clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the great winepress of the wrath of God...

And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God. And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God. And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God

Magic in the last days. "Because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers." Isa. 2:6.

The days of Noah. The days of Lot. The days of Martin Luther. The days of William Miller. The days of the antichrist. The days of the three stooges. Satan knows that the various forms of spiritualism unites Catholics, Protestants, and worldlings for the mark of the beast as nothing else can. On this cover, you see the words, "Enlightenment 101." Do you see her fingers? How will millions like her feel when they see the pope also shape his fingers, and their enraptured souls learn that he is the great "enlightened one" who exhorts the "Cosmic Christ" [Satan] when he appears in different parts of the earth?

NEWSWEEK, TIME, and others, show that the battle is for the mind. Whoever has your thoughts has you. Modern spiritualism helps the devil offer health and happiness, while doing his work on the minds of millions.

Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints."

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Live forever! Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: The verse says, "her grapes are fully ripe."

Notice the word, "fully." Does it mean that at that time, they've crossed over the line and their probation is closed? The Revelator sees those who had gotten the victory over the beast, standing on the sea of glass. The prophet said, "They will be brought into close combat with the beast and his image." EW 254. Is that because they get God's 3rd angel's message to the masses, and the devil goes hog wild in the wicked cities? Will many run away from giving that saving message like Jonah did? And how will that last message affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

From these magazines, we see that here in the last days, the devil and the great men are dealing with people's minds in an appealing way. Much of it is mixed with spiritualism. The prophet said -

"Spiritualism asserts that 'each mind will judge itself;' that 'true knowledge places men above all law;' that 'all sins committed are innocent;' for 'whatever is, is right,' and 'God doth not condemn.' The basest of human beings it represents as in heaven, and highly exalted there. Thus it declares to all men, 'It matters not what you do; live as you please, heaven is your home.' Multitudes are thus led to believe that desire is the highest law, that license is liberty, and that man is accountable only to himself... Where are the safeguards of virtue? What is to prevent the world from becoming a second Sodom?"

"At the same time anarchy is seeking to sweep away all law, not only divine, but human. The centralizing of wealth and power... the spirit of unrest, of riot and bloodshed; the world-wide dissemination of the same teachings that led to the French Revolution — all are tending to involve the whole world in a struggle similar to that which convulsed France." Ed. 227,228.

It mixes essential oils, and holistic foods with miracle crystals, angel numbers, tarot cards, psychic awakenings, and demon possession. Who would not fall for it? Many liberals, atheists, church members, and the devil himself think it's great!

the Ten Commandments lasted less than 24 hours.

On Tuesday, a 6-foot stone monument of the Ten Commandments was installed on Capitol grounds in Little Rock, Arkansas. Less than 24 hours after it went up, a driver plowed into the granite with his vehicle.

The monument, built with $26,000 in private donations, was totaled by Michael Reed, 32, at 4:45 a.m. Wednesday.

In the Facebook Live video believed to be posted by Reed, the driver could be heard shouting, "Freedom," as his car drives onto grass and smashes into the the stone slab.

Pastor Jan: There were 67 comments about the incident. All of them that I read agreed that it was good to destroy the ten commandments. Why? Because great religious scholars - who are the sons of the great scholars in the days of Noah - say that, "The 10 commandments were done away with at the cross, and then 9 of them were brought back in the New Testament." Thus, they try to destroy God's Sabbath and His law together, and think that God is as ignorant as they are. It's no wonder that "In her [the fallen churches] was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth." Rev. 18:24. Notice the word "all." These devilish teachings are the cause of this article below, and the popes, priests, and preachers will have the blood of billions on their shoulders.

