Do you see the prison guard? They're in the "chain gang."
Hope: Why a chain gang? What does it mean?
Pastor Jan: You'll know in a minute.

Their ankles are bound to each other with chains.

shall be sure. Thine eyes shall see the king in his beauty: they shall behold the land that is very far off.”

Charity: The December letter revealed that some poor liberals are pleading with people that because of climate change we must eat dead people and eat babies! Is that why the dog picked up this living baby with its umbilical cord beside a dumpster? Is this the kind of thing that happens in the end of the world while the devil is tricking the poor fiends into legalizing marijuana, and people are swallowing hot sauce from hell?

Pastor Jan: You're about to find out.

Dear SDA friends around the world,
Greetings in Jesus' holy name. Read all the boxes in this letter, then come back here and we'll talk about what's happening.

Faith: The text says, “His place of defense shall be the munitions of rocks: bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure. Thine eyes shall see the king in his beauty: they shall behold the land that is very far off.” Isa. 33:16,17. What do these thrilling words have to do with our experience after the mark of the beast is enforced by law; and we leave our homes and live in the woods or mountains; and many of us become slaves, and our food is brought to us by angels in human form, and we see the face of God? Does the prophet reveal that slavery will come back? Are chain gang people in slavery? And how will it affect us?

Pastor Jan: Are you ready? Here we go -

God's prophet said, "Our people have been regarded as too insignificant to be worthy of notice, but a change will come. [Is that change starting? Would you like to be famous?] The Christian world is now making movements which will necessarily bring commandment-keeping people into prominence... The lawmaking powers will be against God's people. Every soul will be tested... Every position of our faith will be searched into; and if we are not thorough Bible students, established, strengthened, and settled, the wisdom of the world's great men will lead us astray." 5T 446. "A change will come." Is it coming?

PRESS RELEASE

U.S. Department of Justice Urges Supreme Court to Hear Seventh-day Adventist's Sabbath Accommodation Case

December 11, 2019 | Washington, D.C. | Todd McFarland

Darrell Patterson was fired by Walgreens for refusing to work on the Sabbath. The Supreme Court will consider Patterson's petition on January 10, 2020.

The U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) on Monday, December 9, 2019, urged the Supreme Court to hear a case brought by Darrell Patterson, who was fired by Walgreens for refusing to work on the Sabbath. Walgreens knew for years that Darrell Patterson could not work on Saturday, but it stopped accommodating him when a mistake by corporate executives prompted a Saturday training session. The case is an important opportunity for the Supreme Court to clarify the standards for federal civil rights laws protecting religious people — and especially religious minorities like Patterson — from discrimination at work.

Patterson worked at Walgreens for several years with a longstanding agreement that he would not work on the Sabbath. But in 2011, Patterson's supervisors scheduled him for a last-minute training session on a Saturday to address an error made by Walgreens executives. Though the training could have been completed Friday, Sunday or Monday, Patterson was required to complete the training on Saturday.

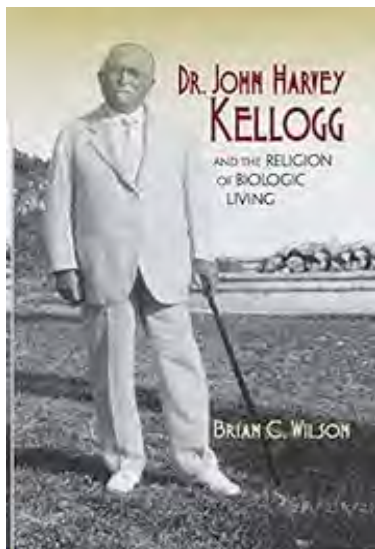

He tried unsuccessfully to trade shifts with a coworker, and ultimately completed the training on Monday (ahead of the deadline), but he was still fired for missing his Saturday shift. Patterson sued Walgreens in a Florida federal district court, which ruled in favor of his former employer. On appeal, the Eleventh Circuit also sided with the company. In 2018, Patterson filed a petition for the case to be heard by the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court will consider Patterson's petition on January 10, 2020. If the court agrees to hear the matter, it will issue a ruling by the end of June 2020.

The Battle Creek Sanitarium before it burned in 1902.

