

"And he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon... And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed. And he causeth all, both small and great,

What's new in the end of the world? The Titanic was the largest ship ever! It was as long as 3 football fields end to end. The "floating city" was 92 feet wide, 175 feet tall, and could hold 3,327 people. With 29 boilers running 2 giant engines, the beast put out 46,000 horsepower to push the monster through the waves at 28 mph. But what would happen if you put 3/4 of that massive power into one tiny truck? What kind of Gehenna blast would the trembling soul inside the fiery tomb experience when he "gave it the gas?" In this letter, you're going to see signs of Christ's soon coming, and learn things that you never dreamed of.

What's new with the two horned beast? The X-51A WaveRider is part of America's prompt global strike initiative to attack any spot on the globe within one hour. It can go 1 mile in 1 second. It's nose is designed to take advantage of the train of sonic waves it creates by making them break at the optimal angle.

rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name."

In the Jesuit oath, the Vatican condemns masons and liberals. That's because they love to use them to help destroy God's Protestant people. How long will it take before they can cause the poor liberals to be excited about killing innocent souls as brought to view in Rev. 13:15?

Mark Dice: This is a petition supporting a mandatory euthanasia program to kill senior citizens, and anyone who is terminally ill. It will "put them to sleep" like animals.

Liberal: [redacted] If I sign this am I helping to kill the old people?

Mark Dice: Yeah, you're going to put them down just like you put down a dog.

Liberal: Yeah, I'll sign it.

Mark Dice: It will save our tax dollars on health care. [It was signed by many!!!]

Liberal: Thank you!

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: The quote says, "and he spake as a dragon." And it says that it would "cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed." In your last letter, and in this one, you show these interviews with Mark Dice which reveal that liberals are being used by Rome to help repudiate the Constitution so that the papacy can use the conservatives to bring in good religious laws to remedy the situation. Is that one way the devil is preparing society for the enforcement of the mark of the beast? And how will all this affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

Hope: What happened to the flaming truck god on page one that has so many thousands of horsepower?

Pastor Jan: The thing blew up in a fiery abyss, and the mighty mouse roasted in the overwhelming blast until it's flaming carcass withered into a pile of junk.

But a former issue of Popular Mechanics tells about another car god that has 8,000 horsepower. It reveals that David Grubnic stepped on the gas, and in the first ½ second, he was going 73.89 mph. In the next ½ second, he was going 113.82 mph. In the next ½ second, the clutch had already moved through three of its five stages, and he's going 162.45 mph. In the next ½ second he's going 213.09 mph. In the next ½ second, you're going 248.5 mph and you're being thrown back into your seat with the force of 5 G's. You've only gone 2½ seconds, and already the clutch plates have reached 1000 degrees from the friction, and some of them have welded together. The spark plugs have burned out, but the heat and pressure are so great that the fuel is exploding without any spark plugs, and you're going 271.62 mph. In the next ½ second, the crankshaft bearings have melted, the valve springs have been destroyed, and the whole thing is about to blow up, but the seething volcano inside the mighty engine is so hot that you're raging over the shaking earth at more than 293 mph like an inferno of exploding demons. You've only gone for 3 seconds, but you're still being mashed against the seat with 4 G's as your trembling body is stiff with fright and you're streaking across the earth at 321.58 mph.

All you can hear is the deafening roar. All you can see is a blur as your vibrating head tries to avoid the fiery abyss. The course is just 1000 feet long, and going 500 feet per second, David knows that in just one second more, the raging volcano will explode into a gigantic ball of flame, and his charred body will be found somewhere far away in the smoking wreckage. {It happened to a driver who went for just 1 second more.} So he lets off the gas, deploys the parachute, and eventually, the mighty machine comes to a stop. Though much of the engine is destroyed, David has set a world speed record - typifying the power of the gods of the last days.

Charity: What could be better than being the fastest man on earth?

Pastor Jan: The fastest? - "And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you. [Praise God!] Notwithstanding in this rejoice not that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice because your names are written in heaven. In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight." Luke 10:18-21.

David Grubnic was going 321.58 mph. Satan flies faster than the speed of light - which, in one second, can go 8 times around the world. But the fiend doesn't care much about how fast he can go. He's intent on taking over the brains of the ignorant masses to lead them on to joyfully get rid of the Bill of Rights and the Constitution in preparation for the enforcement of the mark of the beast at the Sunday law; the close of probation; the seven last plagues; and the death of the wicked at the coming of Jesus in the sky. He wants them all to be lost like he is.