Violent Crime Is On the Rise in U.S. Cities

TIME, 1/30/17

<http://time.com/4651122/homicides-increase-cities-2016/>

Josh Sanburn & David Johnson

"Violent crime increased in many of the nation's largest cities last year, the second year in a row that metro areas saw jumps in homicide, robbery and aggravated assault. According to the Major Cities Chiefs Association, which collected data from 61 metropolitan police agencies, U.S. cities saw 6,407 homicides in 2016, an 11% increase from the year before. Dallas, Las Vegas, Louisville, Memphis, Phoenix and San Jose all saw rises in killings last year, as did some smaller cities that typically have very low murder rates.

"We've had at least two years running now where there's been an increase in 35 to 45 major cities," Stephens says. "It's a major issue."

"Stephens says many departments cite similar problems: gang violence and retaliation, violence associated with drugs, the overwhelming number of guns in many U.S. cities, and even problems related to conflicts originating on social media.

"As Spiritualism more closely imitates the nominal Christianity of the day, it has greater power to deceive and ensnare. Satan himself is converted, after the modern order of things..."

"The line of distinction between professed Christians and the ungodly is now hardly distinguishable. Church-members love what the world loves, and are ready to join with them; and Satan determines to unite them in one body, and thus strengthen his cause by sweeping all into the ranks of Spiritualism." GC 588. Notice in the quote above that spiritualism teaches that true knowledge places men above law. Crooked and smiling preachers also teach that God's law was done away with at the cross, and that people are "free" now from God's holy law. Thus, preachers and church people have united with spiritualists. The article below illustrates that this devilish effort of the ministers to have "FREEDOM" from God's law is more and more successful.

Man yells "Freedom!" as he destroys Arkansas' new Ten Commandments monument

TIME, MICHAEL GLASSMAN

June 28, 2017

Arkansas' new stone monument to

"Truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter." Isa. 59:14.

Violent crime is on the increase in the cities? You haven't seen anything yet! Watch closely -

"Nineveh was a center of crime and wickedness. Inspiration has characterized it as 'the bloody city' ... full of lies and robbery.'

"Yet in that city were many who were reaching out after something better and higher...

"The instrument chosen for this work was the prophet Jonah. To him came the word of the Lord, 'Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before Me.' Jonah 1:1,2.

"As the prophet thought of the difficulties and seeming impossibilities of this commission, he was tempted to question the wisdom of the call. From a human viewpoint it seemed as if nothing could be gained by proclaiming such a message in that proud city. He forgot for the moment that the God whom he served was all-wise and all-powerful. [Have you ever forgotten that?]

While he hesitated, still doubting, Satan overwhelmed him with discouragement. The prophet was seized with a great dread, [the devil uses fear to drive people in his crooked paths of misery] and he 'rose up to flee unto Tarshish.' Going to Joppa, and finding there a ship ready to sail, 'he paid the fare thereof and went down into it, to go with them.' Verse 3.

"Had the prophet obeyed unquestioningly, he would have been spared many bitter experiences, and would have been blessed abundantly. Yet in the hour of Jonah's despair the Lord did not desert him. [He won't desert you!]

"The Lord sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken. Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.' Verses 4,5.

"As the mariners were beseeching their heathen gods for help, the master of the ship, distressed beyond measure, sought out Jonah and said, 'What meanest thou, O sleeper? [We Laodiceans are also sleepers] Arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not...' The mariners, impressed with the thought that the strange violence of the storm betokened the anger of their gods, proposed as a last resort the casting of lots, 'that we may know,' they said, 'for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah...

"And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear the Lord, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land. Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the Lord, because he had told them.

"Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous. And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

"Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them. Wherefore they cried unto the Lord, and said, We beseech Thee, O Lord, we beseech Thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for Thou, O Lord, hast done as it pleased Thee. So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from her raging. Then the men feared the Lord exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the Lord, and made vows. [Praise God!]

