Dear SDA friends around the world,

Live forever! Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Our kind Father doesn't want people to burn up in the plagues, or burn to ashes in the fire of hell, but to live with Him, happy forever. Will they choose Him?

The above text brings to view God's infinite love and almighty power. The Bible says, "There is no searching of His understanding." Is our kind Father and dear Jesus strong enough to save you from all sin and from eternal death? Is He strong enough and wise enough to use you to help save souls?

He spoke the universe into existence. The blackness of empty space goes on in all directions forever. If you could go at infinite speed, you'd still go on forever and never get to the end - for there is no end. Yet, God is so great that His presence fills it all, and the endless infinity of space cannot hold Him. He can do anything He desires. He controls every electron and sub-atomic particle in the universe, and holds each one in its orbit. He knows where all of them have ever been, where they are now, and where every one of them will ever be - forever. Forever in the past, He has always known every thought and every word that everyone who will ever live, will ever think or say - forever. Nothing can surprise Him. He has forever known everything about everything, and thus, He never has had, and never will have - a problem. God has always been, and forever will be - the same. He never had a beginning. He always was.

“Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God... For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night... O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days... And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.” Ps. 90:1-4; 14-17.

And what is He like, who never had a beginning but always was? “God is love.” I John 4:16. Before one atom was ever made, He knew everything that would ever happen - forever. Dear Jesus forever knew that He would rise from the dead after taking on human nature - which the sins of the world would crush out - on the cross of Calvary. But in His infinite love and wisdom - knowing everything - He made everyone and everything the way He made them, because - “His work is perfect” - that through His own life, and suffering, and blood, the loyal universe will eternally share His everlasting joy - forever. “He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he.” Deut. 32:4. Praise God!

Dear Pastor Jan,
My brother died of cancer. Before his death, he was baptized. His conversion went to the time when someone gave me a “National Sunday Law” book which I shared with him. It’s really something how one little book can lead to so many things. Take care! Elder D.W.

Faith: So down here in the end of the world, what does the Blackbird have to do with anything?
Pastor Jan: Let’s look for a minute at the physical world. A former Air Force pilot tells about it. He said - “Following an attack on American soldiers in Berlin, the President of the United States ordered the bombing of Muammar Qaddafi’s terrorist camps in Libya. My duty was to fly over Libya, and take photographs.

“Qaddafi had established a ‘line of death,’ a territorial marking across the Gulf of Sidra, swearing to shoot down any intruder that crossed the boundary. On the morning of April 15, I rocketed past that line at 2,125 mph.

“I was piloting the SR-71 spy plane, the world’s fastest jet, accompanied by a Marine Major (Walt), the aircraft’s reconnaissance systems officer (RSO). We had crossed into Libya, and were approaching our final turn over the bleak desert landscape, when Walt informed me that he was receiving missile launch signals.

“I quickly increased our speed, calculating the time it would take for the

To whom it may concern,
My sister sent me the book “National Sunday Law.” It was astounding! The author did his homework. What’s happening leading to the national Sunday law and the worship of the beast is a fearful thing that people need to understand! I want to send this book to a friend whose family is Catholic. Thank you. E.M.

surface-to-air missiles - capable of Mach 5 - to reach our altitude. I estimated that we could beat the rocket-powered missiles to the turn, and we stayed our course, betting our lives on the plane's performance.

"After several agonizingly long seconds, we made the turn and blasted toward the Mediterranean. 'You might want to pull it back,' Walt suggested. It was then that I noticed I still had the throttles full forward.

"The plane was flying a mile every 1.6 seconds, well above our Mach 3.2 limit. It was the fastest we would ever fly. I pulled the throttles to idle just south of Sicily, but though idling, we still overran the refueling tanker, awaiting us over Gibraltar...

"Aircraft such as the F-86 Sabre Jet, and the P-51 Mustang, are among the important machines that have flown our skies. But the SR-71, also known as the Blackbird, has stood alone as the fastest plane ever...

"After the Soviets shot down Gary Powers' U-2 in 1960, they began to develop an aircraft that would fly three miles higher, and five times faster, and still be capable of photographing your license plate.

"However, flying at more than 2,000 mph would create intense heat on the aircraft's skin. Lockheed engineers used a titanium alloy to construct more than 90 percent of the SR-71, creating special tools, and manufacturing procedures to hand-build each of the 40 planes. Special heat-resistant fuel, oil, and hydraulic fluids, that would function at 85,000 feet, and higher, also had to be developed.

