Here's a Triceratops! The encyclopedia says that this dinosaur was as much as 30 feet long, weighing 10 tons. The prophet of God revealed that the land dwelling dinosaurs were destroyed in Noah's flood 4400 years ago because they were wickedly mutated from good animals that God made. God said, "The earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth." Genesis 6:13.

Hope: What does the Triceratops have to do with liberals being tricked into endorsing the mark of the beast when the Sunday law is passed?

Pastor Jan: You're about to find out.

thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart. And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them. But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD... And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth... And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die. But with thee will I establish my covenant."

Mark Dice: Donald Trump's sons killed a Triceratops on a hunting trip. Do you think that they got away with it just because they are his sons?

Liberal: Yea. My honest opinion is that they are getting away with it for the simple fact that they are Donald Trump's kids.

Mark Dice: Would an ordinary person get away with killing a Triceratops?

Liberal: I think that anybody else would have paid a fine and served their time in jail.

Mark Dice: For killing a Triceratops?

Liberal: Yea.

Mark Dice: It's an endangered species in some countries. Does that make it even worse?

Liberal: Yea. I agree.

it says that 1) "The wickedness of man was great in the earth." 2) Their thoughts were "evil continually." 3) The earth was filled with violence. Is that the way it is now? 4) "Everything that is in the earth shall die." 5) "But with thee will I establish my covenant."

Dear Jesus said, "As it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be..." In our day, cartoon thinking, devil music, drugs like caffeine, and pressure are applied to the poor people's brains.

Were people as ignorant in Noah's day as they are now? The Bible says, "There were giants in the earth in those days." Genesis 6:4. Many have wondered how liberals, who are atheists and evolutionists, could ever be tricked into going along with the Sunday law - a religious law! How do giants; the thousands of interviews with liberals by Mark Dice; and the Triceratops give us a hint?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: In the quote

Mark Dice: Donald Trump's kids just killed a Triceratops and posted a picture of it online, sitting next to the dead animal. Is that the wrong thing to be doing?

Liberal: Yea, that's inappropriate. I think it's a bad example to give to people.

Mark Dice: Should we allow a person whose sons are killing Triceratops to run for president?

Liberal: Definitely not.

“In the days of Noah a double curse was resting upon the earth. Yet this had not greatly changed the face of nature. Gold, silver, and precious stones existed in abundance... The vast, gardenlike plains were sweet with the fragrance of a thousand flowers.

“There were many giants, men of great stature and strength, renowned for wisdom, skillful in devising the most cunning and wonderful works; but they sought only to gratify the desires of their own proud hearts, and reveled in scenes of pleasure and wickedness. Neither the marriage relation nor the rights of property were respected. Whoever coveted the wives or the possessions of his neighbor, took them by force, and men exulted in their deeds of violence. [As they do now.] They delighted in destroying the life of animals; and the use of flesh for food rendered them still more cruel and bloodthirsty, until they came to regard human life with astonishing indifference. [As it is now.]

“The world was in its infancy; yet iniquity had become so deep and widespread that God could no longer bear with it; and He said, ‘I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth.’

“The wickedness of men was open and daring, justice was trampled in the dust, and the cries of the oppressed reached unto heaven... [It’s happening now.]

“Amid the prevailing corruption, Methuselah, Noah, and many others labored to keep alive the knowledge of the true God and to stay the tide of moral evil [as we’re trying to do now.] The Lord by a holy angel declared to Noah His purpose, and directed him to build an ark. While building the ark he was to preach that God would bring a flood of water upon the earth to destroy the wicked.

Those who would believe the message, and would prepare for that event by repentance and reformation, should find pardon and be saved...

“God gave Noah the exact dimensions of the ark and explicit directions in regard to its construction in every particular. Human wisdom could not have devised a structure of so great strength and durability. God was the designer, and Noah the master builder. It was constructed like the hull of a ship, that it might float upon the water, but in some respects it more nearly resembled a house. It was three stories high, with but one door, which was in the side. The light was admitted at the top, and the different apartments were so arranged that all were lighted. The material employed in the construction of the ark was the cypress, or gopher wood, which would be untouched by decay for hundreds of years. All that man could do was done to render the work perfect, yet the ark could not of itself have withstood the storm which was to come upon the earth. [It was the “Perfect Storm.”]