Meanwhile, our kind Father is giving the dear people warnings of the end. He's trying to wake up their sleeping brains to cry out to Jesus to save them from sin and death before they've crossed over the line. "There is a line by us unseen that crosses every path. The hidden boundary between God's patience and his wrath." Watch closely -

"The time is coming when men will reach a point that the Lord will not permit them to pass, and they will learn that there is a limit to the forbearance of Jehovah." 9T 13.

"The wickedness of the inhabitants of the world has almost filled up the measure of their iniquity. This earth has almost reached the place where God will permit the destroyer to work his will upon it." 7T 141.

"Transgression has almost reached its limit. Confusion fills the world, and a great terror is soon to come upon human beings. The end is very near. We who know the truth should be preparing for what is soon to break upon the world as an overwhelming surprise." 8T 28.

Mark Dice: You probably heard on the news that President John F. Kennedy just died this morning after being hit by a car while crossing the street in Washington DC.

Liberal: It's unfortunate, but sometimes these things happen. You can't live forever.

Mark: Him getting killed by a car will probably lead to some new safety legislation. Pedestrian rights maybe.

Liberal: Yeah.

Mark Dice: One of Hillary's campaign promises is that she has vowed to repeal the Bill of Rights to help with the new world order. Do you think it's time that we get rid of the Bill of Rights?

Liberal: I think it is! I think we need change which they've been promising us for so many years.

Mark: The Bill of Rights is outdated now?

Liberal: We can't have old rules now. We live in a different world. I support it. I support it! I sure do!

Mark: Do you think we should get behind this effort to repeal the Bill of Rights? Do you think it's a good idea?

Liberal: I do! Yes. I think it's a good idea! Let everyone do their own thing!

Mark: Do you think it's time to go with the progressive agenda to repeal the Bill of Rights?

Liberal: I do agree with repealing the Bill of Rights. The Bill of Rights is unjust. That's my honest opinion.

The survey questions on the left were made by me to illustrate the truth of the prophet's words, "A day of great intellectual darkness has been shown to be favorable to the success of popery. It will yet be demonstrated that a day of great intellectual light is equally favorable for its success." SP 390. That is fulfilled now! But the devil is using his Vatican girlfriend to work differently now than she did in the dark ages. Now the fiends are using their vast network to keep the people filling their bodies with things that will hurt their minds, and make sure the preaching & teaching are toward the level of cradle roll with anything except American history and the 3 angels' messages of Rev. 14; etc. to keep their brains in the condition that they are in now. Almost no one suspects that the papacy has anything to do with any of this until they see what you've seen in my letters, and compare it with this - "And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth." Rev. 18:24.

Both highly intelligent, and highly ignorant liberals are being used to help repudiate the Bill of Rights and the Constitution so the door will be opened for conservatives - stirred up by their crooked preachers - to agitate their congressmen for the law that they'll think will give the solution to the nation's frightening problems. Many have wondered how the devil can trick liberals into going along with a religious law. From what you've seen in my last two letters, you know now that their poor brains will go along with most anything - if it comes from a liberal leader or a movie star - as long as they can get something out of it for their own selfish selves. The prophet continues -

"The world is filled with storm and war and variance. Yet under one head—the papal power—the people will unite to

Interviewer: What year did Adolf Hitler and his Nazi party sail across the sea and discover America?

Liberal: 1865?

Interviewer: What year did Richard Nixon shoot Jesus as He was riding into Jerusalem on a donkey?

Liberal: 1776? I don't know!

Interviewer: One of Hillary's campaign promises is that she will give an executive order for stores to close on Sundays so people can be with their families, and do their own thing. To help encourage the populace, you will be able to go online and ask for a $40 food voucher and a $100 tax deduction from North Korea. Would you go along with such a nation-wide Sunday law?

Liberal: Sure!

Liberal: Why not?

Liberal: Cool.

Liberal: I'm for it as long as I can get something out of it.

oppose God in the person of His witnesses. This union is cemented by the great apostate." 7T 182.

"May the Lord give no rest, day nor night, to those who are now careless and indolent in the cause and work of God. The end is near. This is that which Jesus would have us keep ever before us—the shortness of time." LDE 42.