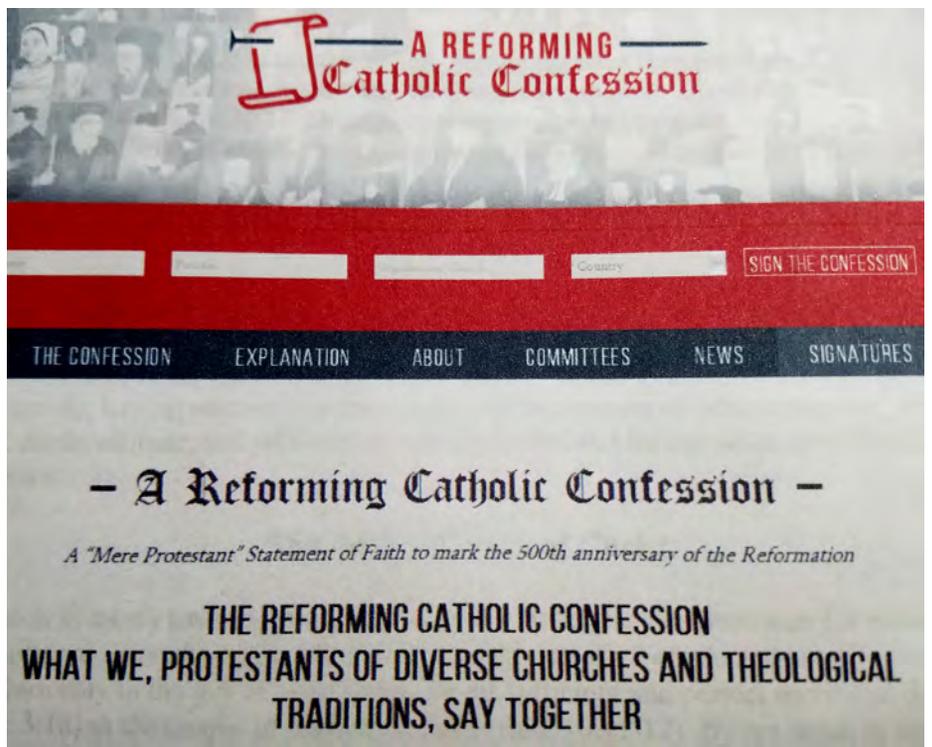

"In 1962, the first Blackbird successfully flew, and in 1966, the same year I graduated from high school, the Air Force began flying SR-71 missions...

"Walt would ride four feet behind me, working all the cameras, radios, and electronic jamming equipment. On a typical training mission, we would take off near Sacramento, refuel over Nevada, accelerate into Montana, obtain a high Mach speed over Colorado, turn right over New Mexico, speed across the Los Angeles Basin, run up the West Coast, turn right at Seattle, WA, then return to Beale in CA - all in two hours and forty minutes.

"The Blackbird always showed us something new, each aircraft possessing its own unique personality. In time, we realized we were flying a national treasure. Cars and people congregated near the airfield fences, because everyone wanted to see and hear the mighty SR-71. One moonless night, while flying a routine training mission over the Pacific, I wondered what the sky would look like from 84,000 feet, if the cockpit lighting were dark. While heading home on a straight course, I slowly turned down all of the lighting, revealing the night sky. Within seconds, I turned the lights back up, fearful that the jet would know, and somehow punish me. But my desire to see the sky overruled my caution, and I dimmed the lighting again. To my amazement, I saw a bright light outside my window. As my eyes adjusted to the view, I realized that the brilliance was the broad expanse of the Milky Way, now a gleaming stripe across the sky.

"Where dark spaces in the sky had usually existed, there were now dense clusters of sparkling stars. Shooting Stars flashed across the canvas every few seconds. It was like a fireworks display with no sound. I knew I had to get my eyes back on the instruments, and reluctantly, I brought my attention back inside. To my surprise, with the cockpit lighting still off, I could see every gauge, lit by starlight. I stole one last glance out the window.

Despite our speed, we seemed to be standing still before the heavens, humbled in the radiance of a much greater Power. For those few moments, I felt a part of something far more significant than anything we were doing in the plane. The sharp sound of Walt's voice on the radio brought me back to the tasks at hand as I prepared for our descent.