Pastor Jan: Pterodactyl dinosaurs, Saber-toothed tigers, and Woolly Mammoths were wiped out in the flood over 4,000 years ago.

Mark Dice: Now the Trump kids have killed a Pterodactyl in their latest hunting expedition. Do you think that it’s the right thing to do?

Liberal: If they can get a hunting license to do it, I guess it’s their right.

Mark Dice: Donald Trump’s kids have just killed a saber-toothed tiger. A lot of liberals are upset about that. Do you think it was wrong to kill the saber-toothed tiger?

Liberal: I would say to them, “Don’t hunt saber-toothed tigers because it’s definitely wrong!”

Mark Dice: Now the Trump kids have killed a Woolly Mammoth just to mount it’s head on their wall. Do you think it’s appropriate for the Trump kids to kill a Woolly Mammoth?

Liberal: I think it’s awful that they’re doing that - just because they have a lot of money that they can throw away doing things like that.

Pastor Jan: From my Mid August, September, and Mid September letters, you’ve already learned {from the tons of interviews that Mark Dice has had with tons of liberals} that many of them go along with 1) putting chemicals into the nation’s water system to sterilize everyone; 2) killing the elderly people to save money for the government; 3) banning the use of sodium chloride in the U.S.; 4) drinking water from the nuclear power plant in Japan; 5) having Carl Marx as our new vice president; 6) believing that John Wilkes Booth used a gun to shoot and kill Jesus. Therefore, you can see that the beast power will have no trouble tricking the poor souls into voting in the “correct” way, and receiving the mark of the beast by caving in to the future Sunday law - along with most everyone else.

The article below shows a woman speaking on C-SPAN. What she said reveals one of the many ways that the poor liberals, and most everyone else, will be tricked and forced into receiving the mark of the beast. The prophet of God cries out - “The agencies of evil are combining their forces and consolidating. They are strengthening for the last great crisis. Great changes are soon to take place in our world, and the final movements will be rapid ones.” 9T 11.

Speech delivered at the Women’s World Summit

As a member of the international Bilderberg Group, her influence is global. May our kind Father help us to get His mighty 3 angels’ messages to the people, is my prayer!

“Noah gave the world an example of believing just what God says. All that he possessed, he invested in the ark. As he began to construct that immense boat on dry ground, multitudes came from every direction to see the strange sight and to hear the earnest, fervent words of the singular preacher.

“Many at first appeared to receive the warning; yet they did not turn to God with true repentance. [Many are the same today.] They were unwilling to renounce their sins. During the time that elapsed before the coming of the Flood, their faith was tested, and they failed to endure the trial. Overcome by the prevailing unbelief, they finally joined their former associates in rejecting the solemn message. Some were deeply convicted, and would have heeded the words of warning; but there were so many to jest and ridicule, [as now] that they partook of the same spirit, resisted the invitations of mercy, and were soon among the boldest and most defiant scoffers; for none are so reckless and go to such lengths in sin as do those [like many church members today] who have once had light, but have resisted the convicting Spirit of God.

“It was not multitudes or majorities that were on the side of right [as it is now]. The world was arrayed against God’s justice and His laws, and Noah was regarded as a fanatic [as the 144,000 will be. Please be one of them!]

“Great men, worldly, honored, and wise men, repeated the same. ‘The threatenings of God,’ they said, ‘are for the purpose of intimidating, and will never be verified. You need not be alarmed. Such an event as the destruction of the world by the God who made it, and the punishment of the beings He has created, will never take place. Be at peace; fear not. Noah is a wild fanatic.’ The world made merry at the folly of the deluded old man.

