

"And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever... many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased... And when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. And I heard, but I understood not... Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand."

Millions of people know in their hearts that our kind Father put President Trump where he is, and that he is doing the best he knows. In the May issue of Inside the Vatican, we find this article showing President Trump holding up the Executive Order on "Promoting Free Speech and Religious Liberty." The President is surrounded by religious leaders, and can you guess who is standing directly behind him? It's the Roman Catholic Cardinal, Donald Wuerl. Rome was a major power behind the scenes in favor of getting this executive order because it permits church leaders to openly endorse their fellow church officers, priests, members, or anyone, for political office, virtually allowing the "church" to get into politics. And that will help lead to the national Sunday law. Almost no one can fathom such a thing - and that pleases Rome well. The Executive Order does not say that it upholds the freedoms we already have as an "unalienable right" in the Constitution. But it says, "It shall be the policy of the executive branch to vigorously enforce Federal law's robust protections for religious freedom." With Rome's encouragement, the executive order transfers the foundation from the Constitution, to "Federal Law." The national Sunday law will be a "Federal Law." The Executive Order may sound good, but the article reveals that agents of Rome call it "only a first step" in the quest for freedom, {as if we don't already have it!} and these Catholic agents are already calling for these "Federal Law" freedoms to be manipulated to be more and more in harmony with the goals of Rome. I heard President-elect Trump innocently say, "The churches will be empowered. They will have power." Our kind Father is going to let the papacy get what she desires. I don't believe that our dear President realizes what Rome is doing, or where these things are leading. The "Holy See" in Rome understands it well. One thing, however, is unknown even to papal leaders = and that is that these things are leading to the soon return of Jesus in the clouds of heaven - an event which they would dread above all things. "But the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand." Dan. 5:10.

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Live forever! Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: The verse says, "And when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished." Dan. 12:7. Notice the word, "all." Does that mean that after the "power" of God's people is "scattered" that Jesus will come? And how will it be "scattered?" Will it be accomplished when God's people have to flee because of the Sunday law? Will the King of the North have anything to do with it? It says, "But tidings out of the east [the direction from whence Jesus comes. GC 640.] and out of the north [the throne of God is "on the sides of the north" in heaven. Ps. 48:2.] shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many." Dan. 11:44. Are these "tidings" that "trouble him" God's three angels' messages? Will it be the 144,000 who will give God's last message, as we find both of them in Rev. 14?

Hope: It says, "And the Ethiopians shall be at his steps." Dan. 11:43. Will the King of the North and his papal fiends do anything against God's dear people in Ethiopia even in modern times? And when the power of God's people is "scattered," how will it affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

Professor Veith: They asked me if I would baptize their members, and I said “no.”

Pastor Jan: In his sermon entitled, “Mordecai in the Gate,” my dear friend revealed that he said “no” to these 7,000 faithful people because he wanted to be loyal to his church, which he represented. His motive was good. He wanted to do right. He was suddenly in a dilemma. He said “no” because, to refuse baptism to these hungry souls was the correct institutional thing to do. But it wasn’t long before dear Jesus caught up with him “And the Lord really rebuked me,” he said, for saying “no” to them. Now he starts reasoning with both himself, and with God.

Professor Veith: Seven thousand people! And I said to myself, Lord, are these the 7,000 who have not bowed the knee to Baal? Were they kicked out of my own church?!! There are many like this.

Pastor Jan: It is estimated that there are tens of thousands of them around the world. Amidst suffering for kindly standing for the truth of God, His faithful children, wherever they may be, are being prepared to be among God’s 144,000.

Professor Veith: There are many who have been removed from the church books by leading men who think that the pope of Rome is the successor of Peter.

Charity: Do you comprehend that? Do you realize what he just said? He said that leading men who are kicking God’s people out think that –

“the pope of Rome is the successor of Peter!!!!!!”

What fiends from the Vatican teach that terrible heresy? From this statement, Professor Veith has exposed these men who are practicing these wicked attacks - - who then stand behind pulpits and receive God’s tithe money!