Up in flames

It's all gone. "Fire Chief Weeks, who had directed the fighting of a number of big fires in Battle Creek, was later to declare that he had fought every one of the Adventist fires and his score was zero. 'There is something strange,' he said, 'about your SDA fires, with the water poured on acting more like gasoline.'" 5 Bio, 224. First it was the publishing house, and then the world famous Sanitarium. God's prophet revealed what none of them knew. When the publishing house burned, an angel of God was seen going around with a torch, setting the whole place on fire. Why would dear Jesus have His angel do that? You'll know in a minute.

Tenth Circuit Court Rules Reasonableness of Religious Accommodations Requires Factual Determination

By Seyfarth Shaw LLP

This article reveals that two Seventh-day Adventists were fired from the Kellogg company for not working on God's Sabbath. The case is named, Tabura, et al. v. Kellogg, USA, Case No. 16-4135 (10th Cir.). The article reveals that the rules imposed upon two church members squeezed them until, try as they might to meet the requirements of man without breaking the requirements of God, they were fired by the Kellogg company. It was found that no human could possibly comply with the regulatory squeeze. Fired from the Kellogg company for not breaking God's holy Sabbath? How could it be? Don't they keep God's Sabbath like Dr. Kellogg did?

Do you see the boxes of Kellogg's corn flakes they're making? The article says that Dr. Kellogg invented both corn flakes, and peanut butter.

Dr. John Harvey Kellogg was put through medical school by James and Ellen White. Our kind Father richly blessed him to become world famous as a wonderful doctor at the head of the Battle Creek Sanitarium. World famous actors, millionaires, national leaders, etc. came to the sanitarium from all over the world. Before there was air-conditioning, {in the 1800's}, Dr. Kellogg put blocks of ice in the air ducts going into the rooms, giving the patients probably the first ever air conditioned hospital rooms. He made wonderful inventions for the patients to recover with natural means = {God's 8 laws of health} including herbs, the best vegetarian diet, exercise, etc. without drugs!

The Surprising Reason Why Dr. John Harvey Kellogg Invented Corn Flakes

Dear Jan Marcussen,
Thank you so much for your marvelous book "National Sunday Law." My eyes filled with tears of joy! Now, I will, with all my heart, honor God's law and keep His Sabbath day holy. God bless you and thank you again for sending the book to me. Love in Christ, N.K.

"As Americans binged, it induced a national case of indigestion and an interest in lighter fare that led to the rise of America's original health food - - cereal. Cereal would create fortunes and create multinational companies that we still know today. But Dr. John Harvey Kellogg, the inventor of corn flakes, did not care about profits. For him, cereal was not just a health food. He believed a diet centered on bland foods like cereal would lead Americans away from sin - one very specific sin: masturbation. ["As it was in the days of Noah." It seemed to him that the practice was so widespread that many in the whole wicked world were practicing masturbation. Dr. Kellogg wanted to do what he could to help save the people from the fire of hell.]

"In the 1900s, people desperately wanted cereal, and they bought as much cereal as Dr. Kellogg's health facility could produce. It was an opportunity for him to spread his gospel of biologic living. He said, 'It is no wonder that the human gastric machine has broken down, and that dyspepsia, constipation, and peristaltic woes of various descriptions have become universal in civilized lands.' Dr. Kellogg called for more exercise, more bathing, and eating whole grains and less meat. Like with today's organic food trends, he portrayed this as a scientific return to natural principles.

"He wrote, 'Highly seasoned [meats], stimulating [hot] sauces... and dainty tidbits in endless variety, irritate the nerves and... react upon the sexual organs.' Dr. Kellogg wrote as much about the dangers of sex and masturbation as he did about healthy living. Cereal was the bridge; the dietetic remedy to keep Americans' diets from leading them to sin. 'I am not after the business,' he told people. 'I am after reform.'

"Dr. Kellogg treated diseases and ailments with novel ideas like 'hydrotherapy.' He was a vegetarian, and with the assistance of his brother William, he invented foods like peanut butter and meatless meats for his patients. Corn flakes, which he first designed in the 1890s, were his most enduring legacy.

"But the cereal business quickly got away from Dr. Kellogg. His brother William founded the Kellogg Company, making Kellogg's Corn Flakes. A former patient at the Sanitarium, C.W. Post, created Post Toasties, Post Grape Nuts, and Post Grape Nuts Flakes. In 1863, James Caleb Jackson, invented granola. Sylvester Graham invented the 'graham cracker' with whole grain flour."