"By the great cleaver of truth God has cut Seventh-day Adventists out from the quarry of the world and brought them into connection with Himself... The greatest wealth of truth ever entrusted to mortals, the most solemn and fearful warnings ever sent by God to man, have been committed to them [that includes you and me] to be

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

After reading your book "National Sunday Law," I feel like a gigantic cloud has been blown away from me by the great Bible truths that you brought to my eyes! I can't remember when I was so spiritually affected. Now I have a thirst for truth! As a result of "National Sunday Law," I have met with my friends, and have shared with them the facts of God's seventh-day Sabbath. I have a tremendous peaceful, contented feeling! I have had this peace and joy ever since your book came into my life. Reading it has changed my whole life! It's my intention to let others know about your wonderful book! God bless you! Richard

Dear Sirs,

I am the Pastor of a small church. We would love to know if the book "National Sunday Law" is still in print. We found a copy at a yard sale, and we are encouraged since the Sunday Law issue has bothered us for a long time. I feel that we are responsible to both know and teach the truth. May the Lord guide us by His Holy Spirit to return to Him with our whole heart. God bless you. Pastor G.P.

given to the world." 7T 138. Amazing! Have you ever heard any preacher, teacher, or church leader mention anything about this?

"In a special sense Seventh-day Adventists have been set in the world as watchmen and light bearers. To them has been entrusted the last warning for a perishing world. On them is shining wonderful light from the Word of God. They have been given a work of the most solemn import— [notice the word, "most"] the proclamation of the first, second, and third angels' messages. There is no other work of so great importance. They are to allow nothing else to absorb their attention." 9T 19.

I'm so moved by what's happening that I will give a box of 100 NSL preachers free before midnight, Sept. 14, to all who get 1000 to help save souls for a donation of 49¢ each with free shipping in the U.S.

Faith: In Rev. 17:5, God gives the great harlot the name "MYSTERY" because she works secretly. What papal mysteries have you learned about lately?

Pastor Jan: In this article to the left, you'll see just a tiny bit of the Jesuit fiends manipulating to "regain control of the world" [GC 565,566] in preparation for the enforcement of Rome's "mark." Watch closely -

"There are plenty of reasons to keep a close eye on Herman van Rompuy, the President of the European Council. Rompuy spoke to the 'Interreligious Dialogue' in Florence. The newspaper proudly quoted Van Rompuy as announcing: 'We are all Jesuits.' He was referring to those prominent European leaders with whom he is developing the architecture for the future Europe. So there is a 'Jesuits International.'

"Who are those people that Van Rompuy,

"We Are All Jesuits"

himself - schooled by the Jesuits at Sint-Jan Berchman College in Brussels - was talking about? First of all, there is José Manuel Barroso, President of the European Commission. Secondly, there is Jean-Claude Juncker, Prime minister of Luxembourg and Chairman of the Euro group. Van Rompuy also mentions the President of the European Central Bank (ECB), Mario Draghi who was schooled in the Roman Jesuit College Instituto Massimiliano Massimo. The Italian Prime Minister Mario Monti and his Spanish colleague Mariano Rajoy have also been shaped by Jesuit colleges, Van Rompuy cheerfully added. Fortunately there is Angela Merkel, the stubborn daughter of a vicar from the former DDR, to act as a counterweight.

“Listening to Van Rompuy, you will instantly notice the similarities of the Jesuits with Europe. Jesuits formed the vanguard of the Catholic Church, like the European elite is the vanguard of the European integration. Both portray themselves as ‘the elite’, elevated above the ordinary people. Their methods are very similar. A sophisticated lie is allowed when framed in the interest of the greater goal. [Pastor Jan: Uncontrolled lying is a mark of poor lost souls who are trapped in Roman Catholicism.] A barely contained cynicism typifies the attitude toward the normal citizen, the ignorant fool who within a democracy needs to be protected from himself. The Catholic and European elites work through inner circles. Van Rompuy, Barroso, Monti and Rajoy are frequent visitors at papal audiences.

“It is not surprising that this mentality leaves traces in the European structures and working methods. The ECB has a Governing Council of twenty three members, among which are the six members of the Executive Board. The ECB setup is hardly different from the Vatican. [Pastor Jan: He’s revealing that Europe is controlled by the Jesuits - according to Rome’s goal to “regain control of the world.” GC 566.] The Governing Council ranks no women, is not accountable to a Parliament, and the minutes of its meetings are classified [secret]. The ECB plays a central role in the Euro zone, moving around billions of Euros, but no one knows how the [papal] bank makes decisions.

Pastor Jan: Now the Jesuit reveals how the fiends work. He said -

“In a painless exercise of words, citizens are moulded into a thinking process that goes beyond them. As soon as they realize what building those building blocks are meant to create, they are already trapped in it. Jesuits lead the people, who are supposed to follow. [Pastor Jan: Those who refuse to follow are called, “ignorant,” and “populist.” He ends the article by saying -

“What an annoying populist he was, that Martin Luther!”

