the LORD there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture; and he

the righteous shall be exalted.”

President Abraham Lincoln is visiting with his leading general - George B. McClellan. The great general was in charge of training the vast “Army of the Potomac” to defend Washington and put down the rebellion. But after spending months to train them, he had them just sitting there doing nothing - like Laodiceans do now. In this meeting, President Lincoln spoke so kindly, and with a tender heart to the general, and tried to encourage him to do something with his well trained men.

It touches your heart to know that back in Washington, when the leading men complained to the President that the general wasn't doing his job, and maybe hinting that he fire him, he told them that he would stand and hold McClellan's horse for him if the general would only do what he could.

After President Lincoln left the kindly meeting with McClellan, the general wrote a letter to his wife, thrilling her heart with a description of what a great general he is, and that President Abraham Lincoln is the “Original Gorilla.”

The triple crown and the keys to the gates of hell, “going down to the chambers of death.”

In the end of the world what escape is there? The lot of the righteous is indeed an enviable one at such a time to those who are suffering because of their sins.

Dear SDA friends around the world,

Greetings in Jesus' holy name. Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: The above Bible verse says, “He putteth down one, and setteth up another.” What does that have to do with President Abraham Lincoln, and with our President today? Did God work with His mighty power against all the armies of hell to put them both into that position? Or was it just an accident? And it says that God is holding a cup of red wine which He pours out. Is that the blood of dear Jesus? And it says that the wicked of the earth will wring out the dregs of that wine and drink them. Does that represent the horrible sufferings the wicked will experience who reject the precious blood and sacrifice that Jesus gave to save us from Satan's power and eternal death? And how will these things affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

“We are living in the midst of an ‘epidemic of crime’ at which thoughtful, God-fearing men everywhere stand aghast. The corruption that prevails is beyond the power of the human pen to describe. Every day brings fresh revelations of political strife, bribery, and fraud; every day brings its heartsickening record of violence and lawlessness, of indifference to human suffering; of brutal, fiendish destruction of human life. Every day testifies to the increase of insanity, murder, and suicide.

“The cities of today are fast becoming like Sodom and Gomorrah. The whirl of excitement and pleasure attracts thousands from the sober duties of life. The exciting sports—theatergoing, horse racing, gambling, liquor, reveling—stimulate every passion to activity.

“The youth are swept away by the popular current. Those who learn to love amusement for its own sake open the door to a flood of temptations. They give themselves up to social gaiety and thoughtless mirth. They are led on from one form of dissipation to another, until they lose both the desire and the capacity for a life of usefulness. All the nobler faculties of the soul, all that link man with the spiritual world, are debased...

“The intense passion for money getting, the thirst for display, the luxury and extravagance—all are forces that are turning the mind from life’s true purpose. Many regard their wealth as a means of glorifying self while all about them are human beings in misery and crime, in disease and death...

“The Scriptures describe the condition of the world just before Christ’s second coming... ‘Judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter. Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey.’ Isa. 59:14,15.

“Even the church, which should be the pillar and ground of the truth, is found encouraging a selfish love of pleasure. When money is raised for religious purposes, to what means do many churches resort? To bazaars, suppers, fancy fairs, even to lotteries. [In a celebration church I visited, the pastor’s wife came into the lobby with a cheerful smile to welcome us dressed in new jeans, having the appearance of a goodly layer of blue paint. The church also had hospitality - sending waitresses into the sanctuary during the sermon to serve cups of caffeine drug to the inmates to help them either stay awake, or asleep. It was also a caring church. They announced that

The prophet of God reveals that the closer we get to the end of the world as we know it, the more scenes like the ones you see in this letter, will be considered as “The new normal.”

we would go to a member’s house that sabbath afternoon and paint his barn. The prophet continues -] Often the place set apart for God’s worship is desecrated by feasting and drinking, buying, selling, and merrymaking. Respect for the house of God and reverence for His worship are lessened in the minds of the youth...

“From age to age the Lord has made known the manner of His working. When a crisis has come, He has revealed Himself and has interposed to hinder the working out of Satan’s plans. With nations, with families, and with individuals He has often permitted matters to come to a crisis, that His interference might become marked. Then He has made it manifest that there is a God in Israel who will maintain His law and vindicate His people.

“In the antediluvian world human agencies brought in all manner of devisings and ingenious practices to make of no effect the law of Jehovah. They cast aside His authority because it interfered with their schemes... In this time of prevailing iniquity we may know that the last great crisis is at hand. When defiance against God’s law is almost universal, when His people are oppressed and afflicted by their fellow men, the Lord will interpose.

