The action of the water upon the lime adds fury to the intense heat, and causes earthquakes, volcanoes, and fiery issues. As the fire and water come in contact with ledges of rock and ore, there are heavy explosions underground, which sound like muffled thunder. The air is hot and suffocating. Volcanic eruptions follow; and these often failing to give sufficient vent to the heated elements, the earth itself is convulsed, the ground heaves and swells like the waves of the sea, great fissures appear, and sometimes cities, villages, and burning mountains are swallowed up. These wonderful manifestations will be more and more frequent and terrible just before the second coming of Christ and the end of the world, as signs of its speedy destruction." PP 108,109.

Nowhere to hide 'We can't save you,' governor warns

What will it be like the day that probation for the world closes?

shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

"... In the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall." Isa. 30:25.

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Live forever! Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: The prophet said, "Probation is closing." LDE 24. Are you going to give us a tiny hint as to what it will be like on that very day?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

“As it was... so shall it be.” Luke 17:26.

““God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually... The earth also was corrupt before God; and the earth was filled with violence.” Gen. 6:13.

“The wickedness of men was open and daring, justice was trampled in the dust, and the cries of the oppressed reached unto heaven...”

“Neither the marriage relation nor the rights of property were respected. [As now.] Whoever coveted the wives or the possessions of his neighbor, took them by force, and men exulted in their deeds of violence. To get it done now, many use demon possessed lawyers who’ve been trained in the Jesuit system of law as in the “Gonzaga Law Review” from Jesuit Gonzaga University. The Jesuits are now discussing 1) cloning people by splitting human embryos open and tinkering with them, and, 2) a mother’s right to rent out her womb for a fee. [www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov Since the devil himself can’t appear and do it, he uses his trained Jesuit avatars.]

“God would blot them from His creation, and would destroy the things with which He had delighted to bless them; He would sweep away the beasts of the field, and the vegetation which furnished such an abundant supply of food, and would transform the fair earth into one vast scene of desolation and ruin... [Our kind Father will do it soon again, for the prophet said, “Probation is closing.” LDE 24.]

“Many at first appeared to receive the warning; yet they did not turn to God with true repentance. They were unwilling to renounce their sins. During the time that elapsed before the coming of the Flood, their faith was tested, and they failed to endure the trial. Overcome by the prevailing unbelief, they finally joined their former associates in rejecting the solemn message. Some were deeply convicted, and would have heeded the words of warning; but there were so many to jest and ridicule, that they partook of the same spirit, resisted the invitations of mercy, and were soon among the boldest and most defiant scoffers; for none are so reckless and go to such lengths in sin as do those who have once had light, but have resisted the convicting Spirit of God...”

On the day probation closes, there will exist the demon possessed “Celebration Church” in which “every uncouth thing will be demonstrated. [Notice the word, “every.”] There will be shouting, with drums, music, and dancing. [You’ve seen it on the 16 part CCA DVD series.] The senses of rational beings will become so confused that they cannot be trusted to make right decisions...

“God’s work is ever characterized by calmness and dignity.” 2SM 42.

On the day that probation closes, sodomites will be creeping around. I’ve learned that certain leaders [agents of Rome among them] are working to trick God’s people into baptizing them in preparation for ordaining them to the ministry. Already, certain college professors & ministers are openly building up the sodomites for it in the minds of pastors and church members.

“But Noah stood like a rock amid the tempest. [Praise God!] Surrounded by popular contempt and ridicule, he distinguished himself by his holy integrity and unwavering faithfulness. A power attended his words, for it was the voice of God to man through His servant. Connection with God made him strong in the strength of infinite power, while for one hundred and twenty years his solemn voice fell upon the ears of that generation in regard to events, which, so far as human wisdom could judge, were impossible...”