Pastor Jan: And remember that dear Jesus loves the dear Catholic people as much as He loves you and me. He loves these priests, monks, Jesuits, cardinals, popes, and infiltrators who are secretly attacking God’s people. Since “God is love,” and since God never changes, His love never changes. His love for them is unconditional and undying. That means that His love for the wicked will be just as strong and tender while they are burning up in hell as when they were little babies in their mothers’ arms. His tender love includes both justice and mercy. That’s why the fire of hell is called His “strange act.” Isa. 28:21. “To our merciful God the act of punishment is a ‘strange act.’ ‘As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked.’ Eze 33:11.” GC 627. In hell they turn to ashes and are gone forever. “They shall be as though they had not been.” Obadiah 16. In a minute, you’ll see why.

Dear Jesus said, “Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.” Matt. 7:20. Notice the word, “know.” Whatever our kind Father allows demons and monsters to do against His dear people is only to help drive them closer to His side. If you remember this important point, the devil and his slinking avatars will not be able to discourage you - even when “the power of the holy people” is “scattered,” Dan. 12:7.

“Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness’ sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” Matt. 5:10. Fiends who illegally kick God’s people out cannot hurt God’s faithful Seventh-day Adventist church.

Never forget that! “Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.” Luke 10:18. “All that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.” II Tim. 3:12,13. Does that include you and me? Notice the word, “all.” Are we willing to be one of the “all” for dear Jesus?

Faith: In that part of Ethiopia, does God recognize His remnant church in the godly 7,000? Or does He recognize His remnant church in the men who dragged them through the courts, forbid them to be baptized, and believe that the antichrist in Rome is the successor of Peter?

Pastor Jan: It’s a secret.

But our kind Father gives us a hint - “I will not know a wicked person.” Ps. 101:4. “The name of the wicked shall rot.” Prov. 10:7.

Professor Walter Veith: I took the picture of these people a couple of days ago. God sent me to Ethiopia. And the Lord really rebuked me there. I was invited to speak there, and I spoke to seven thousand people. Then I discovered that I was speaking to people who had been pushed aside; thrown out; dragged through the courts - by [the leading men of] my own church!

Faith: Leading men? What kind of men are they? What church are they the leaders of?

Pastor Jan: For the sake of those who are inexperienced in the great warfare going on with the beast and its image, I’ll say that it’s a secret. What you are about to learn is so shocking that I’ve had to water this letter down so that it won’t be too much for some of you who are over 40.

Professor Veith: These people have one big thing going for them - - they believe in the Spirit of Prophecy with all their hearts. [That’s revealed in Rev. 12:17 & Rev. 19:10] They obey God’s health reform in a country where there’s nothing. I was told that it was testified in court that they were disfellowshipped because they don’t drink coffee!!! An interdict was placed against them so that their converts may not be baptized.

Hope: The dark ages? In GC 100, the prophet reveals that Rome also placed interdicts on God’s people under which there could be no baptisms in the churches, and the dead were buried in ditches beside the road.

Of the “King of the North,” God said, “And the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.” Dan. 11:43. Who are those men who illegally kicked 7,000 godly people out? Are they masquerading themselves to be “within” God’s church? No wonder the prophet said, “We have far more to fear from within than from without.” LDE 156.

Here’s my dear friend in Jesus whom I’ve never met - Professor Walter Veith.

Hope: If you’ve never met, how can he be your dear friend in Jesus?

Pastor Jan: Like a wheel in a wheel in the same clock, our message and goals are the same. And I’m glad that he’s not bashful like I am.

May our Saviour use you and me to reach the dear people with His last message of love and warning before they're dead. And I praise God for godly leading men like Nicodemus. John 3:1-17.

Jesuits are like ghosts. You may never knowingly see one of the wicked fiends, but like the wind, you see the effects of the workings of their trained agents. Concerning these demon possessed souls, the prophet of God said -

"There was no crime too great for them to commit, no deception too base for them to practice, no disguise too difficult for them to assume. Vowed to perpetual poverty and humility, it was their studied aim to secure wealth and power, to be devoted to the overthrow of Protestantism, and the re-establishment of the papal supremacy." GC 234,235.

Don't accuse anyone. Just compare their words and actions with the word of God. Be sweet to all like dear Jesus was with Judas.

