

“Prepare war, wake up the mighty men...Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong. Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about... Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about. Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe... for their wickedness is great.

Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision... The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.”

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Can you read the license plate? This Cadillac is like the mighty angel of God who is lovingly protecting you. It has 1,000 horse power. Its windows are 5 inches thick. It has bullet-proof tires. It carries a doctor, night vision equipment, oxygen, and blood. It can withstand the force of an anti-tank weapon. Nothing can touch you without God's permission. Nothing! Praise God!

You've probably heard on the news that now North Korea has missiles that can go into orbit, go up over the North Pole, come down out of orbit, and hit many cities in the U.S. with nuclear bombs. Did you expect that? What does Bible prophecy have to do with it? How will it turn out?

Faith: The verse says, “Prepare war, wake up the mighty men... Beat your plowshares into swords.” The news shows that they're doing that. And it says, “Let the weak say, I am strong.” North Korea - while many of its poor people are starving - is doing that too. And it says, “Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe... for their wickedness is great.” And it says, “the heavens and the earth shall shake.” Will God's voice ever be heard in the roar of atomic bombs? Will He always prevent it?

Many of you are aware of the quote from the Supreme Jesuit General {the Black Pope} who told the Chinese emperor that from his room, he rules the world. You've also learned that the Vatican put the Jesuits in charge of the nation's education, and that “in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.” Rev. 18:24. So what will happen now? Will terrorism, like some giant octopus, engulf the world? Before the devil's law comes, will Jesuit education degrade the brains of the liberals enough for them to go along with it? And how will it all affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go.

U.S. racing to quash N. Korean nuke threat

Missile defense arsenal is being built on land, sea, air and space

Oren Dorell

USA TODAY

North Korea's rapid march to develop a nuclear-armed ballistic missile capable of striking the United States has spurred the U.S. military and Congress to ramp up efforts to counter the threat.

Faith: Rev. 18:24 reveals that Rome is behind “the blood” of “all that were slain upon the earth.” How does the work of Jesuit education fit into the whole picture of what’s happening on the way to the enforcement of the mark of the beast?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely -

The distinctiveness of a Jesuit education stems from its deep-rooted history and a mission grounded in faith and intellectual rigor. Since its beginnings in 1548 when the first Jesuit institution opened its doors in Messina, Sicily, Jesuit higher education remains committed to expansive and critical thinking, to service, leadership and to care for the whole person.

Jesuit higher education in the United States is one of the largest and strongest networks of private higher education institutions in the world. The 28 Jesuit colleges and universities are located in 18 states and the District of Columbia, and are independent yet united by their common heritage and mission.

The Society of Jesus, founded by Saint Ignatius of Loyola, was one of the first orders of educators within the Catholic Church. A Jesuit education is grounded in the liberal arts tradition with a focus on quality teaching, critical thinking and rigorous academic standards and scholarship. Today, U.S. Jesuit colleges and universities employ nearly 22,000 faculty members who continue the tradition of Ignatius.

Jesuit higher education is guided by a spirituality that seeks justice. Inspired by the tenets of Catholic social teaching and its intellectual and social justice traditions, a Jesuit education places great emphasis on forming “women and men for others,” that students are engaged in a process of exploring the ways in which their knowledge and talents will best serve society in the most distinctive and constructive ways.

Today, Jesuit institutions provide students with more than $1.3 billion in institutional aid – eight times what the federal government provides for Jesuit colleges and universities in federal grant aid. On average, 22 percent of our students receive federal aid in the form of Pell Grants.

Last year, more than 217,000 students were enrolled at Jesuit institutions of higher education on the undergraduate and graduate/professional levels. Reflective of their rich academic experience, students at Jesuit

Let's Face It: North Korean Nuclear Weapons Can Hit the U.S.

The New York Times, AUG. 3, 2017

The reality is that the United States is now vulnerable to North Korea's nuclear-armed missiles — and has no choice but to live with that reality. Trying to disarm a nuclear-armed North Korea would be madness, even if some politicians find that fact too emasculating to acknowledge. Since admitting our vulnerability is a humiliation, we simply close our eyes and pretend it isn't real.