“Satan is not asleep; he is wide awake to make of no effect the sure word of prophecy. For years Satan has been gaining control of human minds through subtle sophistries that he has devised to take the place of the truth. In this time of peril, rightdoers, in the fear of God, will glorify His name by repeating the words of David: ‘It is time for Thee, Lord, to work: for they have made void Thy law.’ Ps. 119:126...

“The new normal.”

“During a vision of the night, I stood on an eminence, from which I could see houses shaken like a reed in the wind. Buildings, great and small, were falling to the ground. Pleasure resorts, theaters, hotels, and the homes of the wealthy were shaken and shattered. Many lives were blotted out of existence, and the air was filled with the shrieks of the injured and the terrified.

“The destroying angels of God were at work. One touch, and buildings, so thoroughly constructed that men regarded them as secure against every danger, quickly became heaps of rubbish. There was no assurance of safety in any place. The awfulness of the scenes that passed before me I cannot find words to describe. It seemed that the forbearance of God was exhausted and that the Judgment day had come.

You’ve already learned in the Catholic book, Making America Catholic, that papal leaders have openly predicted chaos and horrors for the U.S. as they work with desperate power to lovingly tear down the country and build it up again as a Catholic nation - with just the right laws and taxes to assist the masses to be as happy as possible in a type of semi-slavery. {You might have noticed that states like CA, IL, and NY are moving that direction as fast as their papal controlled leaders can lead them.} To accomplish this great work, they are cooperating with their father to bring in “the new normal.” Thus, the devil and his doomed forces are working to make the poor masses accept horrors and calamities - on the way to the enforcement of Rome’s mark at the national Sunday law - “the new normal.”

“The angel that stood at my side then instructed me that but few have any conception of the wickedness existing in our world today... Those who choose to remain disloyal must be visited in mercy with judgments, in order that, if possible, they may be aroused to a realization of the sinfulness of their course.” 9T 89-93.

Hope: Our kind Father is working with the nations to save all who will. Some of the great leaders whom God has used are Daniel, Joseph, Nebuchadnezzar, Martin Luther, etc. What about President Abraham Lincoln and our President now?

Pastor Jan: Look at these quotes from the book, Lincoln on Leadership - “Without question, Lincoln displayed an amazing amount of courage. He survived numerous setbacks and defeats only to overcome them all.

“At a time when the success of his work seemed most hopeless, President Lincoln believed that, in the end, his course would be vindicated.”

Pastor Jan: When the wicked people were attacking him with lies to destroy him - 24/7 - He said, “It is the people's business... If they turn their backs to the fire, and get scorched in the rear, they'll have to sit on the blisters.”

In his first four years as president, Abraham Lincoln not only endured all the false criticism and slander but overcame it to secure victory in the war and preserve the nation – a most amazing achievement. In the process, he also reorganized the American military system, abolished slavery, renewed patriotism in America, [and worked to make America great again.]

“Severe and lying criticism did not subside after Lincoln took the oath of office. Cruel attacks came even from within his own administration, from Congress, and from within his own cabinet. No matter what he did, there were people who would not be pleased.” I saw a church billboard which said, “To avoid criticism, say nothing, do nothing, be nothing.”

In his first year, the President was required to fill many vacant government positions by appointment. Regarding these vacancies he once remarked: “There are 20 applicants for the job, and of these, I must choose one, and make 19 enemies.” As his enemies increased so did the criticism against him. [Do you think that such a thing could ever happen again?] But

President Lincoln handled it all with uncommon patience. He said, “Human nature will not change.”

“People whom he supposed were his friends, vented their jealousy against him through verbal attacks.”

His real heart and spirit is shown in this quote, “President Lincoln made it a point to visit hospitals where wounded soldiers were recuperating. In 1862 he visited the commander of the Monitor who was nearly blinded by a shell in the famous battle with the Merrimack. During his meeting with the wounded sailor, the President burst into tears.”