So in time, things went from the emphasis on physical and spiritual health, to the emphasis on money. Today, the Kellogg company does not "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." Ex. 20:8-11. That's why the dear Seventh-day Adventist men could be fired from the Kellogg company for kindly keeping God's Sabbath day holy - as Dr. John Harvey Kellogg would have done.

Faith: Since all kinds of diseases are caused from eating animal blood in meat, God required the Jews to drain all the blood out = Kosher. Now, nearly all grocery stores sell it oozing with tasty blood and puss. The Bible forbids us to eat meat with blood in it. Was Dr. Kellogg right? Can eating dead carcasses with its yummy blood and puss help people to be sex fiends and murderers?

Pastor Jan: Watch closely - "After the Fall, crime and wretchedness rapidly increased. Neither the marriage relation nor the rights of property were respected. Whoever coveted the wives or the possessions of his neighbor, took them by force, and men exulted in their deeds of violence. They delighted in destroying the life of animals; and the use of flesh for food rendered them still more cruel and bloodthirsty, until they came to regard human life with astonishing indifference. [It's that way now. Just the other day, Sean Hannity reported that the number of Down Syndrome children in society is decreasing - because they are being murdered! Congressman Doug Collins revealed these things. He said that when his daughter had a baby the nurse asked her whether she wanted to kill it, or let it live. Congressman Collins revealed that 10 states are now debating about making it legal to kill babies soon after they are born! Before you know it, people will be eating babies and drinking their blood like the pope and his friends have done - as you've already learned - prompting the International Common Law Court in Brussels to issue a warrant for their arrest.]

"The world was in its infancy; yet iniquity had become so deep and widespread [as it is now] that God could no longer bear with it; and He said, 'I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth.'" PP 92.

Hope: Where do chain gangs come in?

Dear Pastor Marcussen,
I am happy to inform you that I received the cases of "National Sunday Law," and that we gave them to the people. As a result, we baptized 37 people. Soon I will conduct another crusade where I will again distribute these books to the people. Yours in Christ, K.S.

Dear Jan Marcussen,
Your book "National Sunday Law" is wonderful! You did a great job explaining Bible prophecy! Your book is all true! I accept the seal of God, which means that I adopt God's law, His Sabbath, and His ways. Let us thank Him, keep His commandments, and live in the love of our Lord Jesus Christ. Why did our kind Father allow the destruction of the publishing house and the sanitarium? You can read about it in 8T 90-93. God showed it to His prophet in vision 5 months before it happened - in these words - "I have been almost afraid to open the Review, fearing to see that God has cleansed the publishing house by fire. 8T, p. 91. The prophet saw a holy angel going from room to room with a torch, setting the whole place on fire. God lovingly allows calamities to come to His people to help prevent worse calamities because of their sins. This is seen all through the Bible in the history of His people. The final cleansing is still future, and will prepare His dear people for heaven once and for all.

treated as it is possible to treat men who, for no offense against their fellow-men, are taken from their homes and families, and required to subsist upon prison fare, and work ten hours per day under a southern sun, for daring to obey a command of God." 3) "In both Henry and Rhea counties, Tennessee, the chain-gang had fallen into disuse because it was found to be unprofitable, but it was revived especially for the punishment of Seventh-day Adventists." 4) "One of the lessees visited the camp and ordered the whipping boss to give Harvey a hundred lashes a day for three months, or, [until he would work on God's Sabbath.] In vain did the poor man explain that he was sick. The next day the whipping boss took a heavy pole and beat Harvey with it. Harvey said, 'I was lying down and James hit me on the back of the head and shoulders. He was beating me when the doctor told him to stop, saying that anybody could see that I was sick.'

A chain gang in the U.S. in 2006.

To whom it may concern,
I asked God to please guide me and show me the truth. When I came home after work, there was this amazing book called "National Sunday Law!" It caught my eyes, and I couldn't put the book down! Now I want more to give to others. I want them to know the truth about our King of Kings, and respect His holy day. I just want to say "Thank you" to those who put the book on my door-step, and opened my eyes! D.E. New York City

"When cold weather came on he was refused shoes or sufficient clothing, and both his feet were badly frozen. He said, "Each morning they dragged me out to the brickyard, which was about a half a mile out, and let me lie there all day. Then they dragged me back at night. They dragged me head first on my breast, and wore the skin off my belly and breast."

"Some were compelled to work almost naked in icy water until their feet were frozen, and they were permanently crippled. Some lost portions of their feet, and in one or two cases, legs had to be amputated.