According to the July 17 article in USA TODAY, the U.S. has 1) 768 Patriot Missiles with a 20 mile range. 2) Thousands of tank launched missiles with a range to 40 miles; 3) Sixteen high altitude air defense missiles with a range of 130 miles. 4) 296 Aegis SM-3 missiles which can go into space and intercept missiles which are also in space. 5) 180 Aegis SM-6 missiles on 35 ships with plans for 1,800 more. They have a range of 230 miles, and can knock down a missile shortly after it is launched. 6) 44 Ground Based Interceptor missiles which can destroy missiles which are in orbit in space. They are working on replacing these missiles with laser guns. 7) In development is the laser gun system which can be carried on drones 60,000 feet above North Korea, and destroy missiles in North Korea as they are taking off.

A person who puts his trust in missiles, guns, marshall arts, and force instead of in dear Jesus, will become a nervous wreck on his way to a heart attack. “And upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.” Luke 21:25-28.

colleges and universities have received Rhodes, Truman and Fulbright Scholarships.

Many distinguished graduates of Jesuit institutions have reached the highest levels in their fields, including former President Bill Clinton, scientist Anthony Fauci, journalist Maria Shriver, actor Denzel Washington and NBA Coach Glenn "Doc" Rivers. Descartes, Moliere and James Joyce were likewise shaped by their Jesuit education.

While some Jesuit alumni might be more recognizable than others, many share the distinction of using their education to serve and to lead. Of the roughly 1.9 million living alumni of Jesuit colleges and universities in the United States today, there are 54 members (10 percent) of the U.S. Congress, two members of the U.S. Supreme Court and more than 30 appointees in the current presidential administration. Countless more have assumed leadership positions as governors, mayors and judges.

Jesuit higher education provides students the opportunity to become thoughtful, competent, and compassionate men and women, with a commitment to the greater good and a passion for justice, preparing them for lives of leadership and service. It is through this distinctive mode of education that Jesuit colleges and universities are changing the world, one student at a time.

Faith: Now that we've seen a glimpse of the excellent Jesuit education, please show us a glimpse of how Jesuits have indirectly affected the brains of the students in public education - in fulfillment of Rome's goal to "regain control of the world," [including America] {GC 565,566} through the workings of the United Nations' division called UNESCO = the United Nations educational system - which has been imposed on the public schools - to degrade their brains; to one day, receive the mark of the beast. We've already learned that the UNESCO school program was inspired by the great Jesuit priest, Pierre Teilhard de Chardin.

Dear A. Jan Marcussen,

I grew up in the Church of Christ. That was all I knew. When older, I quit going to church altogether. Soon, I met a girl, like Eve with Adam, who convinced me to start taking dope. Then I got caught and went to jail. I asked my grandmother to go by my house and get the "National Sunday Law" book that had come in the mail and bring it to me. I read it in jail and then loaned it out to other inmates for them to read. Shortly, the book was in high demand! Many here want to know the truth, and when they get the book, they eat it up. It has been read so many times that the cover is about to fall off. Being in jail I have had the chance to get my mind back right. "National Sunday law" has really opened my eyes! So many men want the book that I told them to make copies of the whole thing on the copy machine. Now, after reading "National Sunday law," I will not go to church on Sunday anymore, but will start observing God's true Bible Sabbath. Thank you so much for opening my eyes to the truth of God! God bless you! Marcus B.

“Wickedness is reaching a height never before attained, and yet many ministers of the gospel are crying, ‘Peace and safety.’ But God’s faithful messengers are to go steadily forward with their work. Clothed with the panoply of heaven, they are to advance fearlessly and victoriously, never ceasing their warfare until every soul within their reach shall have received the message of truth for this time.” AA 220.

“The time of God’s destructive judgments is the time of mercy for those who have had no opportunity to learn what is truth. [Praise God!] Tenderly will the Lord look upon them. His heart of mercy is touched; His hand is still stretched out to save, while the door is closed to those who would not enter.” 9T 97.

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
I found your book "National Sunday Law" in my mail box. I was a Roman Catholic. Now, I am a Catholic no more! I have become a Seventh-day Adventist! Please send me your newsletter. I am passing the NSL book out to the people. Thank you. Irene New Jersey

“There are many who are reading the Scriptures who cannot understand their true import. All over the world men and women are looking wistfully to heaven. Prayers and tears and inquiries go up from souls longing for light... Many are on the verge of the kingdom, waiting only to be gathered in.” AA 109. [May our kind Father help us to reach them is my prayer!]

“There should be a well organized plan for the employment of workers to instruct the members how to labor for the upbuilding of the church, and also for unbelievers. It is training, education, that is needed. [Church members] should give the brethren and sisters instruction in practical methods of doing missionary work.” 9T 117.