Hope: Do you think that God's people will invite these particular men over for dinner and get close to them in sweet fellowship to try to help save them? Will they try to debate with them to help straighten them out? Or do you think that they will just flee from them?

Pastor Jan: Dear Jesus said, "And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers." John 10:5.

Professor Veith: If there were only 7,000 who didn't bow the knee to Baal, then what about us? 7,000 of them in Ethiopia! And some of them are so poor! I've got many pictures of them, which I wish I had time to show you.

I prayed, 'Lord, if You want to use these people to give Thy three angels' messages, then empower them with Thy Spirit!'"

Pastor Jan: Praise God!

Charity: You said that our kind Father loves those wicked men - and everyone - with an undying love. Dear Jesus died on the cross of Calvary for them and for us. Then how will His unconditional love for them be shown in the great judgment of God?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - "There are papist priests and prelates, who claimed to be Christ's ambassadors, yet employed the rack, the dungeon, and the stake to control the consciences of His people. There are the proud pontiffs who exalted themselves above God and presumed to change the law of the Most High. Those pretended fathers of the church have an account to render to God from which they would fain be excused. Too late they are made to see that the Omniscient One... identifies His interest with that of His suffering people; [Praise God!] and they feel the force of His own words: 'Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these My brethren, ye have done it unto Me.' Matt. 25:40..."

"And now before the swaying multitude are revealed the final scenes—the patient Sufferer treading the path to Calvary; the Prince of heaven hanging upon the cross; the haughty priests and the jeering rabble deriding His expiring agony; the supernatural darkness; the heaving earth, the rent rocks, the open graves, marking the moment when the world's Redeemer yielded up His life.

"The awful spectacle appears just as it was. Satan, his angels, and his subjects have no power to turn from the picture of their own work... The weak, timeserving Pilate; the mocking soldiers; the priests and rulers and the maddened throng who cried, 'His blood be on us, and on our children!' — all behold the enormity of their guilt. They vainly seek to hide from the divine majesty of His countenance, outshining the glory of the sun, while the redeemed cast their crowns at the Saviour's feet, exclaiming: 'He died for me!'"

"The whole wicked world stand arraigned at the bar of God on the charge of high treason against the government of heaven. They have none to plead their cause; they are without excuse; and the sentence of eternal death is pronounced against them..."

"Satan seems paralyzed as he beholds the glory and majesty of Christ. [Praise God!] He who was once a covering cherub remembers whence he has fallen. A shining seraph, 'son of the morning;' how changed, how degraded!..."

"Memory recalls the home of his innocence and purity, the peace and content that were his until he indulged in murmuring against God, and envy of Christ. His accusations, his rebellion, his deceptions to gain the sympathy and support of the angels, his stubborn persistence in making no effort for self-recovery when God would have granted him forgiveness—all come vividly before him... He recalls his constant efforts to oppose the work of Christ and to sink man lower and lower. He sees that his hellish plots have been powerless to destroy those who have put their trust in Jesus. [Praise God!] As Satan looks upon his kingdom, the fruit of his toil, he sees only failure and ruin. He has led the multitudes to believe that the City of God would be an easy prey; but he knows that this is false. Again and again, in the progress of the great controversy, he has been defeated and compelled to yield. He knows too well the power and majesty of the Eternal...

"Satan sees that his voluntary rebellion has unfitted him for heaven. He has trained his powers to war against God; the purity, peace, and harmony of heaven would be to him supreme torture. His accusations against the mercy and justice of God are now silenced. The reproach which he has endeavored to cast upon Jehovah rests wholly upon himself. And now Satan bows down and confesses the justice of his sentence.