“But upon the eighth day dark clouds overspread the heavens. There followed the muttering of thunder and the flash of lightning. Soon large drops of rain began to fall. The world had never witnessed anything like this, and the hearts of men were struck with fear. All were secretly inquiring, ‘Can it be that Noah was in the right, and that the world is doomed to destruction?’ Darker and darker grew the heavens, and faster came the falling rain. The beasts were roaming about in the wildest terror, and their discordant cries seemed to moan out their own destiny and the fate of man. Then ‘the fountains of the great deep’ were ‘broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.’ Water appeared to come from the clouds in mighty cataracts. Rivers broke away from their boundaries, and overflowed the valleys. Jets of water burst from the earth with indescribable force, throwing massive rocks hundreds of feet into the air, and these, in falling, buried themselves deep in the ground.

“The people first beheld the destruction of the works of their own hands... [It happened in the fires of the west, in mighty Hurricanes of death through Carribean Islands, Houston, Florida, with destruction again coming to the world.]

“As the violence of the storm increased, trees, buildings, rocks, and earth were hurled in every direction. The terror of man and beast was beyond description. Above the roar of the tempest was heard the wailing of a people that had despised the authority of God. Satan himself, who was compelled to remain in the midst of the warring elements, feared for his own existence. [Look at the fiend - being held down in the howling chaos by the angels of God!]

Raw meat on the day that probation closes. They’re doing it even now. “They delighted in destroying the life of animals; and the use of flesh for food rendered them still more cruel and bloodthirsty, [as now] until they came to regard human life with astonishing indifference.” PP 91. “And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.” Rev. 13:15. They’ll pass the death decree on God’s dear people with the kind of glee that 25,000 shouting slaves - with the demons of hell, and a can of beer - pack the stadium to see the horrible fight.

On the day that probation closes, Satan will be giving his slaves supernatural powers.

He had delighted to control so powerful a race, and desired them to live to practice their abominations and continue their rebellion against the Ruler of heaven. He now uttered imprecations against God, charging Him with injustice and cruelty. Many of the people, like Satan, blasphemed God, and had they been able, they would have torn Him from the throne of power. Others were frantic with fear, stretching their hands toward the ark and pleading for admittance... Conscience was at last aroused to know that there is a God who ruleth in the heavens. In that terrible hour they saw that the transgression of God's law had caused their ruin...

"Some in their desperation endeavored to break into the ark, but the firm-made structure withstood their efforts.

Some clung to the ark until they were borne away by the surging waters, or their hold was broken by collision with rocks and trees. The massive ark trembled in every fiber as it was beaten by the merciless winds and flung from billow to billow. The cries of the beasts within expressed their fear and pain. But amid the warring elements it continued to ride safely. Angels that excel in strength were commissioned to preserve it.

"From the highest peaks men looked abroad upon a shoreless ocean. The solemn warnings of God's servant no longer seemed a subject for ridicule and scorn. How those doomed sinners longed for the opportunities they had slighted! How they pleaded for one hour's probation, one more privilege of mercy, one call from the lips of Noah! But the sweet voice of mercy was no more to be heard by them. Love, no less than justice, demanded that God's judgments should put a check on sin. The avenging waters swept over the last retreat, and the despisers of God perished in the black depths...

Dear Amazing Truth;

I am grateful to God for Jan Marcussen. His book "National Sunday Law" revives slumbering "Protestants" from their carnal security. The author's emphasis on love for the people and hate for the sin resounds through its pages. Its message is just like the messages the Apostles would give: powerful, conscience awakening, biblical, and Spirit filled. From reading it, the Lord JESUS filled my heart with unutterable joy! It's a must read for anyone who wants the truth of God! R.D.

Dear Amazing Truth,

This book, "National Sunday Law" has amazing insights that the media neglects to reveal. For any serious Bible student this is highly recommended reading! It covers long forgotten subjects by the Christian world that seriously undermine many of its modern beliefs. I found the frankness and accuracy quite startling. I commend the writer for sticking his neck out and revealing this truth in such a politically correct world. This book is for the thinking individual. I highly recommend it! "In their hatred and cruelty toward the disciples of Jesus they rejected the last offer of mercy. Then God withdrew His protection from them, and the nation was left to the control of the leader she had chosen... There was no safety anywhere. Friends and kindred betrayed one another. Parents slew their children, and children their parents.