“But Noah stood like a rock amid the tempest. [Praise God!] Surrounded by popular contempt and ridicule, he distinguished himself by his holy integrity and unwavering faithfulness. A power attended his words, for it was the voice of God to man through His servant. Connection with God made him strong in the strength of infinite power, while for one hundred and twenty years his solemn voice fell upon the ears of that generation in regard to events, which, so far as human wisdom could judge, were impossible.

“As time passed on, with no apparent change in nature, men whose hearts had at times trembled with fear, began to be reassured. [As now.] They asserted that if there were any truth in what Noah had said, the men of renown—the wise, the prudent, the great men—would understand the matter.

“The period of their probation was about to expire. [As it is now.] Noah had faithfully followed the instructions which he had received from God. The ark was finished in every part as the Lord had directed, and was stored with

Dear Jan Marcussen,

Wow! Wow! Wow! I’ve just finished reading “National Sunday Law.” It really hit home. It makes a lot of sense why the world is the way it is. We’ve been fooled and lied to again and again! I can’t wait to help spread this vital information by getting these books to people! I’ve also just read your newsletter, and what a shocker! I would like to receive these letters. Please sign me up to get them so I can start ordering books. I am “hungry” for the “truth.” Thank you & God bless. Henry CA

Dear Pastor Jan Marcussen,

Glory be to God! I’m fascinated because your book, “National Sunday Law” has performed miracles in the lives of many people in my community. Through it, many have had their minds opened by the Holy Spirit. They were Sunday worshipers, and the book changed them to become Seventh-day Adventists. I have been so touched to listen to their testimonies. They’re asking me for more of these books to give to others. May God bless you to be used by Him to save more and more lives in the world. Yours faithfully, M.P. Namibia

“Killer Clowns” Go Global

USA TODAY, Oct. 19, 2016.

By Jane Onyanga-Omara

The “Killer Clown” craze that began in the USA has gone global, including incidents reported in the United Kingdom, Australia and Canada.

The craze began in August when there were reports of people dressed as clowns trying to lure children into the woods in South Carolina.

Armed officers from London’s Heathrow Airport checked into a report Tuesday about a driver wearing a clown mask and brandishing a gun. The incident is the latest in a string of reports of clowns terrifying people.

Simon Chinery, 28, said he was left permanently disabled after he grabbed a 10-inch blade carried by a clown who crept up behind him.

In London, reports include a clown confronting a man with a hockey stick, clowns chasing children, and a knife-carrying clown on a bicycle following a woman.

Police had 59 reports of incidents involving clowns from Friday to Monday. One clown [who was arrested] was chasing two men with a chainsaw.

In Manchester, Kurtis Mulvaney, 29, said two people dressed as clowns approached his car, one of them carrying a machete.

Police in Western Australia arrested a clown for terrifying teen girls at a shopping center. In Canada, police in Cape Breton, Bowmanville, Halifax, Gatineau, Nova Scotia, Ontario, Ottawa, Quebec and Toronto have investigated incidents involving clowns, the BBC reported.

Pastor Jan: Were people more godly than this when the flood “took them all away”?

food for man and beast. And now the servant of God made his last solemn appeal to the people. With an agony of desire that words cannot express, he entreated them to seek a refuge while it might be found. Again they rejected his words, and raised their voices in jest and scoffing. Suddenly a silence fell upon the mocking throng. Beasts of every description, the fiercest as well as the most gentle, were seen coming from mountain and forest and quietly making their way toward the ark. A noise as of a rushing wind was heard, and lo, birds were flocking from all directions, their numbers darkening the heavens, and in perfect order they passed to the ark. Animals obeyed the command of God, while men were disobedient. Guided by holy angels, they ‘went in two and two unto Noah into the ark,’ and the clean beasts by sevens. The world looked on in wonder, some in fear. Philosophers were called upon to account for the singular occurrence, but in vain. It was a mystery which they could not fathom. But men had become so hardened by their persistent rejection of light [as they are now] that even this scene produced but a momentary impression. As the doomed race beheld the sun shining in its glory, and the earth clad in almost Eden beauty, they banished their rising fears by boisterous merriment, [as they do now] and by their deeds of violence they seemed to invite upon themselves the visitation of the already awakened wrath of God.