The tricky thing is here - <http://reformingcatholicconfession.com/>

<http://reformingcatholicconfession.com/signatures/>

This website reveals that 1,235 "Protestant" ministers and church leaders signed this "unity" document. It's broad in its implications! This 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation gives Satan a better chance to do his thing. The bottom line of this document is to trick Protestants into thinking that we are all catholics now - all one - in order to stop God's people from getting His mighty 3rd angel's message to the people - because that divine message lovingly exposes the evils of the beast power - including Sunday = its "mark." Will you and I be stopped?

One section is entitled, "THE CHALLENGE TO BE PROTESTANT: FROM REFORMATION TO "REFORMING CATHOLIC." <http://reformingcatholicconfession.com/explanation>

The word "Babylon" means "confusion." And this tricky document will make some people confused concerning whether or not they are "catholic," unless they thoroughly understand Rev. 13, 14, 17, 18, and the last 5 chapters of Great Controversy.

This year marks the 500th year since the beginning of the Protestant Reformation. The document says that now, we are all "catholic." How could 1,235 "Protestant" ministers and church leaders be tricked into signing it, including two [redacted] ministers - one of them, a professor of theology at Andrews University? The documentation reveals that it is called a "catholic" confession because it says - "It is important to reclaim the word, 'catholic.' It says, "We want Protestants to understand that when they are true to their own heritage, and their own roots, they are 'catholic' also."

The tenor of the crooked thing is that 1) the Reformation is at an end. 2) There are no real Protestants anymore who protest against the corruptions of Rome. 3) Since we are all catholics now, there will be no more fighting or disagreements, but "peace, peace..."

Rome knows that this delightfully evil thing is a big step in her fight toward 1) moving degraded "Protestants" into acknowledging the "man of sin" {2 Thess. 2:3,4} sitting in the Vatican - as the head of the one "catholic" {universal} church. And 2) toward preparing the way for Rome's "mark" [Sunday] to be enforced by law - since we are all catholics now. This great unity movement is a powerful force in moving everyone to go along with the catholic mark of the beast because anyone who resists this great, joyful "unity" will be viewed as schismatic, and dangerous troublemakers who are holding up the conversion of the world, and the ushering in of the long expected millennium. Watch closely - "Papists, Protestants, and worldlings will alike accept the form of godliness without the power, and they will see in this union a grand movement for the conversion of the world and the ushering in of the long-expected millennium." GC 588,589.

"When this [unity] shall be gained, then, in the effort to secure complete uniformity, it will be only a step to the resort to force. [The Sunday law.]

"When the leading churches of the United States, uniting upon such points of doctrine as are held by them in common [as is attempted in this "catholic" unity document] shall influence the state to enforce their decrees and to sustain their institutions, then Protestant America will have formed an image of the Roman hierarchy, and the infliction of civil penalties upon dissenters will inevitably result." GC 444.

“The SR-71 kept watch over every Soviet Nuclear Submarine and Mobile Missile Site, and all of their troop movements. I am proud to say that I flew about 500 hours in this aircraft. I knew her well. She gave way to no plane, proudly dragging her Sonic Boom through enemy backyards with great impunity. She defeated every missile, outran every MiG, and always brought us home.

“The Blackbird had outrun nearly 4,000 missiles, not once taking a scratch from enemy fire. On her final flight, the Blackbird, destined for the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum, sped from Los Angeles to Washington D.C. in 64 minutes. It averaged 2,145 mph, and set four speed records.” [The Blackbird went so fast that if it came above people at treetop level, the supershock would throw everyone to the ground and destroy their eardrums. From then on, they would all be deaf. Now they have something better, more powerful, and twice as fast - going over 4,000 mph.]

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

I am very grateful to get your book "National Sunday Law." I've grown up in the Presbyterian church for 36 years without comprehending the prophecies explained in your book. It's most surprising to learn about God's holy Sabbath day being on Saturday, the seventh-day of the week. May the good Lord forgive me for being prejudiced against God's Sabbath-keepers in the past, and even arguing against them. Now that I know the truth, I have become a Seventh-day Adventist! [Praise the Lord!] My wife and four children have also become Seventh-day Adventists with me! Now my desire is to share this truth and the soon coming of Jesus with everyone I can! Please send us more "National Sunday Law" books to help us do this. Yours in the service of the Lord, D.K.