"Now the Lord had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

"Then Jonah prayed unto the Lord his God out of the fish's belly, and said: 'I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the Lord, And He heard me; Out of the belly of hell cried I, And Thou heardest my voice. For Thou hadst cast me into the deep, In the midst of the seas; And the floods compassed me about: And Thy billows and Thy waves passed over me. Then I said, I am cast out of Thy sight; Yet I will look again toward Thy holy temple. The waters compassed me about, Even to the soul: The depth closed me round about, The weeds were wrapped about my head. I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; The earth with her bars was about me forever: Yet hast Thou brought up my life from corruption, O Lord my God. When my soul fainted within me I remembered the Lord: And my prayer came in unto Thee, Into Thine holy temple. They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy. But I will sacrifice unto Thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the Lord.' Verse 7 to 2:9. [Praise God!]

"With penitence and a recognition of the saving grace of God, came deliverance. Jonah was released from the perils of the mighty deep and was cast upon the dry land. [Wonderful Jesus!]

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,
I've been studying the Bible in hopes of finding peace of mind. As I was searching, I was given the book, "National Sunday Law." While reading these remarkable revelations I was floored!!! Now it all makes sense, and the pieces of the puzzle have fallen into place! This letter may not reach you, but if it does, I'd just like to say, "Thank you." I pray that this book reaches out to everyone like it has to me. I really believe that God is speaking strongly through you. Again, thank you. K. Fisher

Troy: When you're giving out the Sunday Law books, you know that angels are there. One of those times - it was so neat. We knocked on the door, and the door opened, and the man crept out like this, and softly said, "Hello?" And we smiled, and said, "Sir, did you get this book?" He goes, "Yes." We said, "Did you get a chance to read it?" He goes, "No." As soon as he said that, this cat comes flying out the door - VWROOM!!! I mean full speed! And the man starts screaming at us - "Look what you did! Now I have to go out and get my cat!" He said, "Look what you made me do!!!" We turned around. We see the cat. The cat stopped!!! Just - boomp. The cat turned around, and walked calmly right back to his arms. Who did that? The angel!

Pastor Jan: Wonderful! So how did it turn out?

Troy: He was amazed. He said that he would read the book!

Pastor Jan: Praise God!

“Once more the servant of God was commissioned to warn Nineveh. ‘The word of the Lord came unto Jonah the second time, saying, Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.’ [God gave him another chance. He has given all of us another chance!] This time he did not stop to question or doubt, but obeyed unhesitatingly. He ‘arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord.’ Jonah 3:1-3.

“As Jonah entered the city, he began at once to ‘cry against’ it the message, ‘Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.’ Verse 4. From street to street he went, sounding the note of warning. [Notice, he did not tell them of God’s love, mercy, compassion, salvation, or about dear Jesus - our Saviour from sin and death. All he told them was, Vennita's Corner: "That which God purposes, man is powerless to disannul." PK 720.

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
As I read your book, “National Sunday Law,” my spirit cried out “truth, truth, truth!!!” I am convinced that you have interpreted Bible prophecy correctly! Thank you for your book and the clear teachings that you present in it! God bless and keep you. Your humble brother always,
Mitchell Tennessee

“Your city will be destroyed!” That was it! And like William Miller, he told them the very day that it would happen! But the Lord knew that this was exactly what they needed to hear - at that time - to bring them to God. The message that our kind Father gave us for the world is also the perfect message to save the people. But many poor church members - like Jonah - are too cowardly to give God’s 3 angels’ messages. To avoid persecution, they give false excuses that God’s message is “too strong,” or that “it’s not time yet.” Inside of a giant stomach for 3 days with dead fish, and weeds wrapped around his head - Jonah received great encouragement from dear Jesus to give His message to “that great city” of Nineveh. And our Saviour knows how to encourage the “sleepers” now days to “awake” and sweetly give His last message to “that great city” of spiritual Babylon. I praise Him that those who are preparing to be God’s 144,000 are doing it! “These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth.” See Rev. 14:3-11.]

“The message was not in vain. The cry that rang through the streets of the godless city was passed from lip to lip until all the inhabitants had heard the startling announcement. The Spirit of God pressed the message home to every heart [Praise God!] and caused multitudes to tremble because of their sins and to repent in deep humiliation.