The rulers of the people had no power to rule themselves. Uncontrolled passions made them tyrants. The Jews had accepted false testimony to condemn the innocent Son of God. Now false accusations made their own lives uncertain. By their actions they had long been saying: 'Cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.' Isa 30:11. Now their desire was granted. [That desire will also be granted on the day that probation closes.] The fear of God no longer disturbed them. Satan was at the head of the nation.

"Signs and wonders appeared... In the midst of the night an unnatural light shone over the temple and the altar. Upon the clouds at sunset were pictured chariots and men of war gathering for battle. The priests ministering by night in the sanctuary were terrified by mysterious sounds; the earth trembled, and a multitude of voices were heard crying: 'Let us depart hence.' The great eastern gate, which was so heavy that it could hardly be shut by 20 men, and which was secured by immense bars of iron fastened deep in the pavement of solid stone, opened at midnight, without visible agency. Children would be seen snatching the food from the mouths of their aged parents. "The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,... and toward her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness, wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in thy gates.' Deut. 28:56,57...

"Titus would willingly have put an end to the fearful scene, and thus have spared Jerusalem the full measure of her doom. He was filled with horror as he saw the bodies of the dead lying in heaps in the valleys. Like one entranced, he looked from the crest of Olivet upon the magnificent temple and gave command that not one stone of it be touched.

Before attempting to gain possession of this stronghold, he made an earnest appeal to the Jewish leaders not to force him to defile the sacred place with blood... Josephus himself, in a most eloquent appeal, entreated them to surrender, to save themselves, their city, and their place of worship. But his words were answered with bitter curses. Darts were hurled at him, their last human mediator, as he stood pleading with them. The Jews had rejected the entreaties of the Son of God, and now entreaty only made them more determined to resist to the last. In vain were the efforts of Titus to save the temple; One greater than he had declared that not one stone was to be left upon another.

"The blind obstinacy of the Jewish leaders, and the detestable crimes perpetrated within the city, excited the horror and indignation of the Romans, and Titus at last decided to take the temple by storm. He determined, however, that if possible it should be saved from destruction. But his commands were disregarded. After he had retired to his tent at night, the Jews, sallying from the temple, attacked the soldiers without. In the struggle, a firebrand was flung by a soldier through an opening in the porch, and immediately the cedar-lined chambers about the holy house were in a blaze. Titus rushed to the place, followed by his generals and legionaries, and commanded the soldiers to quench the flames. His words were unheeded. In their fury the soldiers hurled blazing brands into the chambers adjoining the temple, and then with their swords they slaughtered in great numbers those who had found shelter there. Blood flowed down the temple steps like water. Thousands upon thousands perished. Above the sound of battle, voices were heard shouting: 'Ichabod!' - the glory is departed. [Their probation had closed.]

"Titus found it impossible to check the rage of the soldiery; he entered with his officers, and surveyed the interior of the sacred edifice. The splendor filled them with wonder; and as the flames had not yet penetrated to the holy place, he made a last effort to save it, and springing forth, again exhorted the soldiers to stay the progress of the conflagration. The centurion Liberalis endeavored to force obedience with his staff of office; but even respect for the emperor gave way to the furious animosity against the Jews, to the fierce excitement of battle, and to the insatiable hope of plunder. The soldiers saw everything around them radiant with gold, which shone dazzlingly in

Dear Pastor Jan,

We were sitting in church and a man walked up to the front. He held up a "National Sunday Law" book and said that it was because of this book that he is a Seventh-day Adventist. The congregation was amazed. May God be praised. T.C.

Greetings from CA!

The book "National Sunday Law" is opening the eyes of many many people. Many who were blind, deaf, and dumb have had a beam of light come into their minds. In my area, this book has caused Roman Catholics to leave all that Catholic stuff and keep God's seventh-day Sabbath holy. Some of them, as well as Sunday worshiping Protestants have now become Seventh-day Adventists! I was raised as a Roman Catholic myself. Now I too observe God's true Sabbath - Saturday, as it is in Jesus. Your brother and friend, Johnny

Dear Sir;

My husband and I read your book "National Sunday Law" and we haven't been the same since. Reading it woke us up! And praise God, we have been studying and searching God's word ever since. May God bless you. G.Y.

