews, sallying from the temple, attacked the soldiers without. In the struggle, a firebrand was flung by a soldier through an opening in the porch, and immediately the cedar-lined chambers about the holy house were in a blaze. Titus rushed to the place, followed by his generals and legionaries, and commanded the soldiers to quench the flames. His words were unheeded. In their fury the soldiers hurled blazing brands into the chambers adjoining the temple, and then with

Dear Amazing Truth,

I'm so glad that your book "National Sunday Law" is available. It has changed so many people's lives! I immediately started giving them to others, and have seen people come to Christ through this book. I plan on bringing a group of people with me to give them out in waiting rooms, on the doorsteps of homes, churches, benches, parking lots, and other places. I have sat down and read the book to 7 people who would not have read it on their own, so I read it to them. It changed the lives of 5 of them! And the other 2 still want to read it more! Praise God! How amazing! I've sold many of my belongings in order to get 1000 "National Sunday Law" books to give to people. I prayed day and night that God would help me get more to give out. Being a teenager, money is hard for me to come by, but God has helped me to get it. I was able to rally some friends to sell their games to help get these books. Now we can't wait to see even more of the change in others' lives that will come out of this by the power of Jesus working in them. I'm so excited! Thank you so much.

Sincerely, Enoch Leffingwell

Some 212 Jesuit electors from across the world, mostly delegated by Jesuits worldwide, voted for Sosa following the resignation of "Father" Adolfo Nicolás.

Since the founder of the Jesuit order - Ignatius Loyola - insisted that the Supreme Jesuit General {the Black Pope} should serve for life, it is highly unusual that the former Black Pope {Adolfo Pachon} - after not serving for very long - retired all of a sudden! And it is also highly unusual that the present Pope Francis announced that he may not be in that office for very long. And it is also highly unusual that all three of these men just happen to be the very three men who were openly condemned and exposed by the International Common Law Court of Justice for participating in [as stated in their report] - "the premeditated plan by the Jesuits to ritually murder kidnapped newborn babies and then consume [drink] their blood, born of a twisted notion of deriving spiritual power from the lifeblood of the innocent and thereby assuring the political stability of the Papacy in Rome. their swords they slaughtered in great numbers those who had found shelter there. Blood flowed down the temple steps like water. Thousands upon thousands of Jews perished. Above the sound of battle, voices were heard shouting: 'Ichabod!' - the glory is departed.

“Titus found it impossible to check the rage of the soldiery; he entered with his officers, and surveyed the interior of the sacred edifice. The splendor filled them with wonder; and as the flames had not yet penetrated to the holy place, he made a last effort to save it, and springing forth, again exhorted the soldiers to stay the progress of the conflagration. The centurion Liberalis endeavored to force obedience with his staff of office; but even respect for the emperor gave way to the furious animosity against the Jews, to the fierce excitement of battle, and to the insatiable hope of plunder. The soldiers saw everything around them radiant with gold, which shone dazzlingly in the wild light of the flames; they supposed that incalculable treasures were laid up in the sanctuary. A soldier thrust a lighted torch between the hinges of the door: the whole building was in flames in an instant. The blinding smoke and fire forced the officers to retreat, and the noble edifice was left to its fate.

“It was an appalling spectacle to the Roman—what was it to the Jew? The whole summit of the hill which commanded the city, blazed like a volcano. One after another the buildings fell in with a tremendous crash, and were swallowed up in the fiery abyss. The roofs of cedar were like sheets of flame; the gilded pinnacles shone like spikes of red light; the gate towers sent up tall columns of flame and smoke. The neighboring hills were lighted up; and dark groups of people were seen watching in horrible anxiety the progress of the destruction: the walls and

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

I have had a rather wild life and have spent most of the last five years engulfed in drugs and alcohol. The book “National Sunday Law” was handed to me by a man at the gym. That book made a major impact on my life! Because of that book and the Spirit of God working in my life, I was baptized as a Seventh-day Adventist. Now I spend much time reading my Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy. Thanks again, and May God bless! J.S.

“The slaughter within was even more dreadful than the spectacle from without. Men and women, old and young, insurgents and priests, those who fought and those who entreated mercy, were hewn down in indiscriminate carnage. The number of the slain exceeded that of the slayers. The legionaries had to clamber over heaps of dead to carry on the work of extermination.”—Milman, The History of the Jews, book 16.