“Mercy had ceased its pleadings for the guilty race. The beasts of the field and the birds of the air had entered the place of refuge. Noah and his household were within the ark, ‘and the Lord shut him in.’ A FLASH of dazzling light was seen, and a cloud of glory more vivid than the lightning descended from heaven and hovered before the entrance of the ark. The massive door, which it was impossible for those within to close, was slowly swung to its place by unseen hands. Noah was shut in, and the rejecters of God's mercy were shut out. The seal of Heaven was on that door; God had shut it, and God alone could open it. So when Christ shall cease His intercession for guilty men, before His coming in the clouds of heaven, the door of mercy will be shut. Then divine grace will no longer restrain the wicked, and Satan will have full control of those who have rejected mercy. They will endeavor to destroy God's people; but as Noah was shut into the ark, so the righteous will be shielded by divine power...

"They gathered in crowds about the ark, deriding its inmates with a daring violence which they had never ventured upon before... But upon the eighth day dark clouds overspread the heavens. There followed the muttering of thunder and the flash of lightning. Soon large drops of rain began to fall. The world had never witnessed anything like this, and the hearts of men were struck with fear. All were secretly inquiring, 'Can it be that Noah was in the right, and that the world is doomed to destruction?' Darker and darker grew the heavens, and faster came the falling rain. The beasts were roaming about in the wildest terror, and their discordant cries seemed to moan out their own destiny and the fate of man. Then 'the fountains of the great deep' were 'broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.' Water appeared to come from the clouds in mighty cataracts. Rivers broke away from their boundaries, and overflowed the valleys. Jets of water burst from the earth with indescribable force, throwing massive rocks hundreds of feet into the air, and these, in falling, buried themselves deep in the ground.

Including their running mates, they both have papal counselors all around them. "The Roman Church is employing every device to extend her influence and increase her power in preparation for a fierce and determined conflict to regain control of the world." GC 565,566. Do you think that this is another reason for God's faithful ones, like Noah, to reach the people with God's last warning message of love?

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

Having grown up as a Roman Catholic, you can imagine the shock I felt when learning the truth from your book, "National Sunday Law." I had been praying to our heavenly Father to help me understand Revelation. Now I understand it! I desperately needed your book! God is filling my heart with love, joy, and hope! This past Saturday, I felt overjoyed to honor God's holy Sabbath on Saturday for the first time! Oh how I wish that all the people could see what I now see! It wasn't an accident that I received your book. I know I must get this Bible truth out to the people! They are blind. Oh how many are dying without the truth! Thank you again, and may God bless you. Y.C.

merciless winds and flung from billow to billow. The cries of the beasts within expressed their fear and pain. But amid the warring elements it continued to ride safely. Angels that excel in strength were commissioned to preserve it.

"The beasts, exposed to the tempest, rushed toward man, as though expecting help from him. Some of the people bound their children and themselves upon powerful animals, knowing that these were tenacious of life, and would climb to the highest points to escape the rising waters. Some fastened themselves to lofty trees on the summit of hills or mountains; but the trees were uprooted, and with their burden of living beings were hurled into the seething billows. One spot after another that promised safety was abandoned. As the waters rose higher and higher, the people fled for refuge to the loftiest mountains. Often man and beast would struggle together for a foothold, until both were swept away.

"From the highest peaks men looked abroad upon a shoreless ocean. The solemn warnings of God's servant no longer seemed a subject for ridicule and scorn. How those doomed sinners longed for the opportunities which they had slighted! How they pleaded for one hour's probation, one more privilege of mercy, one call from the lips of Noah! But the sweet voice of mercy was no more to be heard by them. Love, no less than justice, demanded that God's judgments should put a check on sin. The avenging waters swept over the last retreat, and the despisers of God perished in the black depths.

Vennita's Corner: "It is our privilege to have daily a calm, close, happy walk with Jesus."