"Who shall not fear Thee, O Lord, and glorify Thy name? for Thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before Thee; for Thy judgments are made manifest... 'Just and true are Thy ways, Thou King of saints...' It was for the joy that was set before Him—that He might bring many sons unto glory—that He endured the cross and despised the shame. And inconceivably great as was the sorrow and the shame, yet greater is the President Trump speaking at Ford's Theater in Washington, D.C. with this wife in the background. When I was a boy, my class from school was taken there on a field trip. They don't allow this anymore, but they took us up into the very booth where President Abraham Lincoln was shot, and I touched and felt the chair that he was sitting in. His dark, red blood was still on the back of the chair. I remember looking down and seeing how far it was that John Wilkes Booth had to jump. They took us across the street into the little room where they carried him. The bed was still there where they laid him with his long legs hanging off the end. In that very theater, President Trump referred to the recent terrorist attack, and said, "This bloodshed must end. This bloodshed will end." Such crime and terror is another factor leading to the devil's Sunday law that will enforce Rome's "mark of the beast."

Dear Pastor Jan Marcussen,

The book "National Sunday Law," is getting God's true message of the last days into the hearts of the inhabitants of this world! Those who accept it will live through all eternity. Here in Botswana, Africa, even nuns, friars, and the Catholic monks are leaving their monasteries because of the "National Sunday Law" book. Praise the Lord! They have begun to turn their backs on the papal fables and traditions which are a deception from the "man of sin." I praise our Lord God for His mercies in the name of our Saviour Jesus Christ. May God bless you all! Yours in Christ, M.K. Ksabo

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

God knew what He was doing when He allowed me to be put into this jail where a brother came to me and gave me something called, "National Sunday Law!" "Man!" I fell on my knees. I was fighting to be able to worship on Sunday in the chapel, and then came "National Sunday Law!" It's opened my eyes wide to know that Sunday worship is the mark of the beast! Please send me more of these books so I can reach others! And to think, I've been fighting to worship the mark of the beast! No! no! no more! God bless you! M. Wagner joy and the glory. He looks upon the redeemed, renewed in His own image, every heart bearing the perfect impress of the divine, every face reflecting the likeness of their King. He beholds in them the result of the travail of His soul, and He is satisfied. Then, in a voice that reaches the assembled multitudes of the righteous and the wicked, He declares: 'Behold the purchase of My blood! For these I suffered, for these I died, that they might dwell in My presence throughout eternal ages.' And the song of praise ascends from the white-robed ones about the throne: 'Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing.' Rev. 5:12. [Praise God!]

Dear Sir;

Thank you for your wonderful book "National Sunday Law" I have just recently finish reading it. The book is fascinating and extremely important! Don't worry; I will never work on a Saturday again. Now I know better. May the Holy Spirit guide you in the peace and victory of Christ, for the glory of God.

the supremacy of Christ, his character remains unchanged. The spirit of rebellion, like a mighty torrent, again bursts forth. Filled with frenzy, he determines not to yield the great controversy. The time has come for a last desperate struggle against the King of heaven. He rushes into the midst of his subjects and endeavors to inspire them with his own fury and arouse them to instant battle. But of all the countless millions whom he has allured into rebellion, there are none now to acknowledge his supremacy. His power is at an end... Their rage is kindled against Satan and those who have been his agents in deception, and with the fury of demons they turn upon them.

'Saith the Lord: 'Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God; behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness. They shall bring thee down to the pit.' 'I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire... I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee... I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee... Thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.' Eze. 28:6-8,16-19.

'Every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; but this shall be with burning and fuel of fire.' 'Upon the wicked He shall rain quick burning coals, fire and brimstone and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.' Isa. 9:5; 34:2; Ps. 11:6, margin. Fire comes down from God out of heaven. The earth is broken up. The weapons concealed in its depths are drawn forth. Devouring flames burst from every yawning chasm. The very rocks are on fire. The day has come that shall burn as an oven. The elements melt with fervent heat, the earth also, and the works that are therein are burned up. Mal. 4:1; 2 Pet. 3:10. The earth's surface seems one molten mass—a vast, seething lake of fire.

'The wicked receive their recompense in the earth. Prov. 11:31. They 'shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts.' Mal. 4:1. Some are destroyed as in a moment, while others suffer many days. All are punished 'according to their deeds.' In the cleansing flames the wicked are at last destroyed, root and branch—Satan the root, his followers the branches. The full penalty of the law has been visited...

'The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing.' Isa. 14:7. And a shout of praise and triumph ascends from the whole loyal universe. 'The voice of a great multitude,' 'as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings,' is heard, saying: 'Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.' Rev. 19:6.