"Such are the abuses to which, under the Sunday law of Georgia, [not now enforced] God fearing men, good citizens, good neighbors, kind husbands and fathers, are liable to be subjected."

Pastor Jan: I cut most of this article out and watered it down so it wouldn't be too shocking.

"North Carolina continued to use chain gangs into the 1970s. Chain gangs were reintroduced by a few states during the 'get tough on crime' in the 1990s, with Alabama being the first state to revive them in 1995." The article says that in Arizona, they still have chain gangs.

"In 2012 the MailOnline, a British newspaper, reported on a women's chain gang operated by a jail in Phoenix, Arizona. Women are chained together and carry out tasks like weeding at the sides of highways and burying bodies at a cemetery."

Dear Jan Marcussen,
A few days ago I was wondering about what the Bible says concerning the Sabbath when I received the book "National Sunday Law." I just now finished reading it and I have to write to you! You are the first one I know of who puts it all together, {that the Catholic church is the great whore of Revelation}, with the other important information about this power trying to change God's Sabbath. I know that what is in your book is the truth! I want to get more of these books for others. Thank you very much, and God bless you. N.S.

Dear Sir,
Your book "National Sunday Law" is really an eye-opener. It is opening the eyes of many many people in both the state and federal prisons. Many who were blind, deaf, and dumb have had a beam of light come into their minds. This book has caused both Roman Catholics and Protestants to start keeping God's seventh day Sabbath, and to leave their fallen churches and become Seventh-day Adventists! I was raised as a Roman Catholic myself. Your brother and friend, Johnny

Dear Sir:

I was a Roman Catholic until I read your book "National Sunday Law." The revelation of it was extremely shocking to me. The book is fascinating and I know that it's blessed by God. I can't find words to describe it! I get on my knees and thank God that it came into my hands. And not only that, I thank God that I learned these wonderful things. I want to share this truth with my family and those I love, so they too may have the "seal of God" in their foreheads. Thank you again, and may our blessed Lord and Savior bless you always. L.E.

Dear Sir,

I have read "National Sunday Law" twice now, and the more I read it, the more convicted I become. When I look upon the immorality of society it can be clearly seen that the handwriting is on the wall. I have been a Sunday worshiper, but after reading this book and comparing it with my Bible, I am made aware of how serious the consequences are in not keeping God's law. I am going to change. I am going to start keeping God's Bible Sabbath holy. It's time for God's people to stand up against evil and separate themselves from the world. I will do my part to enlighten others. I will be sending "National Sunday Law" books to ministers. I am disgusted with the position that Christians hold today. We need more warriors who will stand up for Christ no matter what the cost. Life has no meaning to me unless Christ is in it. Respectfully yours, Y.C.

to the grave loaded with infamy because they refused to yield to the deceptive claims of Satan. By human tribunals the children of God have been adjudged the vilest criminals. But the day is near when 'God is judge Himself.' (Ps. 50:6). White robes will be given to every one of them. (Rev 6:11.) [Praise God!] And 'they shall call them the holy people, the redeemed of the Lord.' Isa. 62:12.

"Whatever crosses they have been called to bear, whatever losses they have sustained, whatever persecution they have suffered, even to the loss of their temporal life, the children of God are amply recompensed. 'They shall see His face; and His name shall be in their foreheads.' Rev. 22:4. [Praise God!]

"Let all who are afflicted or unjustly used, cry to God. Turn away from those whose hearts are as steel, and make your requests known to your Maker.

Dear Sir,
A man gave me a book called "National Sunday Law." Then he drove away. It changed my life! I grew up as a Baptist, but there was something missing deep down inside. I had no rest. After reading your book I am a Seventh-day Adventist. I left a large Sunday school, social events, everything. But I learned about God's Sabbath, [and His love], and I found peace of mind in Jesus. Thanks for your book! Don't get tired of working for God! C.P.

Never is one repulsed who comes to Him with a contrite heart. Not one sincere prayer is lost. [Praise God!]

Amid the anthems of the celestial choir, God hears the cries of the weakest human being. We pour out our heart's desire in our closets, we breathe a prayer as we walk by the way, and our words reach the throne of the Monarch of the universe. They may be inaudible to any human ear, but they cannot die away into silence... Nothing can drown the soul's desire. [Praise the Lord!] It rises above the din of the street, above the confusion of the multitude, to the heavenly courts. It is God to whom we are speaking, and our prayer is heard."