"As the violence of the storm increased, trees, buildings, rocks, and earth were hurled in every direction. The terror of man and beast was beyond description. Above the roar of the tempest was heard the wailing of a people that had despised the authority of God. [That wailing will be heard again.] Satan himself, who was compelled to remain in the midst of the warring elements, feared for his own existence. [Look at the mad fiend being held down in the horrible chaos by the angels of God!] He had delighted to control so powerful a race, and desired them to live to practice their abominations and continue their rebellion against the Ruler of heaven. He now uttered imprecations against God, charging Him with injustice and cruelty. Many of the people, like Satan, blasphemed God, and had they been able, they would have torn Him from the throne of power. Others were frantic with fear, stretching their hands toward the ark and pleading for admittance. But their entreaties were in vain. [The poor masses will do that again while the seven last plagues are falling upon them because they've received the mark of the beast, and probation has closed.] Conscience was at last aroused to know that there is a God who ruleth in the heavens. They called upon Him earnestly, but His ear was not open to their cry. In that terrible hour they saw that the transgression of God's law had caused their ruin.

"Some in their desperation endeavored to break into the ark, but the firm-made structure withstood their efforts. Some clung to the ark until they were borne away by the surging waters, or their hold was broken by collision with rocks and trees. The massive ark trembled in every fiber as it was beaten by the merciless winds and flung from billow to billow. The cries of the beasts within expressed their fear and pain. But amid the warring elements it continued to ride safely. Angels that excel in strength were commissioned to preserve it.

Dear Sir,

I am writing to tell you that I so loved the book "National Sunday Law" that I kept reading it until the very end. Now I'm ordering more to give out. I thank God that you sent it to me! I am immediately changing my day of worship from Sunday to God's Sabbath on Saturday. God bless you for the truth. Thank you again for the book. Love in Christ, Arlene

Dear Pastor Jan,

God has been putting information in my path about the New World Order. Having prayed for wisdom to understand things relating to Bible prophecy, I was amazed when I found a copy of the book "National Sunday Law" in my mail box (and wondered who had put it there). God is bringing His remnant together and equipping them for the final chapter of His plan! It is wonderful to have found in the Seventh-day Adventist church such a great knowledge of Scripture and prophecy as is in "National Sunday Law." May God bless you as you continue your very important ministry. Please put me on your mailing list for your newsletter. Sincerely, Joel

“The sins that called for vengeance upon the antediluvian world exist today. The intense worldliness of that generation is equaled by that of the generation now living... Their sin consisted in taking these gifts without gratitude to the Giver, and debasing themselves by indulging appetite without restraint... Marriage was perverted and made to minister to passion.

“A similar condition of things exists now. That which is lawful in itself is carried to excess. Appetite is indulged without restraint... while their names stand in honored church records. Intemperance benumbs the moral and spiritual powers, and they become the slaves of lust. Integrity is sacrificed for luxury and display.

“The issues of the press teem with records of murder—crimes so cold-blooded and causeless that it seems as though every instinct of humanity were blotted out. The spirit of anarchy is permeating all nations, and the outbreaks that from time to time excite the horror of the world are but indications of the pent-up fires of passion and lawlessness that, having once escaped control, will fill the earth with woe and desolation.

“Before the Flood God sent Noah to warn the world, that the people might be led to repentance, and thus escape the threatened destruction. As the time of Christ’s second appearing draws near, the Lord sends His servants with a warning to the world to prepare for that great event. All who will put away their sins by repentance toward God and faith in Christ are offered pardon. But many feel that it requires too great a sacrifice to put away sin.

“For a hundred and twenty years the preacher of righteousness warned the world of the coming destruction, but his message was rejected and despised. So it will be now... ‘There is no cause for alarm,’ they cry.

‘Before Christ shall come, all the world is to be converted, and righteousness is to reign for a thousand years. Peace, peace! Let none be disturbed by the exciting message of these alarmists.’

“As the time of their probation was closing, the antediluvians gave themselves up to exciting amusements and festivities.

[Like they’re doing now.]

Those who possessed influence and power were bent on keeping the minds of the people engrossed with mirth and pleasure, lest any should be impressed by the last solemn warning. [As now.] While God’s servants are giving the message that the end of all things is at hand, the world is absorbed in amusements and pleasure seeking. There is a constant round of excitement [even at church events].