Charity: From prophecy, we well know that the devil’s law will spread to every nation as a result of the three-fold union of Rome, corrupt Protestants, and spiritualism, amid horrors, calamities, miracles from demons masquerading as dead loved ones, and tens of millions being killed by wars, famine, tornados, floods, hurricanes, fires, earthquakes, terrorism, heart attacks, cancer, and freak accidents caused by alcohol and demons, as the people beat back the Holy Spirit from them on their way to committing the “unpardonable sin.” But what will it be like when Rev. 13:15 is fulfilled?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - “When the protection of human laws shall be withdrawn from those who honor the law of God, there will be, in different lands, a simultaneous movement for their destruction. As the time appointed in the decree draws near, the people will conspire to root out the hated sect. It will be determined to strike in one night a decisive blow, which shall utterly silence the voice of dissent and reproof. The people of God—some in prison cells, some hidden in solitary retreats in the forests and the mountains—still plead for divine protection, while in every quarter companies of armed men, urged on by hosts of evil angels, are preparing for the work of death. It is now, in the hour of utmost extremity, that the God of Israel will interpose for the deliverance of His chosen.

“With shouts of triumph, jeering, and imprecation, throngs of evil men are about to rush upon their prey, when, lo, a dense blackness, deeper than the darkness of the night, falls upon the earth. [This comes at the 5th plague as seen in Rev. 16.] Then a rainbow, shining with the glory from the throne of God, spans the heavens and seems to encircle each praying company. The angry multitudes are suddenly arrested. Their mocking cries die away. The objects of their murderous rage are forgotten. With fearful forebodings they gaze upon the symbol of God’s covenant and long to be shielded from its overpowering brightness.

“By the people of God a voice, clear and melodious, is heard, saying, ‘Look up,’ and lifting their eyes to the heavens, they behold the bow of promise. A voice, musical and triumphant, is heard, saying: ‘They come! they come! holy, harmless, and undefiled. They have kept the word of My patience; they shall walk among the angels;’ and the pale, quivering lips of those who have held fast their faith utter a shout of victory. [Praise God!]

“It is at midnight that God manifests His power for the deliverance of His people. The sun appears, shining in its strength. Signs and wonders follow in quick succession. The wicked look with terror and amazement upon the scene, while the righteous behold with solemn joy the tokens of their deliverance. Everything in nature seems turned out of its course. The streams cease to flow. Dark, heavy clouds come up and clash against each other. In the midst of the angry heavens is one clear space of indescribable glory, whence comes the voice of God like the sound of many waters, saying: ‘It is done.’ Rev 16:17.

Do you see the shape that the shadow is in? In this book, author Paul Williams outlines the secret working and connection of the Vatican with the CIA and the Mafia. They are being used to aide her in reaching her three great goals which the prophet of God exposed in these words - “She is employing every device to extend her influence and increase her power in preparation for a fierce and determined conflict to regain control of the world, to re-establish persecution, and to undo all that Protestantism has done.” GC 565,566.

Dear Author,

It was a privilege and a pleasure to read your most enlightening book “National Sunday Law!” Over the years I have drifted from God’s word. Your book has rekindled a coal in my soul. I sincerely thank you. I had never pondered the reasons for Sunday being considered the Sabbath until I read your book. Your direct approach to determining the seventh day of the week is very heartwarming to me, as I have worked on Saturdays and rested on Sundays. Your language is fully convincing due to the Bible quotations. Your teachings are foolproof. Your explanation that Satan devotes so much energy corrupting us humans is fully believable and I am compelled to dwell on the astounding proclamation! Respectively, Robert W.

Dear Pastor Jan,

Greetings in the name of our Lord. I was visiting a church on vacation and a young man gave his testimony, stating that he became a Seventh-day Adventist because he received a “National Sunday Law” book in the mail. This made me feel so good. God is blessing your work. H.M.

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I have been attending an Episcopal Church, but it’s dead. Then one day your book “National Sunday Law” was delivered to my door. How I would love to see every preacher get a copy of your book! After reading it, I’ve started keeping the Bible Sabbath as God said to do. God has used you to make a difference in my life. I think you are a female. I will be sending for more of your books to give to others. I have three daughters. One is horribly backslidden. I don’t know who’s responsible for the book I got, but the seed fell on fertile ground. God bless you. Pat C.