“The people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. And he causeth it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh... cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn everyone from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands. Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from His fierce anger, that we perish not?” Verses 5-9.

“As king and nobles, with the common people, the high and the low, ‘repented at the preaching of Jonas’ (Matt. 12:41) and united in crying to the God of heaven, His mercy was granted them. [Praise God!] He ‘saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that He had said that He would do unto them; and He did it not.’ Jonah 3:10. Their doom was averted, the God of Israel was exalted and honored throughout the heathen world, and His law was revered. Not until many years later was Nineveh to fall a prey to the surrounding nations through forgetfulness of God and through boastful pride...

“The men of Nineveh,’ Jesus declared, ‘shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.’ Matt. 12:40,41. Into the busy world, filled with the din of commerce and the altercation of trade, where men were trying to get all they could for self, Christ had come; and above the confusion His voice, like the trump of God, was heard: ‘What shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?’ Mark 8:36,37...

“The only city that will endure is the city whose builder and maker is God... The Lord Jesus is calling upon men to strive to secure the immortal inheritance. He urges them to lay up treasure beside the throne of God...

“There is coming rapidly and surely an almost universal guilt upon the inhabitants of the cities, because of the steady increase of determined wickedness. The corruption that prevails is beyond the power of the human pen to describe. Every day brings fresh revelations of strife, bribery, and fraud; every day brings its heart-sickening record of violence and lawlessness, of indifference to human suffering, of brutal, fiendish destruction of human life. Every day testifies to the increase of insanity, murder, and suicide.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
I have just finished reading your book “National Sunday Law” and I was totally shocked and amazed! I couldn’t put it down! Enclosed is a check for more of them. Please send them as soon as possible so I can give them to my family and friends. I was brought up as a Catholic. But I left the Catholic church. I knew it was wrong to pray to statues. Now I adhere to the truth of the Bible. May God bless you always, and keep you in His care. L.C. Florida

“From age to age Satan has sought to keep men in ignorance of the beneficent designs of Jehovah... Men boast of the wonderful progress and enlightenment of the age in which we are now living; but God sees the earth filled with iniquity and violence. Men declare that the law of God has been abrogated, that the Bible is not authentic; and as a result, a tide of evil, such as has not been seen since the days of Noah... is sweeping over the world. Nobility of soul, gentleness, piety, are bartered away to gratify the lust for forbidden things. The black record of crime committed for the sake of gain is enough to chill the blood and fill the soul with horror.

“Our God is a God of mercy. With long-sufferance and tender compassion He deals with the transgressors of His law. The end of God’s forbearance with those who persist in disobedience is approaching rapidly.

“Ought men to be surprised over a sudden and unexpected change in the dealings of the Supreme Ruler with the inhabitants of a fallen world? Ought they to be surprised when punishment follows transgression and increasing crime? Ought they to be surprised that God should bring destruction and death upon those whose ill-gotten gains have been obtained through deception and fraud? Notwithstanding the fact that increasing light regarding God’s requirements has been shining on their pathway, many have refused to recognize Jehovah’s rulership, and have chosen to remain under the black banner of the originator of all rebellion against the government of heaven.

“God allows men a period of probation; but there is a point beyond which divine patience is exhausted, and the

Dear Sir,
I have read “National Sunday Law.” Now I know why the Lord brought me out of my Sunday church! Others beside me have left it after years of being deceived. All churches in my area worship on Sunday. To those who rebuke me for leaving them, I say, “We ought to obey God rather than men.” Acts 5:29.

judgments of God are sure to follow...

“The time is at hand when there will be sorrow in the world that no human balm can heal. The Spirit of God is being withdrawn. Disasters by sea and by land follow one another in quick succession. How frequently we hear of earthquakes and tornadoes, of destruction by fire and flood, with great loss of life and property!... They are among the agencies by which God seeks to arouse men and women to a sense of their danger.