“After the destruction of the temple, the whole city soon fell into the hands of the Romans. The leaders of the Jews forsook their impregnable towers, and Titus found them solitary. He gazed upon them with amazement, and declared that God had given them into his hands; for no engines, however powerful, could have prevailed against those stupendous battlements. Both the city and the temple were razed to their foundations, and the ground upon which the holy house had stood was ‘plowed like a field.’ Jer. 26:18. In the siege and the slaughter that followed, more than a million of the people perished; the survivors were carried away as captives, sold as slaves, dragged to Rome to grace the conqueror’s triumph, thrown to wild beasts in the amphitheaters, or scattered as homeless wanderers throughout the earth.

“The Jews had forged their own fetters; they had filled for themselves the cup of vengeance. [The foolish virgins and billions of people on earth are now doing the same.] Says the prophet: ‘O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself;’ ‘for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.’ Hosea 13:9; 14:1. Their sufferings are often represented as a punishment visited upon them by the direct decree of God. It is thus that the great deceiver [Satan] seeks to conceal his own work. By stubborn rejection of divine love and mercy, the Jews had caused the protection of God to be withdrawn from them, and Satan was permitted to rule them according to his will. [It’s the same now. The horrors which Satan brings on people - because they have allowed the devil to be their master instead of dear Jesus, the devil tricks them into blaming on our kind Father!] The horrible cruelties enacted in the destruction of Jerusalem are a demonstration of Satan’s vindictive power over those who yield to his control.

“We cannot know how much we owe to Christ for the peace and protection which we enjoy. It is the restraining power of God that prevents mankind from passing fully under the control of Satan. The disobedient and unthankful have great reason for gratitude for God’s mercy and long-suffering in holding in check the cruel, malignant power of the evil one. But when men pass the limits of divine forbearance, that restraint is removed. God does not stand toward the sinner as an executioner of the sentence against

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

Greetings from southeastern Africa. Many thanks to you for the books we received. They found me in the middle of Bible studies with government ministers and some of the Catholic Bishops. Right now, we are in a great discussion on the book “National Sunday Law” which we’ve distributed to thousands here. There is a great, positive response to our SDA message as a result of this book! Many have become Seventh-day Adventists so far. Yours in Christ, A.M.

heights of the upper city were crowded with faces, some pale with the agony of despair, others scowling unavailing vengeance. The shouts of the Roman soldiery as they ran to and fro, and the howlings of the insurgents who were perishing in the flames, mingled with the roaring of the conflagration and the thundering sound of falling timbers. The echoes of the mountains replied or brought back the shrieks of the people on the heights; all along the walls resounded screams and wailings; men who were expiring with famine rallied their remaining strength to utter a cry of anguish and desolation.

Dear Sir;

Praise the Lord! I just received a copy of “National Sunday Law” today in the mail. I must say that I was unable to put it down until I had read the whole thing! It is absolutely the best book I have ever read on Bible prophecy and it has been long awaited! Thank you so much for finally setting me straight! C.S.

transgression; but He leaves the rejectors of His mercy to themselves, to reap that which they have sown. The destruction of Jerusalem is a fearful and solemn warning to all who are trifling with the offers of divine grace and resisting the pleadings of divine mercy. Never was there given a more decisive testimony to God’s hatred of sin and to the certain punishment that will fall upon the guilty.

“The Saviour’s prophecy concerning the visitation of judgments upon Jerusalem is to have another fulfillment, of which that terrible desolation was but a faint shadow. In the fate of the chosen city we may behold the doom of a world that has rejected God's mercy and trampled upon His law. Dark are the records of human misery that earth has witnessed during its long centuries of crime. The heart sickens, and the mind grows faint in contemplation. Terrible have been the results of rejecting the authority of Heaven. But a scene yet darker is presented in the revelations of the future. The records of the past,—the long procession of tumults, conflicts, and revolutions, the 'battle of the warrior... with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood' (Isa. 9:5), - what are these, in contrast with the terrors of that day when the restraining Spirit of God shall be wholly withdrawn from the wicked, no longer to hold in check the outburst of human passion and satanic wrath! The world will then behold, as never before, the results of Satan's rule.

"But in that day, as in the time of Jerusalem's destruction, God's people will be delivered, everyone that shall be found written among the living. Isa. 4:3. Christ has declared that He will come the second time to gather His faithful ones to Himself: 'Then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And He shall send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.' Matt. 24:30,31. Then shall they that obey not the gospel be consumed with the spirit of

His mouth and be destroyed with the brightness of His coming. 2 Thess. 2:8. Like Israel of old the wicked destroy themselves; they fall by their iniquity. By a life of sin, they have placed themselves so out of harmony with God, their natures have become so debased with evil, that the manifestation of His glory is to them a consuming fire.