“President Lincoln's grand mission is expressed in the declaration of independence. He aimed at the elevation of men, opposed anything that tended to degrade the people, and especially lashed out at the institution of slavery.” For this, he received lying attacks from every direction 24/7 by “the wicked people.” Most people don't know it, but there are only two groups, two churches, “two parties,” in the world; 1} - “the honest people,” and 2} - “the wicked people.” Each of the two “parties” have many names. But no matter which of the many names they use, there is one way you can tell which of the “two parties” you, I, and everyone else are in. The prophet of God revealed it in these words -

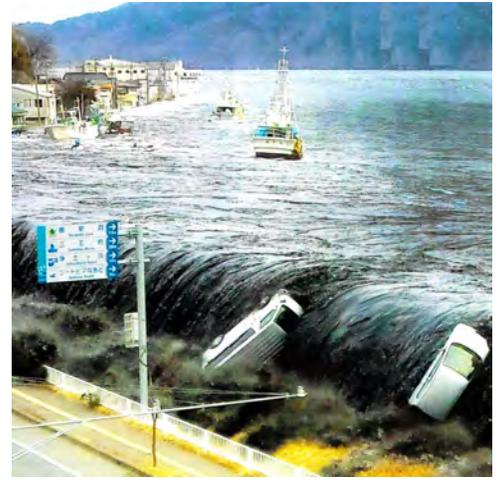

“There are only two parties in our world, those who are loyal to God, and those who stand under the banner of the prince of darkness.” 7BC 974. People of both parties are, at the same time, in God's visible, remnant church. The devil's Sunday law will get rid of “the majority” [LDE 180] and separate the members of the two “parties” forever. Whichever of the two masters a person obeys, reveals who, where, and what they are. And dear Jesus revealed it when He was talking with His own dear church leaders who were controlled by demons -

“Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin... If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed... Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God. Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God... Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do... Which of you convinceth me of sin?... Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death. Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death. Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? whom makest thou thyself? Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God: Yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying. Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad. Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am. Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.” John 8:34-59. Wonderful Jesus! We love Thee dear Jesus, our Lord and our God.

Of one man who told evil lies about President Lincoln, the President said, “By his use of fanciful words he can make a chestnut horse look like a horse chestnut.”

Of another wicked attacker, the President said that his ideas were like the shadow of a pigeon that had starved to death.

Of another lying fiend, the President said that the poor man was confused “like a duck that had been hit on the head.”

Dear Jan Marcussen,

Hi. My name is Ronnie. I became a heroin addict and could not maintain a job, so I started selling drugs and got caught. I served time in prison, and then got out to go into a rehabilitation program. I'm studying to be a drug counselor. I received a copy of your book “National Sunday Law!” It is very very profound and enlightening! I thank our Father the Eternal God, and Jesus our Saviour for putting you into the ministry and for writing that book! It has given me an exact understanding of the meaning of Revelation, and how to escape the mark of the beast. I have read and re-read this book almost every day since I received it. God has used your book to explain a great deal of the mysteries of the kingdom of God to me, and I want to say “thank you.” Today is God's holy Sabbath. May God bless you always, in Jesus' name, Amen.

Dear Sirs:

Someone gave me your book entitled “National Sunday Law.” I read it two times and I see that you have lots of information that should be made known to our whole nation! I have friends that are interested in what you reveal in your book. I want to get many more of them to send to many people. From what I hear on the radio and in the news, it appears that we are about to enter the great tribulation. Pretty soon, the Catholic Church is going to use certain countries to attack our nation, the bastion of Protestantism. F.C. Moore

When a comrade of President Lincoln said, "I hope God is on our side," The President said, "We trust sir, that God is on our side. It is more important to know that we are on God's side."

In 1862, one newspaper called the President "a frightened racoon."

The Atlantic said, "Sure, we revere Lincoln today, but in his lifetime, bile poured on him from every quarter. His ancestry was impugned, his lack of formal learning ridiculed, [He never graduated from the 1st grade] his appearance maligned, and his morality assailed.

<https://www.theatlantic.com/magazine/archive/2013/06/abraham-lincoln-is-an-idiot/309304/>

"No matter what Lincoln did, it was never enough for one faction, and too much for another. His sure-footed leadership during this country's most-difficult days was accompanied by a steady stream of abuse — in editorials, in speeches, in journals, and in private letters. Today you could add to the list - crooked T.V. news joints, papal inspired radio and internet fiends, mob organizers, and the vast web of agencies which the papacy controls.

"George T. Strong, a prominent New York lawyer, wrote that Lincoln was "a barbarian, a Scythian, and a gorilla." The Independent (New York), called him "an unshapely man." Other northern newspapers openly called for his assassination long before John Wilkes Booth pulled the trigger. [Roman Catholic Booth was part of a nest of Catholic priests, Jesuits, and their trainees, most of whom were later hung for the murder of the President. The papacy hated him because he was a true Protestant upholding the Constitution. They hate the President today because he also is working to thwart Rome's long held plan to send so many millions of dear Catholic people into the nation that Rome can take it over - as spelled out in the papal book, Making America Catholic.