Dear Amazing Truth,

I asked God to lead me and use me. He guided me to get "National Sunday Law" books to distribute. Then I started receiving pastor Marcussen's monthly letter. It was then that I learned of the worldwide scope of his work! I realized that this book contains the issues for the last days, and that the people of the world need this book, to make them aware of these life and death issues! I want to help many people to know which side to be on when the mark of the beast is enforced! I have come to realize that the work which God wants me to do is to help distribute the "National Sunday Law" books to many people! Please send me pastor Marcussen's 16 part CCA DVD series. Thank you so much, and may God bless you. Sincerely, A.C.

the wild light of the flames; they supposed that incalculable treasures were laid up in the sanctuary. A soldier, unperceived, thrust a lighted torch between the hinges of the door: the whole building was in flames in an instant. The blinding smoke and fire forced the officers to retreat, and the noble edifice was left to its fate.

“It was an appalling spectacle to the Roman—what was it to the Jew? The whole summit of the hill which commanded the city, blazed like a volcano. One after another the buildings fell in, with a tremendous crash, and were swallowed up in the fiery abyss. The roofs of cedar were like sheets of flame; the gilded pinnacles shone like spikes of red light; the gate towers sent up tall columns of flame and smoke. The neighboring hills were lighted up; and dark groups of people were seen watching in horrible anxiety the progress of the destruction: the walls and heights of the upper city were crowded with faces, some pale with the agony of despair, others scowling unavailing vengeance. The shouts of the Roman soldiery as they ran to and fro, and the howlings of the insurgents who were perishing in the flames, mingled with the roaring of the conflagration and the thundering sound of falling timbers. The echoes of the mountains replied or brought back the shrieks of the people on the heights; all along the walls resounded screams and wailings; men who were expiring with famine rallied their remaining strength to utter a cry of anguish and desolation.

Dear Pastor Jan,

I had a NSL book sitting around my house but never read it. Last week I started reading it, and I couldn't put it down! It helped me and answered so many questions about Revelation. I fell away from the Lord for many years, but I always felt the impressions of the Holy Spirit to come back to God. Last week after reading your book, my life changed forever! I came back to God!! I feel comforted by God and His promises!

“The slaughter

within was even more dreadful than the spectacle from without. Men and women, old and young, insurgents and priests, those who fought and those who entreated mercy, were hewn down in indiscriminate carnage. The legionaries had to clamber over heaps of dead to carry on the work of extermination.

“After the destruction of the temple, the whole city soon fell into the hands of the Romans. The leaders of the Jews forsook their impregnable towers, and Titus found them solitary. He gazed upon them with amazement, and declared that God had given them into his hands; for no engines, however powerful, could have prevailed against those stupendous battlements. Both the city and the temple were razed to their foundations, and the ground upon which the holy house had stood was ‘plowed like a field.’ Jer. 26:18. In the siege and the slaughter that followed, more than a million of the people perished; the survivors were carried away as captives, sold as slaves, dragged to Rome to grace the conqueror's triumph, thrown to wild beasts in the amphitheaters, or scattered as homeless wanderers throughout the earth...

“We cannot know how much we owe to Christ for the peace and protection which we enjoy. [Come dear Jesus into our hearts!] It is the restraining power of God that prevents mankind from passing fully under the control of Satan. The disobedient and unthankful have great reason for gratitude for God's mercy and long-suffering in holding in check the cruel, malignant power of the evil one. But when men pass the limits of divine forbearance, that restraint is removed. [Then, their probation is closed. Now, “Probation is closing.” LDE 24.] God does not stand toward the sinner as an executioner of the sentence against transgression; but He leaves the rejectors of His mercy to themselves, to reap that which they have sown. [Then the devil attacks them with horrors and calamities, and makes them blame and hate God for it!]