Pastor Jan: If you saw such a thing as the Blackbird flying, it would symbolize someone putting forth all-out effort to save a soul from suffering and death. When I see a speeding, racing ambulance, with siren screaming, it brings tears to my eyes. It represents the all-out effort of our kind Father and dear Jesus to save you, me, and everyone who will, from Satan's insane power, and take you to heaven - outrunning every missile the devil can throw.

After the leader of Lybia "had established a 'line of death,'" the Blackbird "rocketed past that line at 2,125 mph." After Satan "had established a 'line of death,'" dear Jesus "rocketed past that line" and went into the heart of the enemy to save you and me from the fire of hell.

Nearly 4,000 missiles were hurled at the Blackbird - rising from their pads and screaming up to the Blackbird's elevation - accelerating to over 3,500 mph. But before they got to her at 85,000 feet, she had escaped. The lovely Jesus went as a tiny baby - into the heart of the enemy's land - lying on some hay in a barn, with cows, Satan, and his angels looking at Him.

When Walt told the pilot of receiving signals of missile launches, he pushed the throttles all the way forward. He pushed them as far as they would go. And the mighty, roaring engines gave it all they had. When dear Jesus saw the enemy firing missiles of death at every soul, He pushed the throttles all the way forward. He mashed them to the floor!!!

“The spotless Son of God hung upon the cross, His flesh lacerated with stripes; those hands so often reached out in blessing, nailed to the wooden bars; those feet so tireless on ministries of love, spiked to the tree; that royal head pierced by the crown of thorns; those quivering lips shaped to the cry of woe. And all that He endured—the blood drops that flowed from His head, His hands, His feet, the agony that racked His frame, and the unutterable anguish that filled His soul at the hiding of His Father's face—speaks to each child of humanity, declaring, It is for thee that the Son of God consents to bear this burden of guilt; for thee He spoils the domain of death, and opens the gates of Paradise. He who made devils tremble and disease flee, who opened blind eyes and called forth the dead to life,—offers Himself upon the cross as a sacrifice, and this from love to thee. He, the Sin Bearer, endures the wrath of divine justice, and for thy sake becomes sin itself. [The prophet of God said that. Dear Jesus gave it all He had. He "became sin." He was the Snake on the pole that Moses lifted up. John 3:14-16. He turned into "sin itself." Your sin. My sin. There it is! There's your "Sin," hanging on the cross of Calvary. Look at It! Your "Sin" hung there - and it died. Wonderful Jesus!]

“In silence the beholders watched for the end of the fearful scene. The sun shone forth; but the cross was still enveloped in darkness... Suddenly the gloom lifted from the cross, and in clear, trumpetlike tones, that seemed to resound throughout creation, Jesus cried, ‘It is finished.’ ‘Father, into Thy hands I commend My spirit.’ [The throttle is on the floor.] A light encircled the cross, and the face of the Saviour shone with a glory like the sun. He then bowed His head upon His breast, and died.

“Amid the awful darkness, apparently forsaken of God, Christ had drained the last dregs in the cup of human woe. In those dreadful hours He had relied upon the evidence of His Father's acceptance heretofore given Him. He was acquainted with the character of His Father; He understood His justice, His mercy, and His great love. By faith He rested in Him whom it had ever been His joy to obey. And as in submission He committed Himself to God, the sense of the loss of His Father's favor was withdrawn. By faith, Christ was victor. [Praise God!]

“Never before had the earth witnessed such a scene. The multitude stood paralyzed, and with bated breath gazed upon the Saviour. Again darkness settled upon the earth, and a hoarse rumbling, like heavy thunder, was heard. There was a violent earthquake. The people were shaken together in heaps. The wildest confusion and consternation ensued. In the surrounding mountains, rocks were rent asunder, and went crashing down into the plains. Sepulchers were broken open, and the dead were cast out of their tombs. Creation seemed to be shivering to atoms. Priests, rulers, soldiers, executioners, and people, mute with terror, lay prostrate upon the ground.