President Lincoln was called a coward, "an idiot," and "the original gorilla" by none other than the commanding general of his armies, George McClellan.

"In the Ohio Republican, William M. Dickson wrote that Lincoln "is universally an admitted failure, has no will, no courage, and no executive capacity."

"William P. Fessenden, of the Maine Republican, said that President Lincoln is "weak as water."

"Elizabeth Stanton, the famous abolitionist, called Lincoln "Dishonest Abe." She bemoaned his "incapacity and rottenness." Like many others, Stanton eventually had a change of heart, was enlightened, and converted. Then she lamented her efforts against the President."

But we praise God that not everyone is totally demon possessed. "Lincoln was revered by millions. History records more grief and mourning upon his death than for any other American president. Edwin Stanton said, "Now he belongs to the ages." Like Martin Luther, he was not perfect. But God used him mightily to bless millions, and free more millions from slavery.

Pastor Jan: The Atlantic asks, "Where is the political giant of our era?" [Can you guess?] Will there ever again be anyone who has been attacked like Lincoln was?"

Charity: And what about the 144,000 who - working with the angels of God - will finish God's work on the earth? Will they be treated better than dear Jesus was?

The Atlantic asks, "Where is the bold resolve, the moral courage, the vision?"

Faith: "He putteth down one and setteth up another." Ps. 75:7. Would our kind Father ever do it again? Wouldn't constant opposition and lies from demons and their armies destroy an honest, godly person like Abraham Lincoln in our day?

Pastor Jan: Here it is - "Opposition and resistance only serve to bring out truth in new, distinct lines. The more truth is spoken against, the brighter it will shine. [Praise God!] Thus the precious ore is polished. Every word of slander spoken against it, every misrepresentation of its value, awakens attention, and is the means of leading to closer investigation as to what is saving truth. The truth becomes more highly estimated. New beauty and greater value are revealed from every point of view." EV 309. Praise God!

Hope: What will our kind Father do to thwart the mad efforts of the "wicked people" to stop God's "honest people" from going into the promised land?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - "The great Ruler of nations had declared that Moses was not to lead the congregation of Israel into the goodly land, and the earnest pleading of God's servant could not secure a reversing of His sentence. He knew that he must die. Yet he had not for a moment faltered in his care for Israel. He had faithfully sought to prepare the congregation to enter upon the promised inheritance..."

"The removal of their beloved leader would be a far stronger rebuke to Israel than any which they could have received had his life and mission been continued. [It was the same with President Lincoln.] God would lead them to feel that they were not to make the life of their future leader as trying as they had made that of Moses. God speaks to His people in blessings bestowed; and when these are not appreciated, He speaks to them in blessings removed, that they may be led to see their sins, and return to Him with all the heart... [That's why, if a congregation doesn't appreciate a godly pastor who seeks to bless them with the pure truth, kindly corrections, and training on how to work to save souls, our kind Father will finally give them the kind of preacher, with the kind of tasty baby food they want. That has happened in many churches now. Many pleasure loving Laodiceans are receiving pastors trained by poor Hyveth Williams. Later, if God's dear people cry to Him with all their hearts - to save them from all evil, He will remove the evil and lovingly "set up" not what they want, but what they need. That's why, in our nation dear Jesus didn't set up a joyful Lesbian witch, but He rather set up a bulldozer.]

"For the last time Moses stood in the assembly of his people. Again the Spirit of God rested upon him, and in the most sublime and touching language he pronounced a blessing upon each of the tribes, closing with a benediction upon them all..."

"Moses turned from the congregation, and in silence and alone made his way up the mountainside. He went to 'the

Dear Sir,

I could never really understand Revelation until now! I just wanted to write to you because I'm captivated by your book "National Sunday Law." I used to honor Sundays until Herold Goodman gave me your book. Since then I've been keeping God's seventh day Sabbath holy, and attending the Seventh-day Adventist church. I can tell that you really know the book of Revelation. I want to serve God and not man from now on! Thank you so much!