“The Saviour's prophecy concerning the visitation of judgments upon Jerusalem is to have another fulfillment, of which that terrible desolation was but a faint shadow. In the fate of the chosen city we may behold the doom of a world that has rejected God's mercy and trampled upon His law...

“In the terrors of that day when the restraining Spirit of God shall be wholly withdrawn from the wicked, to no longer hold in check the outburst of human passion and satanic wrath, the world will then behold, as never before, the results of Satan's rule.

“But in that day, as in the time of Jerusalem's destruction, God's people will be delivered, [Praise God!] ‘everyone that shall be found written among the living. Isa 4:3.’ Come when it may, the day of God will come unawares to the ungodly. When life is going on in its unvarying round; when men are absorbed in pleasure, in business, in money-making; when religious leaders are magnifying the world's progress and enlightenment, and the people are lulled in a false security—then, as the midnight thief steals within the unguarded dwelling, so shall sudden destruction come upon the careless and ungodly, ‘and they shall not escape.’” GC 32-38.

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

My brother gave me your book “National Sunday Law.” I could not stop reading it! I was really shocked to learn that Rome was inspired by Satan to change God's Sabbath. I asked my family members what they thought about it. One of them accepted God's Sabbath. I've made my choice to be on the Lord's side and keep His Bible Sabbath no matter what my family does. I'm not afraid to die for the Lord. I want to commend you on your book. Though I'm only 14 years old, you have helped me to understand the book of Revelation. You really changed my way of seeing things! I'm sure that God will bless you. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.” Erika energies of apostasy were rallied against the Son of God. Christ was made the mark of every weapon of hell. [Wonderful Jesus!]

“From the time when He was a babe in Bethlehem, He was continually assailed by the evil one. The image of God was manifest in Christ, and in the councils of Satan it was determined that He should be overcome. No human being had come into the world and escaped the power of the deceiver. place where sin abounded, God’s grace much more abounds. The earth itself, the very field that Satan claims as his, is to be not only ransomed but exalted. Our little world, under the curse of sin, the one dark blot in His glorious creation, will be honored above all other worlds in the universe of God. Here, where the Son of God tabernacled in humanity; where the King of glory lived and suffered and died, - here, when He shall make all things new, the tabernacle of God shall be with men, ‘and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself shall be with them, and be their God.’ And through endless ages as the redeemed walk in the light of the Lord, they will praise Him for His unspeakable Gift, - Immanuel, ‘God with US.’” DA 26,27. Praise God friend! Praise God!

Announcements

1) You may make copies of this letter for others. In color would be the best. If you do, someone will be in heaven who would have been lost.

2) I’m scheduled to speak Sabbath, October 21 at the 11 o’clock hour, and again after the fellowship dinner, at the church in Colton, CA. The address is 850, Via Lata, Suite 108, Colton, CA. 92324. I will be presenting some of the latest things happening leading to the devil’s law by which the fiend plans to put God’s dear people to death. If you wish, bring something for the fellowship dinner. I will be giving away 1,000 little NSL preachers - for soul-winning - to divide among those present.

3) Those of you who know Bible prophecy, know that on October 22, it will be 173 years since Jesus moved into the Most Holy Place in the sanctuary in heaven to begin the judgment. All who get 1000 little NSL preachers this month for a donation of 49¢ each with free shipping in the U.S. will receive an extra box of 100 National Sunday Law books free. Please pray that someone will escape Satan’s kingdom of death, and live forever with dear Jesus in heaven!

4) We now have over 10% of what we need to reach another million souls in the rural routes surrounding Washington D.C. in the great 100 Million Man March. If our kind Father impresses you to help us reach this goal, mark it below.

5) “Come join our happy crew, we’re bound for Canaan’s shore. The Captain says there’s room for you! - and room for millions more.”

Mark the things you want free because you are getting NSL preachers for soul-winning. Please send me 100 extra NSL preachers free because I’m getting 1000 for a donation of 49¢ each with free shipping in the U.S. __. Please send me part one of the DVD series entitled, “The 144,000” because I’m getting at least one box of 100 NSL preachers for a donation of 59¢ each with free shipping in the U.S. __.