“When the loud cry, ‘It is finished,’ came from the lips of Christ, the priests were officiating in the temple. It was the hour of the evening sacrifice. The lamb representing Christ had been brought to be slain. Clothed in his significant and beautiful dress, the priest stood with lifted knife, as did Abraham when he was about to slay his son. With intense interest the people were looking on. But the earth trembles and quakes; for the Lord Himself draws near. With a rending noise the inner veil of the temple is torn from top to bottom by an unseen hand, throwing open to the gaze of the multitude a place once filled with the presence of God... The most

Dear Mrs. Jan Marcussen,

I'm assuming that you are a lady. I just read your book, "National Sunday Law," and I know that what you have written is the truth! Before I read the book, I had no clue of these things, but after I read it, I look around and see things happening in society that substantiate what the book says! I want to personally thank you. May God richly bless you. V.E.

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

After reading your book "National Sunday Law," I feel tremendously enlightened. I feel like a gigantic cloud has been blown away from me by the great truths that you brought to my eyes and my conscience! I can't remember when I was so spiritually stimulated and affected by any literary work. I want to tell you "Thank you" from the bottom of my heart! I have a thirst for truth. As a result of the book "National Sunday Law," I have met with my friends, and have shared with them the facts of God's true seventh-day Sabbath. I have a tremendous peaceful, contented feeling. Reading your book has changed my life. It is my intention to let others know about your wonderful book! God bless you and thank you! Your brother in Christ, Richard holy place of the earthly sanctuary is no longer sacred.

“All is terror and confusion. The priest is about to slay the victim; but the knife drops from his nerveless hand, and the lamb escapes. Type has met antitype in the death of God’s Son. The great sacrifice has been made. The way into the holiest is laid open. A new and living way is prepared for all. No longer need sinful, sorrowing humanity await the coming of the high priest. Henceforth the Saviour was to officiate as priest and advocate in the heaven of heavens. It was as if a living voice had spoken to the worshipers: There is now an end to all sacrifices and offerings for sin. The Son of God is come according to His word... ‘By His own blood’ He entereth ‘in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.’ Heb 10:7; 9:12.” DA 755-757. Praise God!

Again, dear Jesus is going to push the throttle to the floor in His all-out effort to reach the world with His 3rd angel’s message. The devil has drawn a line of death to try to stop that message. We “rocket past it” with the word of God!

Faith: Here in the 500th year since the beginning of the Reformation, what is Satan’s line of death? Is it his girlfriend?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - “Let it be remembered, it is the boast of Rome that she never changes. The principles of...

Pope Innocent III are still the principles of the Roman Catholic Church.” GC 580. Here they come - “[Rome] does not, and cannot accept, or in any degree favour liberty.” Catholic World, April, 1870.

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I’m incarcerated in prison. My friend who was in the cell with me went home and left some of your newsletters and the book “National Sunday Law.” I read that book, and it is awesome! The book is scriptural and easy to understand. I’ve been sharing it with others! In prison, you’re surrounded with all kinds of religions - Muslims, Catholics, Baptists, etc. It’s very rare that you get accurate truth like “National Sunday Law.” It lines up with the Bible. I thank you for not holding back the truth and for exposing Satan and his work! May God bless you and your family. In Jesus’ name, M.W.

bloodshed.” Father Hecker, Catholic World. July, 1870.

“The Jesuits are a military organization. Their chief is a general of an army, not the mere father abbot of a monastery. And the aim of this organization is—POWER. Power in its most despotic exercise. Absolute power, universal power, power to control the world by the volition of a single man. Jesuitism is the most absolute of despotisms; and at the same time the greatest and the most enormous of abuses.” Memorial of the Captivity of Napoleon at St. Helena, by General Montholon, vol. ii, page 62.

“Wherever the Jesuits are admitted they will be masters, cost what it may. Their society is by nature dictatorial, and therefore, it is the irreconcilable enemy of all constituted authority. Every act, every crime, however atrocious, is a meritorious work, if committed for the interest of the Society of the Jesuits, or by the order of its General.” Memorial of the Captivity of Napoleon at St. Helena, vol. ii, page 174.

Pastor Jan: Our Lord Jesus loves the dear Roman Catholic people so much that He is working to get them out of there before this happens -

“And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all... for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.” Rev. 18:21,23,24. Notice the word “all.”