“That voice shakes the heavens and the earth. There is a mighty earthquake, ‘such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.’ [this comes at the 7th plague.] Verses 17,18. [This produces waves so high that inhabited islands disappear - along with poor San Francisco and other dens of hell.] The firmament appears to open and shut. The glory from the throne of God seems flashing through. The mountains shake like a reed in the wind. There is a roar as of a coming tempest. The sea is lashed into fury. There is heard the shriek of a hurricane like the voice of demons upon a mission of destruction. The whole earth heaves and swells like the waves of the sea. Its surface is breaking up. The seaports that have become like Sodom for wickedness are swallowed up by the angry waters. Great hailstones, every one ‘about the weight of a talent, [about 60 pounds] are doing their work of destruction. Verses 19,21. The proudest cities of the earth are laid low. Prison walls are rent asunder, and God’s people, who have been held in bondage for their faith, are set free.

“Fierce lightnings leap from the heavens, enveloping the earth in a sheet of flame. Above the terrific roar of thunder, voices, mysterious and awful, declare the doom of the wicked. They are distinctly understood by the false teachers. Their wails are heard above the sound of the elements. Demons acknowledge the deity of Christ and tremble before His power, while men are supplicating for mercy and groveling in abject terror.

“Said the prophets of old, as they beheld the day of God: ‘Howl ye; for the day of the Lord is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.’ Isa 13:6. ‘Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the Lord, and for the glory of His majesty. The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day... In that day a man shall cast the idols of his silver, and the idols of his gold... to the moles and to the bats; to go into the clefts of the rocks... when He ariseth to shake terribly the earth.’ Isa 2:10-12,20,21,

“Those who have sacrificed all for Christ are now secure, [Praise God!] hidden as in the secret of the Lord’s pavilion.

They have been tested, and before the world and the despisers of truth they have evinced their fidelity to Him who died for them. A marvelous change has come over those who have held fast their integrity in the very face of death. They have been suddenly delivered from the dark and terrible tyranny of men transformed to demons. Their faces, so lately pale, anxious, and haggard, are now aglow with wonder, faith, and love. Their voices rise in triumphant song: ‘God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.’ Ps. 46:1-3.

“It is impossible to describe the horror and despair of those who have trampled upon God’s holy requirements. The Lord gave them His law; they might have compared their characters with it and learned their defects while there was yet opportunity for repentance and reform; but in order to secure the favor of the world, they set aside its precepts and taught others to transgress. They have endeavored to compel God’s people to profane His Sabbath. Now they are condemned by that law which they have despised. With awful distinctness they see that they are without excuse. Too late they see that the Sabbath of the fourth commandment is the seal of the living God. Too late they see the true nature of their spurious sabbath and the sandy foundation upon which they have been building. Religious teachers have led souls to perdition while professing to guide them to the gates of Paradise. Fearful will be the doom of him to whom God shall say: Depart, thou wicked servant.

Dear Jan Marcussen,

Someone left a copy of your book “National Sunday Law” on my doorstep, and it changed my life! God bless that person, and God bless you! I’m getting more to give to others in hopes that I will be able to bless others the same way. Thank you so much. In Christ’s love, Sherry G.

Dear Sir,

Your book “National Sunday Law” was left on the steps of my church. A lady in the church picked it up and gave it to me. I wish to thank you for the clear explanation to a lot of questions I’ve had for years. I must say - this book is “Dynamite.” I can see that the issue in this book is going to be the deciding factor for the two classes of people in the world. I feel that it needs to be read far and wide to show people the evil that’s been in our midst, and we didn’t see it for what it really is. I can see that Rome’s working is disguised - as Satan always is. I’m ordering many of these books to give to others. There are many who need to be reached with this message! May God bless you! Don

To the Author,

I don't know why or how I was sent this book "National Sunday Law" but I am ever so grateful that it was sent to me. I have read the Bible but have never really understood it. My eyes are now open!! I understand now, and am no longer ignorant about God's Sabbath. Thank you!! Wanda T.