There are a number of these “practical methods.” For church members who are bashful with strangers, who can’t very well knock on doors, you may teach them how bashful people can reach many with God’s saving 3 angels’ messages by laying the little NSL preachers where people will find them and pick them up. I found that to lay them face down is the best. Being face down, they don’t know what it is, and once it’s in their hand, they’re much more likely to take it home - where still others can read it. For people to find the NSL preachers, not knowing where they came from, will 1) arouse their curiosity, 2) help cause them to read it, 3) frustrate the devil’s plan to turn them off before they read it. And bashful people like us can do it because you don’t have to talk to anyone at their doors. Most people in their homes are fearful of strangers at the door, and prejudice against you as soon as they see your face. Then, they ask various questions about yourself, and turn themselves off. Getting the little preachers to them in a way that they don’t know where it came from gives holy angels a chance to make them so curious that they read it, and the devil can’t stop it!!! Let the fiend leap up and down! You’ve probably noticed that most of the people in these many testimony letters I show you got the book either from someone they know, or didn’t know where it came from.

Faith: So, when the devil thinks that he can get away with it, will the evil moron bring the Sunday law issue out into the open {in the media} and push it hard and fast to get the law passed as soon as possible?

Pastor Jan: Yes. Now, he’s holding the issue under the surface so that the virgins will continue to sleep as long as possible.

Hope: And when God’s faithful people resist the mark of the beast brought by that law, and honor God’s Bible Sabbath, will they receive the seal of God and then have the latter rain poured out upon them?

Pastor Jan: Yes.

Charity: And then will God’s three angels messages swell to a loud cry around the world until the whole world will make up their mind one way or the other?

Pastor Jan: Yes.

Faith: And then will probation for the world close and the seven last plagues be poured out upon the wicked?

Pastor Jan: Yes.

Hope: And then will the world see what our mighty God will do to protect His humble people from the economic boycott and death decree of Rev. 13:15-18 until Jesus appears in the sky with power and great glory?

Pastor Jan: Yes. Watch closely – “When the third angel’s message closes, mercy no longer pleads for the guilty inhabitants of the earth. The people of God have accomplished their work. They have received ‘the latter rain,’ ‘the refreshing from the presence of the Lord,’ and they are prepared for the trying hour before them. Angels are hastening to and fro in heaven. An angel returning from the earth announces that his work is done; the final test has been brought upon the world, and all who have proved themselves loyal to the divine precepts have received ‘the seal of the living God.’ Then Jesus ceases His intercession in the sanctuary above. He lifts His hands and with a loud voice says, ‘It is done;’ and all the angelic host lay off their crowns as He makes the solemn announcement: ‘He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.’ Rev 22:11. Every case has been decided for life or death. Christ has made the atonement for His people and blotted out their sins. The number of His subjects is made up; ‘the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven,’ is about to be given to the heirs of salvation, and Jesus is to reign as King of kings and Lord of lords.

Dear Sir,

It was Saturday when a man gave me a book called "National Sunday Law." Then he drove away. I read it 5 or 6 times. It changed my life! I grew up a Baptist, but there was always something missing deep down inside. I had no rest. After reading your book I searched for a church. I found a small, little church. Now I am a Seventh-day Adventist! I left everything - a large Sunday school, social events, everything. But I learned about God's Sabbath, [and His love], and I found peace of mind in Jesus. Thanks for your book! Don't get tired of working for God! C.P.

To Whom it may concern,
Wow! I was walking by the book cart and I stopped because something called out to me. It was the Holy Spirit in a faint voice saying, "Look!" And there was your book "National Sunday Law" calling out to me! I would have missed it. I just now finished reading it. It's amazing, and I'm going to share it with others! Thanks, and God bless you. Gerald Bell Florida

“When He leaves the sanctuary, darkness covers the inhabitants of the earth. In that fearful time the righteous must live in the sight of a holy God without an intercessor. The restraint which has been upon the wicked is removed, and Satan has entire control of the finally impenitent. God’s long-suffering has ended. The world has rejected His mercy, despised His love, and trampled upon His law. The wicked have passed the boundary of their probation; the Spirit of God, persistently resisted, has been at last withdrawn. Unsheltered by divine grace, they have no protection from the wicked one. Satan will then plunge the inhabitants of the earth into one great, final trouble. As the angels of God cease to hold in check the fierce winds of human passion, all the elements of strife will be let loose. [Notice the word, “all.” Until that time, our kind Father will not permit our nation to be “ruined” by nuclear bombs, or by anything else. But after probation closes, then this will happen -] The whole world will be involved in ruin more terrible than that which came upon Jerusalem of old...