“When great and wise men had proved to their satisfaction that it was impossible for the world to be destroyed by water, when the fears of the people were quieted, when all regarded Noah’s prophecy as a delusion, and looked upon him as a fanatic—then it was that God’s time had come, and the scoffers were overwhelmed in the waters of the Flood. Men found too late that their wisdom was foolishness. ‘The day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.’ 2 Pet. 3:10. When the reasoning of philosophy has banished the fear of God’s judgments; when religious teachers are pointing forward to long ages of peace and prosperity, and the world are absorbed in their rounds of business and pleasure, rejecting God’s warnings and mocking His messengers—then it is that sudden destruction cometh upon them, and they shall not escape.” 1Thess. 5:3.” Patriarchs & Prophets, pp. 90-103.

“A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.” Ps. 91:7,8. In view of the coming horrors and destruction, remember this - “Jesus is your best Friend. Do not outgrow the simple faith and trust of your childhood.

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary’s cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262.

“When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Jan Marcussen,

My name is Carlos. I’m 18 years old, and I’ve just now discovered the truth through your book “National Sunday Law!” It is truly fascinating how it all fits together. I was raised a Roman Catholic but have always felt that it was not right to confess my sins to a man. It’s not until now that I can see the truth about the pope and Roman Catholicism. Now I choose to be a complete follower of God’s word and of Jesus Christ my Saviour. I just want to thank you for your newsletters and for keeping Jesus and His truth real for all of us. Much love, and may God bless!
Sincerely Carlos Georgia

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I’ve spent most of my life on the streets, hitch-hiking, on freight trains, with alcohol, drugs, lying, cheating, stealing, sex, and behind bars. For a long time I believed that I had committed the unpardonable sin. Today I finished reading your book “National Sunday Law.” I believe what it says! I know that it’s the truth! I know that God has forgiven me! I know that God’s mercy and love are still for me. Your book has really opened my eyes! Thank God for your ministry. God bless.
Sincerely, your brother, John B.

Dear Sir,

Never have I read a book like this one! “National Sunday Law” has answered questions that I’ve longed to ask others, but was afraid to. May God richly bless the person who sent out this book for God’s people! H.S..

When sick, your first request was, 'Father, Mother, pray that the Lord will heal me and forgive my sins.' When prayer was offered in your behalf, you made your simple prayer and with perfect faith and confidence you said, 'I shall get well. The Lord has blessed me.' You slept in perfect peace, in confidence that holy angels would guard your bed.

"Be a child again. [Praise God!] Cast all your burdens and sorrows on Him who alone can give rest to the weary heart and peace to the troubled soul. If you would learn anew the precious secret of happiness in this life and how you may attain the future, immortal life, you must again be a child in trust, in obedience, in love. If you only do your duty bravely, yet cheerfully, as a happy child of God, you will reflect rays of sunshine upon others.

"I charge you as one who knows, look up to God with the simple faith you had in your childhood and say, 'Father, I am weary, give me rest. Unite my ignorance to Thy wisdom, my weakness to Thy strength, my frailty to Thy enduring might. Shield me with Thy protecting hand. Save me from the vigilant foe.' Then believe, and you will realize even more than you expected." TDG 310. Praise God!

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I don't know if you are male or female, but who cares? The book "National Sunday Law" is the best book I've ever read in my life! It all makes total sense, and I'm in agreement with it 100%. I've been studying for the past 23 years, and have been trying to obey God as I understand things. I've always known that God's true remnant people exist somewhere on this earth. Now I have found them! Darrick, Bronx, NY

"We are not worthy of God's love, but Christ, our surety, is worthy, and is abundantly able to save all who shall come unto Him... He presents us to the Father clothed in the white raiment of His own character. He pleads before God in our behalf, saying: I have taken the sinner's place. Look not upon this wayward child, but look on Me. Does Satan plead loudly against our souls, accusing of sin, and claiming us as his prey? The blood of Christ pleads with greater power." MB 8,9.