“Soon there appears in the east a small black cloud, about half the size of a man’s hand. It is the cloud which surrounds the Saviour and which seems in the distance to be shrouded in darkness. The people of God know this to be the sign of the Son of man. In solemn silence they gaze upon it as it draws nearer the earth, becoming lighter and more glorious, until it is a great white cloud, its base a glory like consuming fire, and above it the rainbow of the covenant. Jesus rides forth as a mighty conqueror. Not now a ‘Man of Sorrows,’ to drink the bitter cup of shame and woe, He comes, victor in heaven and earth, to judge the living and the dead. ‘Faithful and True,’ ‘in righteousness He doth judge and make war.’ And ‘the armies which were in heaven’ (Rev 19:11,14) follow Him. With anthems of celestial melody the holy angels, a vast, unnumbered throng, attend Him on His way. The firmament seems filled with radiant forms—‘ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands.’ No human pen can portray the scene; no mortal mind is adequate to conceive its splendor. As the living cloud comes still nearer, every eye beholds the Prince of life. His countenance outshines the dazzling brightness of the noonday sun. ‘And He hath on His vesture and on His thigh a name written, King of kings, and Lord of lords.’ Rev 19:16...

“The King of kings descends upon the cloud, wrapped in flaming fire. The heavens are rolled together as a scroll, the earth trembles before Him. Those who would have destroyed Christ and His faithful people now witness the glory which rests upon them. In the midst of their terror they hear the voices of the saints in joyful strains exclaiming: ‘Lo, this is our God; we have waited for Him, and He will save us.’ Isa. 25:9.

“Amid the reeling of the earth, the flash of lightning, and the roar of thunder, the voice of the Son of God calls forth the sleeping saints. He looks upon the graves of the righteous, then, raising His hands to heaven, He cries: ‘Awake, awake, awake, ye that sleep in the dust, and arise!’ Throughout the length and breadth of the earth the dead shall hear that voice, and they that hear shall live. And the whole earth shall ring with the tread of the exceeding great army of every nation, kindred, tongue, and people, crying: ‘O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?’ 1 Cor. 15:55. And the living righteous and the risen saints unite their voices in a long, glad shout of victory.

“Angels ‘gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.’ Little children are borne by holy angels to their mothers’ arms. Friends long separated by death are united, nevermore to part, and with songs of gladness ascend together to the City of God...

“With unutterable love, Jesus welcomes His faithful ones to the joy of their Lord. The Saviour’s joy is in seeing, in the kingdom of glory, the souls that have been saved by His agony and humiliation.

“Upon the crystal sea before the throne, that sea of glass as it were mingled with fire,—so resplendent is it with the glory of God,—are gathered the company that have ‘gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name.’

“The cross of Christ will be the science and the song of the redeemed through all eternity. In Christ glorified they will behold Christ crucified. Never will it be forgotten that He whose power created and upheld the unnumbered worlds through the vast realms of space, the Beloved of God, the Majesty of heaven, humbled Himself to uplift fallen man; that He bore the guilt and shame of sin, and the hiding of His Father’s face, till the woes of a lost world broke His heart and crushed out His life on Calvary’s cross. As the nations of the saved look upon their Redeemer and behold the eternal glory of the Father shining in His countenance; they break forth in rapturous song: ‘Worthy, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, and hath redeemed us to God by His own most precious blood!’

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
I'm an inmate here in the prison. A friend gave me a copy of "National Sunday Law," and I can tell that what's in it is the truth! Praise God! Please send me more books to give to the people in here. Time is short, and I need to get these books to the people because they need this important message! Thank you and may God bless you. G.P.

Dear Miss Jan Marcussen,
Wow! What an excellent and incredible book you wrote! Praise God! "National Sunday Law" is a blessing! I'm overjoyed at what I learned from it, so much that I have to write and say "Thank you" for writing such an enlightening book. You are a blessing from God to many of us who desire to understand God's word. What a great book! May the Holy Spirit continue to bless you. R.S.

Your friend in Christ,

Announcements

1) You may make copies of this letter for others. If you do, someone will be in heaven who would have been lost.

2) I'm scheduled to speak at the SDA church in Colton, CA at 11 a.m., and at 2 p.m., Sabbath, Sept. 10. The church is at 850 Via Lata, Colton, CA. 92324. Bring something for the fellowship dinner. Your GPS or Mapquest.com will bring you there. You'll see on the big screen things that you never dreamed of re shocking things that are just ahead of us.

3) We now have over 20% of what we need to reach another million souls in Albuquerque in the great 100 million man march. If our kind Father impresses you to help us reach this goal, mark it below.

4) I will still give all 16 CCA DVDs free to all who get 1000 NSL preachers to help save souls for a donation of 49¢ each with free shipping in the U.S. God's people are having us to bulk mail them, and they're also putting them on doorsteps, sidewalks, benches, parking lots, laundromats, restrooms, and any place people sit, walk, wait, or go. God gets all the praise.

5) "Come join our happy crew, we're bound for Canaan's shore. The Captain says there's room for you! - and room for millions more."