“We should now acquaint ourselves with God by proving His promises... We should rather dispense with selfish gratifications than neglect communion with God. The deepest poverty, the greatest self-denial, with His approval, is better than riches, honors, ease, and friendship without it. We must take time to pray...

“Fearful sights of a supernatural character will soon be revealed in the heavens, in token of the power of miracle-working demons. The spirits of devils will go forth to the kings of the earth and to the whole world, to fasten them in deception, and urge them on to unite with Satan in his last struggle against the government of heaven. By these agencies, rulers and subjects will be alike deceived.

“When Christ ceases His intercession in the sanctuary, the unmingled wrath threatened against those who worship the beast and his image and receive his mark (Rev 14:9,10), will be poured out. The plagues upon Egypt when God was about to deliver Israel were similar in character to those more

“When at the foot of the cross the sinner looks up to the One who died to save him, he may rejoice with fulness of joy; for his sins are pardoned.” SD 222. Praise God friend! Praise God!

The prophet said, 1) “The Father has thrown open, not only all heaven, but all His heart, to those who manifest faith in the sacrifice of Christ.” ST 6/96.

2) “Can we comprehend the fact that we are beloved by the Father even as the Son is beloved? Could we indeed lay hold of this, we would indeed have the grace of Christ, the golden oil of heaven, poured into our poor, thirsty, parched souls.” ST 6/96.

3) “Ask what ye will in My name, and it shall be done unto you. In presenting My name, you bear witness that you belong to Me, that you are My sons and daughters, and the Father will treat you as His own, and love you as He loveth Me.” ST 6/96. Now God loves you as He loves Jesus Himself! Do you comprehend that? Praise God!

Dear Sir;

I received your book “National Sunday Law” I am in 100% agreement with what “National Sunday Law” is saying. Now I want more of them to get into the hands of others. God bless you for making this book available! I will be asking people in my church to read this book word for word as though their life depended on it. In many ways, it does. I have never realized how important the law of God is, and that the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord our God. Thank you! Thank you very much. Pastor R. F. Lucas

Dear Sir;

I recently had the privilege of reading your book National Sunday Law. I was utterly astonished. I would like to learn more about Bible prophecy and grow closer to the Lord. Thank you, and may God bless you always. William Menton Georgia terrible and extensive judgments which are to fall upon the world just before the final deliverance of God's people. Says the revelator, in describing those terrific scourges: ‘There fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshiped his image.’ The sea ‘became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.’ And ‘the rivers and fountains of waters ... became blood.’ Terrible as these inflictions are, God's justice stands fully vindicated. The angel of God declares: ‘Thou art righteous, O Lord, ... because Thou hast judged thus. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and Thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.’ Rev 16:2-6...

“In the plague that follows, power is given to the sun ‘to scorch men with fire. And men were scorched with great heat.’ Verses 8,9. The prophets thus describe the condition of the earth at this fearful time: ‘The land mourneth; ...

because the harvest of the field is perished... All the trees of the field are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.’ ‘The songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence.’ Joel 1:10-12,17-20; Amos 8:3.

“The heavenly sentinels, faithful to their trust, continue their watch. Though a general decree has fixed the time when commandment keepers may be put to death, their enemies will in some cases anticipate the decree, and before the time specified, will endeavor to take their lives. But none can pass the mighty guardians stationed about every faithful soul. [Look at the giant angels!] Some are assailed in their flight from the cities and villages; but the swords raised against them break and fall powerless as a straw. Others are defended by angels in the form of men of war... The precious Saviour will send help just when we need it. [Praise God!]

upon the crisis which His people are to meet, when earthly powers shall be arrayed against them... But the Holy One who divided the Red Sea before Israel, will manifest His mighty power and turn their captivity. 'They shall be Mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up My jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.' Mal 3:17... Says the psalmist: 'In the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pavilion: in the secret of His tabernacle shall He hide me.' Ps 27:5. Christ has spoken: 'Come, My people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast. For, behold, the Lord cometh out of His place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity.' Isa 26:20,21. Glorious will be the deliverance of those who have patiently waited for His coming and whose names are written in the book of life... [Praise God!]