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I don’t know if you are a man or a woman, but it doesn’t matter. I thank you with my heart for being open to our Lord in writing the book “National Sunday Law.” Something awesome happened. I was reading Isaiah 58:11-14, concerning those who uphold God’s Sabbath being the “repairers of the breach.” I didn’t understand it until I found your book “National Sunday Law” on my car in a parking lot. Praise God! Now I see that repairing the breach is what you are doing. You are repairing the breach made in God’s broken law by repairing and restoring God’s Sabbath in the minds of the people. After this, I started to notice that everything seemed wrong in my Sunday church. I heard down inside me the word, “Separate!” I told some of the people there about God’s Bible Sabbath, and they looked at me like I was crazy. I realized that sometimes you have to stand alone for God. [But you’re never really alone.] I would like to have truck-loads of your books to give to others! In Jesus’ name, Rita W.

deceives. And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.” Rev. 18:21,23,24. Notice the word “all.”

Here comes a guided missile - “If Satan sees that he is in danger of losing one soul, he will exert himself to the utmost to keep that one. And when the individual is aroused to his danger, and, with distress and fervor, looks to Jesus for strength, Satan fears that he will lose a captive, and he calls a reinforcement of his angels to hedge in the poor soul, and form a wall of darkness around him, that heaven’s light may not reach him. But if the one in danger perseveres, and in his helplessness casts himself upon the merits of the blood of Christ, our Saviour listens to the earnest prayer of faith, and sends a reinforcement of those angels that excel in strength to deliver him. Satan cannot endure to have his powerful rival appealed to, for he fears and trembles before His strength and majesty. At the sound of fervent prayer, Satan’s whole host trembles. [Praise God!] He continues to call legions of evil angels to accomplish his object. But when angels, all-powerful, clothed with the armory of heaven, come to the help of the fainting, pursued soul, Satan and his host fall back, well knowing that their battle is lost.” 1T 345,346. [Praise God!]

“Hope thou in God, for on Calvary’s cross a complete sacrifice was offered for you... Eternal joy—a life of undimmed happiness—awaits the one who surrenders all to Christ.” HP 262. “When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Dear Pastor Jan,

Greetings! I grew up as a Roman Catholic. Now I’ve accepted God’s Sabbath truth and have been distributing your book “National Sunday Law.” One of my friends told me that I am a demon for abandoning the pope and the Catholic faith, and that I should be treated as a heretic! The first thing that came to my mind was the dark ages. History will repeat itself. I thank God and Jesus for giving me His Spirit to give God’s truth in your book to others, and to be a soldier in the army of Jesus Christ. May God bless you! Your Brother in Jesus Christ, L.C.

“Satan is working by every deception he can command, in order that we may not discern God’s love. He will lead us to think that our mistakes and transgressions have been so grievous that the Lord will not have respect unto our prayers and will not bless and save us. In ourselves we can see nothing but weakness, and Satan tells us that it is of no use; we cannot remedy our defects of character... But we may tell the enemy that ‘the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin.’ 1 Jn. 1:7. [Praise God!] The sinless One has taken our place. He

Dear Miss Jan Marcussen,
Wow! What an incredible book! Praise God!!
“National Sunday Law” is a blessing! I’m overjoyed at what I learned from it, so much that I have to write and say “Thank you” for writing such an enlightening and outstanding book. You are a blessing from God to many of us who desire to understand God’s word. What a great book! May the Holy Spirit continue to bless you.

1) You may make copies of this letter for others. In color would be the best. If you do, someone will be in heaven who would have been lost.

2) We now have 25% of what we need to reach another million souls in the rural routes surrounding Washington D.C. in the great 100 Million Man March. If our kind Father impresses you to help us reach this goal, mark it below.

3) I will still give all 16 CCA DVDs free to all who get 1000 NSL preachers to help save souls for a donation of 49¢ each with free shipping in the U.S. God’s people are having us to bulk mail them, and they’re also putting them on doorsteps, sidewalks, benches, parking lots, laundromats, restrooms, and any place people sit, walk, wait, or go. God gets all the praise.

4) “Come join our happy crew, we’re bound for Canaan’s shore. The Captain says there’s room for you! - and room for millions more.”

Mark the things you want free because you are getting NSL preachers for soul-winning. Please send me one of Pastor Jan’s series on “The 144,000” __, or, DVD # __ on the life of Jesus __, or DVD # __ on the book of Revelation __ because I’m getting 100 NSLs for soul-winning for a donation of 59¢ each with free shipping in the U.S. __. Please send me all 16 CCA DVDs - {exposing how Rome is attacking God’s SDA church} - free, because I’m getting 1000 NSL preachers for a donation of 49¢ each with free shipping in the U.S. __.