“The Lord would cheer every worker with the same message that He gave to the apostle Paul in wicked Corinth: ‘Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace: for I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.’ Acts 18:9,10... In every city, filled though it may be with violence and crime, there are many who with proper teaching may learn to become followers of Jesus...

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary’s cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262.
 “When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222.
Praise God friend! Praise God!

“The conditions prevailing in society, and especially in the great cities of the nations, proclaim in thunder tones that the hour of God’s judgment is come and that the end of all things earthly is at hand. We are standing on the threshold of the crisis of the ages. In quick succession the judgments of God will follow one another... We are not to be surprised at this time by events both great and decisive; for the angel of mercy cannot remain much longer to shelter the impenitent.

“Behold, the Lord cometh out of His place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.” Isa.

26:21. The storm of God’s wrath is gathering; and those only will stand who respond to the invitations of mercy, as did the inhabitants of Nineveh under the preaching of Jonah...

“Let the language of the soul be: ‘Other refuge have I none, Hangs my helpless soul on Thee; Leave, O, leave me not alone! Still support and comfort me. Hide me, O my Saviour, hide! Till the storm of life is past; Safe into the haven guide, O receive my soul at last!’” PK 265-278.

Dear Jesus said, “Now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all unto Me.’... The world will be lighted up. Satan’s hold upon the souls of men will be broken. The defaced image of God will be restored in humanity, and a family of believing saints will finally inherit the heavenly home. This is the result of Christ’s death. The Saviour is lost in contemplation of the scene of triumph called up before Him. He sees the CROSS, the cruel, ignominious CROSS, with all its attending horrors, blazing with glory.”

Dear Pastor Jan,

I have had my head in the sand, loving fun more than reality. One day as I went to get the newspaper, I found the book “National Sunday Law.” I thought that unity in the Sunday law is just what the world needs! I would be the one in charge of petitioning everyone in my area to be in favor of the Sunday law. So I read the book. A few hours later I was a grateful Sabbath keeper! Soon, my husband and daughter followed my lead. What a lot of lives this one little book has changed! We need to get many more of these NSL books into the people’s hands! Starting this Sabbath, my SDA friends and I will be getting together after church each Sabbath for a meal, and then go and cover the doorsteps with these little preachers. Please pray for us as we are for you. In Christ, P.N.

Dear Pastor Marcussen,

I will soon be a Seventh-day Adventist. I want to express to you my gratitude for your obedience to our Lord for the way He has placed you in this hour. I am overwhelmed by the information you risk your life to bring us in the book “National Sunday Law” and in your letters. I am intrigued by the accuracy of the understanding you have. We are on the edge of God’s judgements. I agree that the Anti-christ will be taking his position. I pray that this crisis will be the wake-up call to God’s people. So many will perish. We don’t have 120 years as did Noah, to warn the people. Keep on doing what you’re doing!! R.S

Dear Sirs,

I received a fantastic book in the mail entitled “National Sunday Law.” Just a few nights ago I opened it up and read it. Revelation has been a mystery to me, until now! I couldn’t put your book down! I want to get more of these “National Sunday Law” books to give to my family. I sincerely want to thank Ms Jan Marcussen for the help she has given me in all this valuable information.
 Sincerely, Alice California

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I want to thank you for publishing the book, “National Sunday Law.” This book is a creation of Jesus Christ. I sent for a number of “National Sunday Law” and put them in my church. People grabbed them up to read them and they’re gone! I’m so inspired by this book that I feel that I need to put more of them in other churches, and get them out to many people. I was confused about which day the Sabbath was until I read your book. But thanks be to Jesus! I just believe that I can get more of these books into the hands of the people. Keep up the good work in Jesus’ name!

Dear Sir,
While looking for something to read. I picked up your book “National Sunday Law.” I could not lay it down! I’ve heard many a sermon on the book of Revelation - - but never anything that touched my heart like “National Sunday Law!” The Lord put me under such conviction that I said to myself, “No, I can’t run my business on the Lord’s Sabbath anymore.” At first business was slow, but then the Lord blessed in a miraculous way!