'While the earth was wrapped in the fire of destruction, the righteous abode safely in the Holy City. Upon those that had part in the first resurrection, the second death has no power. While God is to the wicked a consuming fire, He is to His people both a sun and a shield.

'I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away.' Rev. 21:1. The fire that consumes the wicked purifies the earth. [Junk cars and beer cans are gone.]

Dear Sir;

I was raised as a Roman Catholic. I've read "National Sunday Law" and I fell in love with the truth within its pages. The Lord is truly wonderful! He sent His angels to open my eyes to the truth! The book was a gift to me from my hair dresser who is a Seventh-day Adventist. I'm very thankful, and have begun a deep spiritual journey. With the help of Christ, we will rejoice in everlasting life. God bless all of you! Sasha

Dear Pastor Jan,

Praise be to our God. I thank Him that a friend introduced me to your book "National Sunday Law." It convicted me so much that I got on my knees and asked God to forgive me for not keeping His true Sabbath. I immediately disposed of all my Catholic literature, prayer books, virgin Mary images, and Rosary beads. Now I feel peace in my heart - knowing that I've come to know the truth, and now I am a Seventh-day Adventist until the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Please send me more Sunday Law books. May His mercy extend to you and may God bless the remnant. Your Sabbath-keeping Brother, Kevin “Every trace of the curse is swept away. No eternally burning hell will keep before the ransomed the fearful consequences of sin.

“One reminder alone remains: Our Redeemer will ever bear the marks of His crucifixion. Upon His wounded head, upon His side, His hands and feet, are the only traces of the cruel work that sin has wrought. Says the prophet, beholding Christ in His glory: ‘He had bright beams coming out of His side: and there was the hiding of His power.’ Hab. 3:4, margin. fruit every month, and the leaves of the tree are for the service of the nations. There are ever-flowing streams, clear as crystal, and beside them waving trees cast their shadows upon the paths prepared for the ransomed of the Lord. Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

I feel compelled to write to you, having just read your book “National Sunday Law” which some unknown person left in my newspaper box. All my life I’ve been searching for the truth. I’ve gone from church to church seeking, and I came away empty. I have prayed to God Almighty that if it was His will - the truth would be revealed to me. I have read and studied my Bible and have done research in ancient history. I discovered that all that you have written in your book is the truth! I cannot tell you how much joy I feel to know and to bear witness to the pure truth! I am not alone. I now know that the seventh day is God’s true Sabbath day! “God’s day” - and the Good Lord has brought me through! I thank God that I found you, who bear witness to the truth. I cannot contain the happiness I feel; the joy! I will seek to link up with those who keep God’s Sabbath and all the commandments of God. I have an unquenchable thirst for truth, and the love of God, our most loving and merciful Creator. I pray that your book will spread out around the entire world and true Christians will turn back to Christ! The truth will set us “free!” God bless you!
Yours in Christ, Velma

Dear Sirs:

Someone gave me your book “National Sunday Law.” I read it two times and I see that this book has information that should be made known to our whole nation!!! I want to get many more of them to send to people! From what I hear in the news, it appears that we are about to enter the great tribulation instigated by Rome. I want more information!
Sincerely, F. Moore

With undimmed vision they gaze upon the glory of creation—suns and stars and systems, all in their appointed order circling the throne of Deity. Upon all things, from the least to the greatest, the Creator’s name is written, and in all are the riches of His power displayed.

“And the years of eternity, as they roll, will bring richer and still more glorious revelations of God and of Christ... The more men learn of God, the greater will be their admiration of His character. Dear author of “National Sunday Law,”

I just finished your book. I truly believe God sent you to save his people. I grew up in the Baptist church. I finally stopped going because the church people were acting like the devil. I’m going to tell everyone in the Sunday church what I’ve found in your book! My fiancée is with me all the way on my journey closer to God. I truly believe that God has sent you. I’m ordering more “National Sunday Law” books to pass out to all the churches in my area. Many people will finally open their eyes and wake from their sleep to follow God’s love and his law, not man’s law. You will always be in my prayers. I can’t wait until we will meet each other in heaven. May God be with you always and forever. Amen. John