Dear Pastor Jan,

Your book "National Sunday Law" has come to redeem people from straying from God and His truth by the tricky works of Rome. I thank God that "National Sunday Law" gave me freedom from all mental pressures by throwing light on the ways of our Father God. A friend gave me the book. After reading it, I felt a great relief. It gave me the power to arise and be strong in the Lord so as to keep the enemies of the Lord down. Now I feel in my spirit that I will be a man of God. May God's blessings be upon you all. Amen!

Dear Jan Marcussen,

I have read the amazing book "National Sunday Law." I must say that now I will obey God's Sabbath, which has been so clearly revealed from the Bible in this book. I refuse to be a hypocrite like the preacher who talks about the 10 commandments and yet openly breaks them by honoring the 1st day of the week instead of the 7th. I thank you for this book from the depths of my heart! Michael King mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah...'

"Yet he did not regret the burdens he had borne... He felt that he had made a wise decision in choosing to suffer affliction with the people of God, rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season...

"And now a panoramic view of the Land of Promise was presented to him. Every part of the country was spread out before him, not faint and uncertain in the dim distance, but standing out clear, distinct, and beautiful to his delighted vision.

"Moses saw the chosen people established in Canaan, each of the tribes in its own possession. He had a view of their history after the settlement of the Promised Land; the long, sad story of their apostasy and its punishment was spread out before him. He saw them, because of their sins, dispersed among the heathen, the glory departed from Israel, her beautiful city in ruins...

"He was permitted to look down the stream of time and behold the first advent of our Saviour. He saw Jesus as a babe in Bethlehem. He heard the voices of the angelic host break forth in the glad song of praise to God and peace on earth... He beheld Christ's humble life in Nazareth, His ministry of love and sympathy and healing, His rejection by a proud, unbelieving nation. Amazed, he listened to their boastful exaltation of the law of God, while they despised and rejected Him by whom the law was given. He saw Jesus upon Olivet as with weeping He bade farewell to the city of His love. As Moses beheld the final rejection of that people so highly blessed of Heaven... his heart was wrung with anguish, and bitter tears fell from his eyes, in sympathy with the sorrow of the Son of God.

"He followed the Saviour to Gethsemane, and beheld the agony in the garden, the betrayal, the mockery and scourging—the crucifixion. Moses saw that as he had lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so the Son of God must be lifted up, that whosoever would believe on Him 'should not perish, but have eternal life.' Jn. 3:15. Grief, indignation, and horror filled the heart of Moses as he viewed the hypocrisy and satanic hatred manifested by the Jewish nation against their Redeemer, the mighty Angel who had gone before their fathers. He heard Christ's agonizing cry, 'My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?' Mk. 15:34. He saw Him lying in Joseph's new tomb. The darkness of hopeless despair seemed to enshroud the world. But he looked again, and beheld Him coming forth a conqueror, and ascending to heaven escorted by adoring angels and leading a multitude of captives. [Praise God!] He saw the shining gates open to receive Him, and the host of heaven with songs of triumph welcoming their Commander. And it was there revealed to him that he himself would be one who should attend the Saviour, and open to Him the everlasting gates. As he looked upon the scene, his countenance shone with a holy radiance. How small appeared the trials and sacrifices of his life when compared with those of the Son of God!... He rejoiced that he had been permitted, even in a small measure, to be a partaker in the sufferings of Christ...

"And now another scene passed before him. He had been shown the work of Satan in leading the Jews to reject Christ, while they professed to honor His Father's law. He now saw the Christian world under a similar deception in professing to accept Christ while they rejected God's law. He had heard from the priests and elders the frenzied cry, 'Away with Him!' 'Crucify Him, crucify Him!' and now he heard from professedly Christian teachers the cry, 'Away with the law!' He saw the Sabbath trodden under foot, and a spurious institution established in its place. Again Moses was filled with astonishment and horror. How could those who believed in Christ reject the law spoken by His own voice upon the sacred mount? How could any that feared God set aside the law which is the foundation of His government in heaven and earth? With joy Moses saw the law of God still honored and exalted by a faithful few. He saw the last great struggle of earthly powers to destroy those who keep God's law. He looked forward to the time when God shall arise to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity, and those who have feared His name shall be covered and hid in the day of His anger... He saw the second coming of Christ in glory, the righteous dead raised to immortal life, and the living saints translated without seeing death, and together ascending with songs of gladness to the City of God.

"Still another scene opens to his view—the earth freed from the curse, [Praise God!] lovelier than the fair Land of Promise so lately spread out before him. There is no sin, and death cannot enter. There the nations of the saved find their eternal home. With joy unutterable Moses looks upon the scene—the fulfillment of a more glorious deliverance than his brightest hopes have ever pictured. Their earthly wanderings forever past, the Israel of God have at last entered the goodly land.