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

I thank God for the book "National Sunday Law" which I just received in my mail-box. Truly, this book was an answer to prayer. Thank you for your faithfulness to preach the gospel. I look forward to sharing this material with as many as possible, and I trust that God will do whatever else is needed. Be blessed, and prosper always, With the love of the Lord, Carla Robertson.

GC 17-38.

Pastor Jan: May the people cry to God to save them from sin and death! A few minutes ago Sweet Vennita came in and said, "I've got to know what the word 'exhausted' means. Please look up the word 'exhausted' because in my devotional reading it says, "God's wrath against sin must be exhausted." I said, "OK."

A minute later she came in, and with a most solemn look and tone she said, "God put it on Jesus on the cross! God put it on Jesus! On the cross Jesus exhausted the wrath of God!!!"

I said, "Praise God! Praise God!" Then I read the quote for myself. Here it is - "God's wrath against sin must be exhausted. The punishment for sin must be borne. Having taken a survey of all that would be required of Him, Christ summed up the guilt [of the whole world for 6000 years] to be canceled. He then gathered the entire responsibility to His heart, and bent His whole being to the task. He clothed His divinity with humanity, and as our Substitute and Surety, prepared Himself for the sword that was to smite Him... 'He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed...' It was then that Jehovah struck a blow that was felt to the remotest parts of the earth." Signs of the Times, 1/4/99.

The wrath of God against sin fell like an avenging mountain upon the heart of Christ! The horrible, overwhelming "blow" - in love for you! - struck by God on His own Son was so great that it killed Jesus. And the wrath of God was "exhausted!!!"

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I just finished reading "National Sunday Law" and I must say that I was shocked. But I most certainly felt the Holy Spirit at work within me concerning this great, vast subject. I ask God to lead me into all truth. I know that neither my wife nor my church will get me to heaven. By God's grace I will follow Him all the way. God bless you. H.H.

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

Grace and peace be unto you. When I went to the county jail for my prison ministry, I asked the Lord to do something special that day. As soon as I had finished praying, out came the inmates. One of them was in his 20's and I noticed that he was just beaming. After we sang some hymns and had prayer, I asked them if they had any questions about the Bible or about things that are happening in the world as we are in the last days. Well, that man {who had found Jesus as his personal Saviour} spoke right up and said, "I learned something incredible just a few days ago. I learned what God's true day of worship is! And I know what the mark of the beast is! And I know what the seal of God is, and I'm so excited!" Then what really made me excited was that he said, "I learned all this from a little book entitled . . ." Before he could say another word, I said, "National Sunday Law!" And he about flew out of his chair! That man was on fire! Praise God! We shouted for joy, and shared these things with the others. I just wanted to let you know that these little NSL preachers are doing a great work in Idaho, and around the world! May the Lord continue to bless your ministry - "and give Him the glory, great things He hath done." Your brother in Christ, Randy

It fills my eyes with tears. That mighty "blow" spelled the end of Satan's kingdom. God has no wrath for you or anyone else who chooses to simply trust and obey dear Jesus. "The blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin." I John 1:7. Praise God!

Surrendering all to Him, you are "born of God." And "Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God." I John 3:9. Amazing!

Clinging to Jesus, you may shout for joy - for when God looks at you, He sees "Christ in you, the hope of glory." Col. 1:27. "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." II Cor. 5:21. Let's think about that for the next billion years!

"The tidings of Christ's death were carried by strangers to every part of the world. This is the vital, all-absorbing truth on which

God would have men in all ages fix their attention. He would have the death of His Son the great center of attraction. When Christ came forth from the tomb, He proclaimed over the rent sepulcher of Joseph, 'I am the resurrection and the life..." Signs of the Times, 1/4/99.

No wonder Paul cried out - "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Rom. 8:35-39. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Sir,

Several weeks ago my husband picked up a small book entitled "National Sunday Law" and brought it home. When I discovered it, I sat down to read it and did not stop until I had finished reading it all! Everything seems as clear as day to me! The history and documentation in the book are so clear!

I immediately resolved to keep God's Sabbath day holy. What a joy! Then I wondered how my Roman Catholic husband would respond. He read "National Sunday Law" carefully and agreed with me. So he left his lifetime Roman Catholic church to keep all of the commandments of God. We want to return the inexpressibly great favor that someone gave us by leaving that free book for us to find. Now we will share this wonderful truth with others! Thank you! Thank you, and may the Lord richly reward your work. V.S.