"Again the vision faded, and his eyes rested upon the land of Canaan as it spread out in the distance. Then, like a tired warrior, he lay down to rest. 'So Moses the servant of the Lord died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the Lord. And He buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor...

"And there arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face..."

"Had not the life of Moses been marred with that one sin, he would have entered the Promised Land, and would have been translated to heaven without seeing death. But he was not long to remain in the tomb. Christ Himself, with the angels who had buried Moses, came down from heaven to call forth the sleeping saint. Satan had exulted at his success in causing Moses to sin against God, and thus come under the dominion of death... The power of the grave had never been broken, and all who were in the tomb he claimed as his captives..."

"For the first time Christ was about to give life to the dead. As the Prince of life and the shining ones approached the grave, Satan was alarmed for his supremacy. With his evil angels he

Dear Pastor Jan,

A friend of mine found the book "National Sunday Law" on a bench. He read it, and the Holy Spirit convicted him that the seventh day Sabbath of the Bible is the Sabbath of God. Since then, Ralph has gotten your whole CCA video series, and has already ordered 1000 "National Sunday Law" books to give out! Praise the Lord! He has also accepted God's health message and is now a vegetarian. He poured all of his liquor down the drain and has taken off all of his jewelry and will probably sell it for the cause of truth. He used to be a Nazarene, and now he is a Seventh-day Adventist. Praise God! He gets all the praise and glory for this wonderful event! He asked me to write this letter to you with this wonderful information in it. We're praying for you and your ministry! Please pray for us! Your brother and sister in Christ, S. & P.

Dear Pastor Jan,

I have recently become a Seventh-day Adventist. I remember when I first read your book "National Sunday Law." God guided me and led me. I got married to a Baptist woman, and she is now accepting God's truth and worshipping with me on Sabbath also. I want to pass out this book to people so that they may also know the truth! I pray that God will use me in such a way as to give out this literature to many. I want to order a large amount of them. May God bless you. Continue to stay faithful and close to our heavenly Father. He deserves all the praise and glory. His Spirit has been upon you to spread his third Angel's message. Your brother in Christ, L.C.

stood to dispute an invasion of the territory that he claimed as his own. He boasted that the servant of God had become his prisoner. He declared that even Moses was not able to keep the law of God; that he had taken to himself the glory due to Jehovah—the very sin which had caused Satan’s banishment from heaven—and by transgression had come under the dominion of Satan...

“Christ did not stoop to enter into controversy with Satan... But Christ referred all to His Father, saying, ‘The Lord rebuke thee.’ Jude 9. The Saviour entered into no dispute with His adversary, but He then and there began His work of breaking the power of the fallen foe, and bringing the dead to life. Here was an evidence that Satan could not controvert, [Praise God!] the supremacy of the Son of God. The resurrection was forever made certain. Satan was despoiled of his prey; the righteous dead would live again. [Wonderful Jesus!]

“In consequence of sin Moses had come under the power of Satan. In his own merits he was death’s lawful captive; but he was raised to immortal life, holding his title in the name of the Redeemer. Moses came forth from the tomb glorified, and ascended with his Deliverer to the City of God...

Dear Sir,
I just finished reading your book “National Sunday Law.” It is what I’ve been waiting to read all my life! Thank you! It was fascinating! I can’t say enough about “National Sunday Law.” It has given me so much peace and insight, and I feel like a new person! I feel like a new Christian. Thanks again. In Christ, B.E.

“Upon the mount of transfiguration Moses was present with Elijah, who had been translated... And thus the prayer of Moses, uttered so many centuries before, was at last fulfilled. He stood upon the ‘goodly mountain,’ within the heritage of his people, bearing witness to Him in whom all the promises to Israel centered. Such is the last scene revealed to mortal vision in the history of that man so highly honored of Heaven.

“Moses was a type of Christ... God saw fit to discipline Moses in the school of affliction and poverty before he could be prepared to lead the hosts of Israel to the earthly Canaan. The Israel of God [here in our day] journeying to the heavenly Canaan, have a Captain who needed no human teaching to prepare Him for His mission; yet He was made perfect through sufferings; and ‘in that He Himself hath suffered being tempted, He is able to succor them that are tempted.’ Heb. 2:10,18.” PP 469-480.

“And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.” Rev. 5:13. Praise God friend! Praise God!
